"Splendid," said the girl, "go on." "This is to notify you that I want you to let me join the army right now. If you don't, I will enlist anyway that's all. The seventeen call is out and I am not going to wait for the sixteen. Do you think I am a damned coward-

Wilfred paused and looked appre censively at Caroline, who nodded with eyes sparkling brightly. "That's fine," she said.

"I thought it sounded like a soldier." "It does; you ought to have heard the Third Virginia swear-"

"Oh," said Wilfred, who did not quite elish that experience; but he went on after a little pause. "'Tom Kittridge has gone; he was killed yesterday at Cold Harbor. Billie Fisher has gone and so has Cousin Stephen. He is not sixteen, he lied about his age, but I don't want to do that unless you make me. I will, though, if you do Answer this right now or not at all."

"I think that is the finest letter have ever heard," said Caroline proudly, as Wilfred stopped, laid the paper down, and stared at her.

"Do you really think so?" "It is the best letter !-- " W "I am glad you are pleased with it Now the next thing is how to end it." "Why, just end it."

"But how?" "Sign your name, of course," "Nothing else?" "What else is there?"

"Just Wilfred?"

"No, Wilfred Varney." "That's the fhing." He took up pen from the table and scrawled his name at the bottom of this interesting and historical document, "And you Played Baseball at Midnight. At Fairbanks, Alaska, more than a thousand persons attended a midnight baseball game played Tuesday night between two local teams. The game was the opening event of the festival of the Midn'ght Sun, features of which will be a carnival, parade and general merrymaking.

Boxing in Europe.

Beginning next Saturday, the world's pugilistic stage wil be shifted to Europe. Three battles are scheduled to be waged in two weeks which are sure to make ring history. Frank Moran of Pittsburg will endeavor to wrest from Jack Johnson the world's heavyweight title in Paris on Grand Prix night. On July 16th in the Clympia London, Gunboat Smith will endeavor to prove in a twenty-round bout lagainst Georges Carpentier, the French idol and champion of Europe, that he is a serious contender for the heavyweight crown. On July 7th, Freddie Welsh, champion of Breat Britain, holder of the Lord Lonsdale belt, will make a supreme effort after two years wrangling to beat Willie Ritchie, the American lightweight titleholder, for the world's honors.

Pelkey is Through.

Arthur Pelkey, the Canadian heavyweight whom Tommy Burns brought out as a white hope over a year ago, has been put out of the running completely. After Pelkey's unfortunate battle with Luther Mc-Carty in Alberta, he was heralded as the white champion of the world. However, he ran against a snag on the Pacific coast when he met Gunaged and went to Australia with Tommy to retain his lost laurels. in the established horizon. SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION Over Four Thousand Delegates

Gather in Chicago. Chicago, June 25 .- "Add a million a year to the Sunday school rolls," is the slogan of the four thousand four hundred delegates to the International Sunday School association convention here. The formal opening of the convention took place last night. Sunday school teacher training and the organizing of Sunday schools on a basis of real efficiency in delivering instruction on the Bible and building up Christian character will be the most important subjects of the session. All evangelical denominations are represented.
