A GANANOQUE WEDDING

MISS MARGARET E. ROOT WAS THE BRIDE.

And John Ford Gillespie, the Happy Groom—The Bride a Trained Nurse and the Groom a Civil Servant.
Gananoque, June 25.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Root, Charles street, was the scene of a pretty home wedding at eleven o'clock yesterday forenoon, when their daughter, Miss Margaret Elizabeth Root, was united in marriage to John Ford Gillespie, Charles street, who, some time past has been engaged in civil service work at Ottawa. Rev. Melvin Taylor, pastor of Grace church, performed the ceremony before immediate relatives of the contracting parties. Both bride and groom were unattended, the bride being given in marriage by her brother, James Root, of Montreal. Miss Sadye Meigs played the wedding march. The little Misses Doris and Ray Hawke, nieces of the groom, acted as ring and flower bearers. The ceremony was performed in the parlor which was beautifully decorated with marguerites. The bride wore a handsome tailored travelling suit of navy blue, with hat to match. Many valuable and beautiful testimonials of esteem proved the great popularity of the bride, who is one of Gananoque's highly esteemed citizens and has spent about all her life in this town. She is a trained nurse, a graduate of Brockville general hospital. The groom is also a native of this section, and well and widely known. After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the dining-room, where a dainty dinner was served, the table decorations being also of marguerites. Mr. and Mrs. Gillespie left by auto at 1:10 o'clock for Gananoque Junction, where they took the 6:35 train for their new home in Ottawa. Among the out-of-town guests were Edward Root, of the government printing bureau, Ottawa; Mr. and Mrs. James Root, of Montreal, and Miss Eva Ranger, of Picton.

The merchants, professional men, printers and others celebrated the Wednesday half-holiday yesterday afternoon by closing up their places of business.
Harold Bleakney, a pupil of Gananoque high school, who has been writing on the McGill examinations, left yesterday to join his parents at Elmira.

Miss Lottie Root, of the staff of the Central Drug and Book-Store, leaves today for Ottawa to spend a short vacation with relatives and friends. She was accompanied by Miss Eva Ranger, of Picton, who will spend a short time there with friends.
The funeral of the late John LaSha, sr., took place yesterday morning at St. John's church where a solemn requiem mass was sung and the remains laid to rest in the Roman Catholic burying ground. The funeral was quite largely attended.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert LaSha, of Watertown, N.Y., summoned here by the death of the former's father, are in town. Mr. LaSha leaves for home this afternoon but Mr. LaSha will remain for a time to visit friends here.

Lord Mersey's High Praise.
Lord Mersey, chairman of the commission which is inquiring into the recent St. Lawrence disaster, in an interview states that he was delighted with his visit to the capital city of the dominion. He said he could see nothing beautiful about New York. "Surely the greatest thing that those skyscrapers are beautiful," said the distinguished jurist. "Why Ottawa is a much more attractive and beautiful place. Mr. Hazen took me for a drive all over the city and I was charmed with everything I saw. The Chateau Laurier is the very best hotel I have been in. It is both a credit to the city and to the Grand Trunk Railway."

CURED AT SEVENTY-FOUR Little Digesters are a Great Help to Mr. John F. Becker
The weight of years very often brings with it a still heavier burden, that of indigestion or some form of Stomach Trouble.
Then "Little Digesters" come to the rescue—if you give them a chance, as did Mr. Becker. Here is his letter telling what they did for him:
New Dundee, Nov. 10, 1909.
Dear Sirs,—
I was for a long time troubled with bloating after meals, and my tongue was always coated. Seeing the "Little Digesters" advertised, I bought a box, and they took all this trouble away, but I thought one box would not be enough, so I sent you for more. They are a great help to my body.
Yours truly,
JOHN F. BECKER.
Excuse my writing with pencil, being an old man of 74.
"Little Digesters" aid the feeble stomach to digest the food perfectly. This means that you can enjoy every meal, and get the strength out of what you eat. If you take a "Little Digester" afterwards.

