"Tan and sunburn cream" at Gibson's Red Cross drug store.

Miss Kathleen Morphy, Kingston, is spending her holidays with her parents in Renfrew.

Frederick Clark, Rideau street, has been appointed night agent and operator at Parham station.

The grocers are undecided about the Wednesday afternoon holiday for the clerks this year. Last year it was started on July 1st.

Mrs. Michael Sullivan, King street, was stricken with paralysis on Sunday afternoon, and on Monday her condition was reported to be critical.

"Tan and sunburn cream" at Gibson's Red Cross drug store.

The Bishop of Kingston preached a stirring sermon on school patriotism at the closing of Trinity College School, at Port Hope.

Miss Mollie Bidwell, Kingston, won high honors at St. Agnes school, Belleville, taking scholarships which entitled her to a year's tuition free.

On Sunday, St. George's cathedral was finely decorated with flags and flowers, the work of the cadets. Elliott Irvin, Rochester, sang a solo in splendid tenor voice.

Chalmers Sunday school picnic is to be held on election day, June 29th, and Dr. A. E. Ross, who is a Chalmers man will not be able to attend, of course.

Miss S. Tobin, of Syracuse, N.Y., who has been visiting her parents, on Division street, left for the former point on Monday afternoon, aboard the Cape boat for Cape Vincent.

In nine-tenths of the municipalities of the province the Rowell policy means the immediate, entire abolition of the retail sale of liquor. There is no mistaking the issue. Vote as your conscience dictates.

Excavations for the new sewer on Clergy street are going ahead rapidly. The pipes have been lying along the roadside for over a month, while the men were busy on West street.

A party of Kingstonians held a "shore dinner" at Battersea on Sunday. This gathering was comprised of J. McKay, W. Kent, G. Smythe, G. Robertson, F. Sears, A. Cunningham, B. Dalton and C. G. Shannon.

Prof. Paul Benys, organist of St. Mary's cathedral, left, Monday afternoon, for Montreal, to spend a couple of weeks with friends. Rev. Sister Aida, of Notre Dame convent, will take his place in St. Mary's during his absence.

The master mechanics of Cleveland ran an excursion to Sackett's Harbor on Monday morning.

The party numbered about one hundred, arrived in Kingston on the steamer Rapids King early Monday morning and took the steamer America to Sackett's Harbor.

HUNTER-BLOMELEY WEDDING
Celebrated in Brooklyn, N. Y., Last Wednesday Evening.

A wedding of interest to many Kingstonians was celebrated at Bay Ridge, Christ church, Brooklyn, New York, last Wednesday evening at eight-thirty o'clock when Miss Emily Blomeley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Y. Blomeley was united in marriage to Dr. G. H. V. Hunter, son of Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. G. H. Hunter, of Kingston. The groom is a graduate of Queen's university. The church was beautifully decorated in the chancel and sanctuary with palms and large bouquets of pink carnations. The clergyman officiating was the Rev. Harold Arrowsmith.

Miss Blomeley, who was given away by her father, wore a gown of white satin trimmed with rose point lace, and court train, her veil, which was caught up with orange blossoms being fastened in a bow on the train. Her bouquet was a shower of lilies of the valley.

The bridesmaids, Miss Black and Miss Gordon, both from Montreal, were dressed in peach-colored crepe meteor and silver lace, and carried bouquets of sunrise roses. Miss Adeline Piper attended the bride, as maid of honor, wearing a white lace and net dress with crossing sash of blue satin. She also carried sunrise roses.

The best man was Dr. R. G. Moore. A pretty little flower girl was Caroline Holly, in pink and white, carrying a basket of roses, and with her was Harold Blomeley, the youngest brother of the bride as page.

A reception at the home of the bride, Ninety-fifth street and Shore Road followed the wedding. The house, which commands a complete view of New York harbor, lends itself beautifully to decoration and was like a fairy castle.

On the return from a wedding trip which is to be a motor tour, the bride and brides-groom will reside at 234 Seventy-third street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

14th to Attend Church.
Watertown, N.Y., Times.

On Sunday, July 5th, the 14th battalion, the Princess of Wales Own Rifles from Kingston, will attend the service at All Souls' church. There will be between 300 and 400 of these crack Canadian soldiers. It is probable that they will be accompanied by Company C, with which they will participate in the 4th of July celebration here Saturday. Upon learning that the Canadian troop was to be in the city over Sunday, Rev. Harry Westbrook Reed, pastor of the church, extended an invitation to attend the church service the following morning, the next to the last of the season.
