Contractor's Attention!

We have just opened a kiln of stock brick and we want the contractors and builders to come out and see them. It won't cost anything to look at them and you don't have to buy them if they don't suit you, but we invite inspection and challenge comparison. They can also be seen at J. O. Hutton's and McKelvey's hardware stores. See our new hollow brick for inside work. They certainly are dandies. We will also have sets ready for the market in about two weeks. Give us a call. Phone 1396.

Birthdays Note
THURSDAY, JUNE TWENTY-FIFTH
The Rev. George McKinnon Wrong, Professor of History in the University of Toronto, was born fifty-four years ago to-day in the village of Gravesend, Ont. He was ordained a priest in 1883 but since then has largely abandoned church work for academic pursuits. He was for some time on the staff of Wycliffe College, Toronto, later receiving an appointment to the University faculty. Apart from his college work, Prof. Wrong is known as a well-versed student of Canadian history, deeply interested in all movements for the preservation of our national records. He is a member of the Historical Manuscripts Commission; is editor of the "Annual Review of Historical Publications relating to Canada" and has himself written several books on his historical themes.
Also born to-day:—
Bishop Gridale, Indian Head, Sask., born England, 1845.
G. H. Brydbury, M.P., Seikirk, Man., born Hamilton, 1859.

Welch's
"The National Drink"
Serving Welch's Grape Juice to the unexpected guest, to the chance caller, to the friends who drop in, is one of the cheerful touches which go to make up perfect hospitality. Welch's is always ready—always pure—tempting, delicious and satisfying.
Welch's Grape Juice is not adulterated in any way. It is pure, and is not sweetened with sugar, as some brands are, to cover a defect in the flavor of the grape.
WELCH'S GRAPE JUICE may be obtained AT YOUR FAMILY GROCERIES, AT YOUR DRUGGISTS, AT ALL SODA FOUNTAINS.
Do more than ask for Grape Juice, say "WELCH'S" and GET IT.