WORKED SMOOTH GAME

IN WHICH HE SWINDLED GROCER OUT OF $15.

Young Man Claimed Relationship With Local Minister, Ordered Groceries Sent to His Home, and Had Store Cash Bogus Cheque for $15.
By working a smooth game, a young man, whom the Kingston police are looking for, succeeded in swindling James Redden & Co., Princess street, grocers, out of $15. This is how he worked his little game:
On Tuesday, he called at the home of Rev. C. K. Bourne, curate of St. George's cathedral, living on Brock street. He stated that he represented a corn flake industry, and desired to know the name of the grocer the family did business with, in order that he could see to it that the grocer was supplied with his goods.
After being told that the family dealt with Redden & Co., the young man then made his way to that store. He stated that he was a relative of the minister, and that the latter had asked him to drop into the store, or send some groceries, and have them sent up to his house. Everything looked O.K. to the grocer, and a note was made of the different articles asked for by the young man, and in the time they were sent to Mr. Bourne's residence. After he had given the order, the young man told the clerk that he had a cheque for $15 he would like very much to have, and in order to accommodate him, the clerk gave him the money.
Later on in the day, the people in the store were given quite a shock when Mr. Bourne reported that he had sent no person to order groceries, and expressed surprise that a cheque should be sent to his home in this way. It was then suspected that some person had been working a "fake" game. The cheque was then investigated. The young man drew the cheque on the bank of Toronto and signed the name "Chapman"; he stated it was presented at the bank, it was found that the person of that name had no account at the bank.

It was then quite evident that the young man had "stung" the store. Mr. Bourne then recalled the fact that a young fellow called at his house representing himself as a traveller in a corn flake industry, and had also asked for the name of the family-grocer. Although the affair occurred on Tuesday, it was late Wednesday afternoon before the police were notified, giving the young man about twenty-four hours' start. Although search was made for him he could not be located and it is believed that he left the city immediately after pulling off the game. He is described as being about twenty-five years of age, smooth face, about five feet eight inches in height, and wearing a brown suit of clothes.

Wedding at Gananoque.
Gananoque, June 24.—A pretty wedding took place at St. John's church, Gananoque, June 23rd, when Mary Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Lappin, Lansdowne, was united in marriage to Allen E. McDonald, son of James McDonald, Lansdowne. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Kehoe. To the strains of Mendelssohn's march, played by Miss O'Neill, the bride entered the church on the arm of her brother, John, who acted as best man, while Miss Vera McDonald assisted the bride.

New York Men Wear White.

HON. S. H. BLAKE, DEFENDER OF FAITH

EARNESTNESS, LOGIC, FERVOR.
And Appeal, Says Conservative Writer of Rowell's Campaign.

By Tom King in Toronto, Ontario, the other day to hear Mr. Rowell, and to see one of the Rowell meetings, being unprepared to accept without further evidence the estimates of our liberal friends respecting their leader and his work. A month ago the liberal prospects for a provincial victory seemed almost as hopeless and remote as they appeared to be, in December, 1911. If today they seem brighter—if today no one speaks too dogmatically about the size of the Whitney majority—it is largely because of the reports that have come to us of the Rowell meetings.
The man spoke with earnestness, logic, fervor, and appeal. There was no ranting, no exaggeration, no abuse. It was far removed from the stereotyped "temperance speech," but it was a great speech in favor of temperance. No one who heard that speech would repeat the insinuation—almost the charge—being made at some meetings, that Mr. Rowell is subsidised by the liquor shops.
The liberals have a great advantage in keeping the one issue to the front, and winning the conservatives, however reluctantly, to assume a defensive attitude. Mr. Rowell is entitled to credit, but he does not claim the credit. Speaking to the writer on the train the other day, he said:
"I am only talking about temperance now because I find it is the only thing the people want to hear about. I tried to discuss other subjects when I started out, but it was of no use, they only wanted to hear about the one issue."
I asked someone in the leader's entourage whether the Peterboro meeting was typical and he admitted that it was above the average. He said, however, that at Picton twenty-five hundred had assembled to hear Mr. Rowell, and that farmers on the bay and lake shore alike had driven in by hundreds.
At every meeting conservatives declared their intention of supporting Rowell on the temperance issue, and it is to the temperance people that Mr. Rowell speaks.
He is evidently making a great campaign, the public appreciation of which will depend to some extent upon the result. His friends talk about his gaining forty seats. If he has forty seats all told—or even thirty-five, his position in provincial politics will be assured.

