

GIVES REASONS For Deserting The Conservative Ranks A MORAL QUESTION CLEAVING PARTY CHAIN FROM MORAL CLAIM.

A. B. Cunningham, of Peterboro, Believes the Safety of His Home, the Welfare of His County, Must Take Precedence Over Any Party Call or Allegiance or Service.

A. B. Cunningham, of Peterboro, a conservative, gave six reasons, at Norwich, why he left the conservative party. He said:

In this great campaign in which the more party issue is secondary and the greatest social and moral question of the day is pre-eminent, when party ties are being severed, which conscience is cleaving asunder the party from the moral claim, when the great appeal of home and heart is being heard as never before, it is well that we brush aside the cobwebs of political habit, and face the issue as God means that real men should face it, not asking where will my party come out, but where will my God, my home, my country's interest stand in the great outcome.

In politics, I am a conservative, but I hold that the safety of my home, the welfare of my country, the divine responsibility of parent and citizen present claims that must take precedence over any party call to allegiance or service. As a father, I would rather have the future approval of my boy and my conscience for a right stand at this time than the plaudits of a province on a mere party issue.

I wish to state a few reasons why I cannot support my party in this campaign:

1. The Whitney government does not adequately protect my home.
2. It has flagrantly violated the fundamental rights of British citizenship by creating an inequality of franchise.

3. It has repeatedly ignored the people's mandate for advanced temperance legislation.

4. It is endorsed by the liquor traffic.

5. It is sailing under false colors by making false claims for success of and sympathy with temperance reform.

6. No promise of advance but indications of retrogression.

On the foregoing counts and many others (false maps, etc.), there is only one course for temperance conservatives to pursue, that is, place party in the background until some drastic house-cleaning is done and vote to protect the boy, the home, and the country by abolishing the bar. We can say, like the brave captain of the Empress, "We did not leave the ship, the ship left us," she was rammed by the deadly liquor interests.

LIQUOR MAP LIES.

A resident of the county was examining the political map on temperance. He found that Clarendon township in Frontenac county is marked black on one map and white on the other. He said: "Why, it is a fake. There has not been a liquor license in Clarendon township in a generation." To be of any value, political literature should tell the truth.

HAS ASKED TO BE RETIRED.

Has Been an Engineer for Fifty-three Years.

New York, June 23.—After working his way up for fifty-three years, from driver of a wood-burning locomotive to engineer on the New York Central's de luxe Empire State Limited, Dennis J. Cassin will ask for retirement this week, because he's "afraid he'll have to be a motorman" on an electric engine.

"I wouldn't do that for $1,000 a week," said the seventy-year-old engineer. Cassin recently won a diamond ring as the most popular driver in the country.

OLD AT TWENTY

Returns of Youth with Proper Food.

Many people who eat plenty never seem to be properly nourished. That's because the food is not digested and absorbed. Much that is eaten is never taken up by the system as real food, and so the tissues simply starve, and the individual may, as in a recent case, look and feel old in what should be the bloom of life, youth.

"At twenty I was prematurely old. The health and vigor and brightness of youth had been, as it seemed, stolen from me. I went to work in the morning with slow steps and a dull head."

"My work through the day was unsatisfactory for my breakfast lay in my stomach like a hard lump. I was peevish and the gas in my stomach was very annoying. After supper I usually went to bed to toss half the night from sheer nervousness."

"This was all from indigestion—caused by wrong eating."

"Finally I tried Grape-Nuts and I cannot describe the full benefits received from the food. It gave me back my health. It has completely restored good digestion and my ailments have disappeared. I steadily improved and am now strong and in perfect health."

THE SPORT REVIEW.

No New Major Baseball League This Season.

Hal Chase, the star first-baseman of the American League, jumped to the Federals on Sunday and played for Buffalo against Chicago.

The owners of the Rochester club give a most emphatic denial to the story to the effect that Manager John Gansel will now or at the close of the season leave to accept the management of a major league team. Gansel's contract with the Rochester club has still two years to run.

P. J. Lally, Cornwall, chairman of the Mann cup trustees, has appointed Lester J. Patrick, of Victoria, referee for the two matches for the amateur championship of the world between the Vancouver Amateur Athletic club and the Excelsiors of Brampton, which is to be played at Vancouver on June 27th and July 1st.

A Chicago despatch says:—President Ban Johnson, of the American league says that there will be no third major league this season, if at all. "The third league idea was merely suggested to the National commission, and it is merely a possibility. No definite action was taken at our meeting in New York."

The London Daily Mail's yachting expert asserts that another alteration has been made in Sir Thomas Lipton's cup challenge, Shamrock IV, which has been kept secret. Saturday's trial, the expert says, showed that the yacht had been improved by the alteration, but that her windward work showed no improvement. She will be tried out again, but it may be assumed there will be further alterations made.

Golf contests, in which women may compete, fancy and speed ice skating and skiing were yesterday given places in future Olympic games by the delegates to the International Olympic congress at Paris, gymnastics also will be permitted, but only in the games of 1916, as it was decided by the committee that many of the gymnastics competitions were in the nature of field and track events, and should be classed as such. Ice hockey was barred as an event.

