CENTRAL SCHOOL WIN

THE BASEBALL TROPHY IN-PUBLIC SCHOOL LEAGUE.

The Standing of the Teams—Indoor Swimming Classes Continue at Y. M. C. A.—Harbor Too Cold Yet.

On Saturday morning, at nine o'clock, there will be another fishing trip for the boys. The party will meet at the building and proceed with lures and fishing tackle to Kingston Mills.

The in-door swimming classes for juniors on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons, and Saturday mornings, and for intermediates on Tuesday and Thursday nights, are still continued, the boys being a little timid about taking their plunge in the lake, which is really too cold as yet.

A handsome baseball trophy shield, presented by the Board of Education, and won by Central school, is now being prepared by Kinnear & Co. and will shortly be on exhibition. The boys of Central team were successful in winning every game they played; thereby winning the championship. Louise school came next, with four wins and one loss.

Arrangements are being made for the public schools league, athletic sports. President Rhines is preparing a good list of events, and the merchants will likely be asked to donate suitable prizes for the field day which will be pulled off during July.

AS MISS MAY FETTERLY

The Morrisburg Girl Who Very Mysteriously Disappeared Last February

Messena, N. Y., June 24.—William H. Fetterly, of Morrisburg, Ont., identified the body of the woman found in the Poyser canal last night as his niece, May Fetterly, aged nineteen, who disappeared from Morrisburg, February 10, when about to be married.

The grandparents of the girl who had cared for her, believed she was still alive.
 Coroner Smith decided death was due to drowning. The body has been taken to Morrisburg for burial.

MUCH LAND BURNED OVER.

Good Showings of Copper North of Blind River.
 Blind River, June 24.—The recent bush fire did considerable damage to the section of pine lands beyond the local Indian reservation. A large tract of country which had been visited severely by the great storm of last November was burned over and the lumber destroyed. Beyond the region of the fire a renewed activity and interest is being manifested in the Moose Head mine. The showing of copper in this district is very fine. Rumors of purchase and development by capitalists are rife.

ONTARIO'S GOVERNOR FAVORS MILITARISM

 Gentleman Cadet C. W. A. Barvis, Vancouver, B.C., Indian Army.
 Gentleman Cadet J. H. Roberts, Vancouver, B.C., Royal Canadian Horse Artillery.

Sir John Gibson's Address

After distributing the diplomas and prizes which required about an hour's time, his honor the lieutenant-governor addressed the cadets, congratulating all who had received diplomas and prizes. He said that the prizes would be of great value to them in the future, as they represented what they had earned in competition. He also wished to congratulate Col. Carleton, the commandant, on the report he had presented concerning the year's work. There had been few cases of illness among the cadets, and practically no trouble as regards discipline.

"I am one of the great believers in this institution," continued His Honor. "Probably there is no better evidence of this than in the fact that the last of my three sons received his diploma here to-day. I have frequently said that if I had a dozen sons, would desire them to follow this course and no doubt their own inclinations would bring them here. I think the course of education here is sound, solid, and likely to be of great practical use through life. I think the training generally is of the kind which turned the boy man into a man."

Continuing his honor stated that the training received at the college tended to set a man up as it were and prepared him for his life's work. "And after all," he added, "this should be one of the great considerations in the training of the young men. I have no doubt but that those who have gone through this college, and those who are going through now, will have a great influence in the dominion of Canada. I know of nothing more desirable than the turning out of good specimens of Canadian men. Although I have seen nothing of extraordinary size in any of the cadets before me yet I do so without exception a capital representation of physical men—men able-bodied and ready for anything."

His honor said he was glad to see that the dormitory accommodation of the college had been doubled. He hoped that the dominion government would lose no time in seeing to it that all the necessary facilities were forthcoming. He would like very much to see accommodation made for three, four, or even as high as five hundred cadets. If it was good to turn out thirty or more cadets each year it would be still better to turn out one or two hundred, so far as the interests of the country were concerned. There would also be a saving in the expense if more cadets were accommodated, as there was a certain amount of expense which had to be undergone for a small number.

"I would have liked very much to have spoken a few words to each cadet receiving an award," said his honor in closing.
 "I am sure that I can speak for his royal highness, the Duke of Connaught, who was here a few weeks ago, and who takes the deepest interest in the work at the college. He would have been pleased to be here if it could have been arranged. I am sure it had been a great pleasure for me to be here and a great honor to present the diplomas and prizes. I wish to again congratulate Col. Carleton and the college on its present position. In the growing favorable opinion that is being generally entertained for it as a useful institution."