IN LINEN CHEST THREE DAYS.
Pullman Stowaway Risked Suffocation to Reach Sick Baby.
Kansas City, June 25.—After spending five nights and three hotter days doubled up in the linen chest of a Pullman sleeping car coming from Los Angeles, a man who said he was Thomas Joanides, of Princeton, Ky., was taken from the train in a state of collapse.
Joanides said he had nothing to eat but a sandwich since he left Los Angeles. He said he had received word that his 18-year-old wife and his sick baby, the last of twins, were dying, and having no money he gave his watch to a porter to let him travel as a stowaway.

TO MOON BY RADIIUM POWER.
Scientists Say Man May Get There Inside Projectile.
Paris, June 25.—According to M. Charles Nordmann, of the Paris Observatory, man may yet get to the moon, inside a projectile, although hardly in so violent a manner as would result from an experiment upon the lines detailed by Jules Verne. Nordmann says M. Nordmann will afford the motive power, which must be four hundred times more intense than nitroglycerine. And an appliance to slow down the projectile when it reaches the moon will be necessary.

LONDON INDIANS KICK
At Canada's Barring the Hindus From Entering.
London, June 25.—At a meeting of Indians in Exeter Hall, Sir Manohar Bhowagross, presiding, the following resolution was carried: "That this meeting of people of India records its profound indignation at the attitude adopted in the dominion of Canada to prohibit the free entry of their countrymen into that colony and views with alarm this and similar action in British colonies generally, denying the ordinary rights of citizenship to the king's Indian subjects are calculated to arrive at the very root of unity of the British empire."
This meeting is of opinion that if the colonies persist in this attitude the government of India should adopt retaliatory measures by prohibiting the admission of people of these colonies into India and her services, and by imposing effective restrictions on their trade with India."
It was decided to send copies of the resolution to the secretary of state for India and the Indian government. Protest meetings are also being held throughout the Indian empire.

Died at Westport.
Westport, June 25.—The death occurred here Tuesday of Mrs. Harry O'Regan, formerly of Ottawa. Mrs. O'Regan was staying with her daughter at the time of her death.
She was one of the best known residents of this section of the county, having resided in Ottawa for many years. She was seventy-five years of age. Mrs. O'Regan is survived by one son, James, of Carleton Place; three daughters, Mrs. T. J. McCann, of Westport; Mrs. J. Kerwin and Mrs. Nelson J. Lathier, both of Ottawa. The remains were taken to Ottawa and buried at Carleton Place.

ELECTION MUST TAKE PLACE
In Carleton County, So Department Decides.
Ottawa, June 25.—The attorney-general's department has ordered that an election between P. H. McIlroy, the sitting member, and Lieut.-Col. Hamilton, Liberal, must take place in Carleton county. On Monday Returning Officer Craig refused to grant a poll on the ground that the Liberal nominee's paper was not sufficiently signed. He is overruled by a department.

CATARRH LEADS TO CONSUMPTION
Catarrh is as much a blood disease as scrofula or rheumatism. It may be relieved, but it cannot be removed by simply local treatment. It breaks down the general health, weakens the lung tissues, and leads to consumption.
Hood's Sarsaparilla is so successful in the treatment of catarrh that it is known as the best remedy for this disease. It purifies the blood. Ask your druggist for it.