ROWELL GOES AFTER HANNA.

Raising of Bilingual Issue is Gansel's Last Throw

Woodstock, June 24.—Speaking at Drumbo, in his own constituency, N. W. Rowell said: "Hon. Mr. Hanna knows that there is no such issue (as bilingual schools) between the political parties of this province. It is the last desperate throw of the gamster to divert public attention from the real issue, and to try to stir up a racial cry to save the open bar in the province. "Why have we a bilingual question at the present time? Who have been administering the educational affairs of this province for the past nine years? Not the Liberals, not the members of the opposition, but the present government, and if the schools are inefficient, if English is not being taught in the schools, if the children of this province are not receiving a good English education, who is responsible? Not the man who is out of office, but the men who, in office, have failed to do their duty. They must take the responsibility."

If bilingualism was the big issue, queried Mr. Rowell, "why did not the prime minister refer to it in his manifesto? Read his manifesto through," remarked the speaker, "and it is not mentioned from beginning to end. They have issued their campaign book; some eight pages are devoted to educational matters, and yet not in that book discuss the question of bilingual schools."

As for his own position, he said: "This is an English-speaking province, and an English-speaking province it will remain. The regulations of the education department should be framed and the department administered in full recognition of this fact. That has been our view from the start. That is our view to-day."

PANAMA'S TOLL OF LIFE.

Nearly 2,200 Canal Workers Died of Accident and Fever.

Washington, June 24.—Nearly 2,200 workers on the Panama canal died from accidents and fevers between May 1st, 1904, and March 31st, 1914, according to statistics obtained by Representative Young, of North Dakota.

The total of 2,190 victims was greater than the mortality from wounds and on the battlefield in the war of 1812 and the Mexican war combined, the revolution or the Spanish-American war. Figures which Mr. Young said he had been trying to obtain for months from the Panama Canal Commission stated 1,219 deaths occurred in the canal zone from accidents between May 1st, 1904, and March 31st, 1914; 743 deaths from malarial fever and 228 deaths from typhoid fever. Between Jan. 1st, 1907, and March 31st, 1914, there were 98,785 cases of malaria and 1,162 typhoid patients.

Smuggled Chinamen.

Watertown, N. Y., June 24.—Lee Sam, or Lee Woo, on trial here all last week for violating the immigration laws in smuggling Chinamen into this country from Canada, pleaded guilty after all the evidence had been submitted to the federal court. He will be sentenced later in the week. Sam maintained a regular agency in New York.

Jud. Clark, former proprietor of an hotel in Utica, on the stand this morning confessed to having spirited Chinamen into this country from Toronto, testifying that he received $100 apiece for the aliens.

AT THOUSAND ISLAND PARK.

Electric Arches From the Wharf to the Tabernacle.

Thousand Island Park, June 24.—The contract has been let for the erection of a series of electric arches to be placed on the main thoroughfare from the wharf to the tabernacle.

STORM OVER TAXES.

Leeds and Grenville County's Council Had Lively Time.

Brockville, June 24.—The Counties Council of Leeds and Grenville has just concluded an exceedingly busy session extending over one week. The equalization of the counties' assessment for the several villages and townships caused a heated discussion by reason of substantial advances being recommended. With a few slight alterations the report of the committee handling the matter was adopted in some instances it is likely that an appeal will be made to the county judge. The council also increased the taxation one-tenth of a mill over last year; it now stands at two instead of one and nine-tenths mills.

TORIES FIGHT LABOR.

The conservatives are carrying their opposition to Allan Stubbins, the one labor representative in the Legislature, to the polls, having nominated a candidate against him in Hamilton. This should do the labor cause a good deal of good in Toronto, and it should also show the Kingston labor men that Harrison is the man they should support.

DIVER'S WIT SAVED HIM.

Clung to Torpedo Which Bore Him to Surface.

Charbourg, June 24.—While a diver was engaged yesterday in recovering a torpedo buried in the mud of the harbor the mechanism suddenly started and the propeller severed the air pipe of the diving apparatus. The diver, with great presence of mind, clung to the torpedo which bore him to the surface. He was dragged into the boat by his astonished comrades, in an almost asphyxiated condition. After an hour or two he was revived.

The Human Mind in Summer

THE human mind knows no summer languor. It seeks to be interested, instructed and informed as much in the season of midsummer heat as in the season of idwinter cold.

other seasons to other interests is often given to the reading of newspapers.

In summer newspaper circulations often increase, for then men and women have more time and daylight for reading.

The summer months, then, are choice months for advertisers to use to draw attention to themselves and their goods, to arouse interest in what they provide, and to implant desire for what they sell, or make.

You can obtain helpful advice on advertising free of cost and without obligation by consulting the Business Department of The British Whig.

In summer the mind is less preoccupied with cares than in the more strenuous months of social and business demands. In summer the time which is given at
