HE IS HARD TO SUIT. Man Who Really Does Not Believe in Restriction.

Have you met him? Have you met a man who says that he is just as good a temperance man as anybody else, but that he does not believe in half measures?

He does not believe in abolishing the bars and the club licenses, if the shop licenses are not to be abolished at the same time.

He did not believe in the Scott act, and he did not believe in local option, because these were arbitrary local acts. He probably did not vote in favor of license reduction in the city of Toronto, giving as his reason at the time that unless all the bars were to be cut off he did not believe in creating a monopoly in the hands of a few men.

The fact is, this kind of man does not believe in anything but outright prohibition of the importation, manufacture, and sale of intoxicants. He cannot get that he will have nothing. And if Canada were about to get that this kind of man would consider it useless because it would lead to the smuggling of liquor from the United States. He would then argue that nothing short of a continental prohibition could be a success.

This kind of man wants no change at all. But he does not like to admit it.

Goes to Ottawa.

A happy function was held at the residence of William Carroll, Albert street, on Wednesday evening, where the young men of St. Luke's church were entertained. This event took the form of a farewell, send-off for Clive Schofield, who for a number of years, has been an energetic worker in the Sunday school. He held the office of librarian. A presentation was made to him of a valuable suitcase. Mr. Schofield has recently passed his civil service examinations, and has received an appointment at Ottawa in the government employ.

At the Thousand Islands. Horsewomen at the Thousand Islands will turn their attention this summer from the ordinary drives and canters to the more dangerous and exciting pastime of polo.

Among the familiar characters, who will be missed at Thousand Islands park this summer is "Old Pop" Loomis, who for so many years conducted a popcorn stand at the wharf. Failing health induced the old man to give up the business after thirty-seven years at the park.

Meeting of Presbytery. A regular meeting of the presbytery of Kingston will be held in St. Andrew's church, Gananogue, on Tuesday, June 30th at 10 a.m.

Saturday Afternoon Special. The "Thousand Islander's" afternoon island ramble includes all points of interest in the Thousand Islands. Saturday at 2.15 p.m.

If you have been demanding the abolition of the bar all your life, how can you honestly shirk the issue now, when you have the answering of your prayers in your own hands?

Aunt Sally's Advice to Beauty Seekers

K. C. F. says: "My skin becomes so greasy every summer, and this so attracts dust and dirt, I have an awful time keeping my face clean looking. Can you suggest anything?" The method mentioned in reply to Elaine will overcome this condition.

HUMANE SOCIETY ARRANGES

For a Horse Parade on Labor Day, September 7th.

At a meeting of the Humane Society, on Wednesday evening, arrangements were made for the holding of the second annual horse parade competition on Labor day, September 7th. A committee, consisting of Lieut.-Col. G. B. Ogilvie, Lieut.-Col. James Massey, Prof. F. O. Willhoff and J. S. R. Dobbs, the secretary, was appointed to arrange the details.

Band in the Park. By kind permission of Lieut.-Col. H. E. Panet, D. S. O. and officers, the band of the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery will play in Macdonald Park, on Thursday, June 25th, 1914, (weather permitting), the following programme: March, When It's Apple Blossom Time in Normandy; Gifford Overture, Tannhauser; Wagner Gavotte, The Bells of St. Malo; Rimmer Fantasie, Merrie England; German Waltz, Fairest in the Land; Ancliffe Selection, The Dollar Princess; Fall Gipsy Serenade; Ancliffe Medley of Popular Songs, Haviland Hits, (No. 4); O, Canada—God Save the King; Alfred Light, Lieut. Bandmaster, R.C.H.A.

THE COST OF THE WORK.

The temperance people, conservative and liberal, reduced the licenses by 1,200 in Whitney's time; it cost them $607,000. The union was also informed that Duffy did not run in Kingston for fun or for pleasure.

An Echo of 1838.

Just seventy-six years ago, June 21, 1838, the papers were printing first detailed news of the burning of the steamer Sir Robert Peel, near Thousand Islands Park, during the troublous days of the Patriot war. Although the boat really burned on the night of May 26th, 1838, news of the world moved slower in those days than now, and it was not until three weeks later, that the account was published in Kingston. The boat was destroyed at Wellesley Island by a pirate band during the stirring days of the Patriot war. She was going down the St. Lawrence when she was attacked and burned. The passengers were picked up and taken to Kingston.

What About Playgrounds?

Now that the schools have closed for the holidays, the question of playgrounds for the children is again before the people. A good many of the "kids" of the city have no place to play. It is suggested that the City Council might devote an evening to discussing the problem, and providing the necessary playgrounds. A resolution made a good start in the matter, but he was not backed up sufficiently.

Building Competition Keen.

Competition at present among local building contractors is very keen, owing to the fact that a very limited amount of building is going on this summer, due to the hard times. An instance is reported of a contractor who closed a deal to erect a brick residence at the completion of work on his price, offered a lower figure, and took the contract from the other man.

TAKE IT NOW.

Even if Rowell's "Abolish the Bar" does not go far enough to please you, why not take nine-tenths of a loaf?

Minister Recovered His "Topper."

An Anglican clergyman, who was staying at a local hotel yesterday, made a gallant rescue of his silk hat and box last night. The cleric's "topper" had been carried off by another man, who was proceeding to the train, when the minister informed him that he was carrying off something that did not belong to him. The hat box was handed over to its rightful owner.

Weather Notes.

The depression, which passed over the great lakes, yesterday, now covers the Lower St. Lawrence valley, while a moderate cool wave is situated in Manitoba. Showers and local thunder storms have been experienced from Ontario to the Maritime provinces, and rain is reported from Southern Alberta.

Are You Sincere, Mr. Voter?

Are the hotel men convinced that Mr. Rowell is sincere? Watch proceedings the next few days if you have any doubts as to their opinions. Are you convinced Mr. Voter, that Rowell is sincere? Or are you trying to find excuses for your own insincerity in the cause of temperance? Be honest with yourself.
