Wise and Otherwise

Some girls seem to use rouge because they haven't the cheek to go without it. After a girl has smiled at every man in town and finally shared a book into an engagement, she believes that there should be a law making flirting a felony. The reason why a man wants to kiss a girl against her will is because he wouldn't want to kiss her if he thought she was willing.

Early Trials. So that pie tastes like the pie your mother used to make? Yes, mum, before me father bought her a cook book.

The Enthusiast. While the golf season's open, he thinks he needs out to sleep forty winks. From springtime to fall. He's addressing the ball. And they say that he lives on the links.

Her New Beau. "Nettie is just crazy over Thos." "So he's her latest, is he? Where'd she meet him?"

A Matter of Support. Her father—You expect me to support Margaret indefinitely? Her husband—Well, I hope you may stand from under very gradually, sir.

A Poor Lot. Briggs—So you didn't think much of the art exhibition. Briggs—No, the pictures seemed to be selected on the principle that "the weakest must go to the wall."

The Proper Metal. Our battleships are built of steel. In one way that's not right; Scrap iron would more fitting be. Seeing they're built to fight.

A Distinction. Mrs. Eke—I'm going down town this morning. Eke—Shopping, my dear? Mrs. Eke—No, I haven't time for that; just to buy some things that I need.

Iberian Wit. An Irish farmer was asked if he used any of the commercial fertilizer on his land. "No, sorr," he replied. "To my notion there's nothing like the old barnyard kind."

"Nonsense, man," said the other, "the time is coming when a man can carry the fertilizer for an acre of land in one of his waistcoat pockets."

"Maybe he will sorr," returned Pat. "An' he'll be able to carry the crop in the other pocket, I'm thinkin'."

Easily Remedied. Creditor—Still no money? Look here, I'm mighty tired of this everlasting waiting. Debtor—Tired? John, fetch a chair for the gentleman.—Flegende Blatter.

Obedient Instructions. A fond father vouches for this. His little girl had much disturbed her father and mother by using the word "devil."

"My dear," said mother, "that is a word we do not use in polite society, and I never want to hear you say it again."

She noticed that her admittance on was carefully heeded. Then on Sunday evening about two weeks later, the mother inquired what the day's lesson had been about.

"Why, mother," was the answer, "it was about the temptation of the—by—by—the gentleman that keeps hell."

P. E. I. IS AGITATED

Because Doctor Used Auto Rushing to Patient. Charlottetown, P. E. I., June 26.—There is considerable agitation in the city over the running of an automobile between Charlottetown and Alberton on prohibited territory. Permission was given by the premier to Dr. Ross to run the machine in order to perform an operation in a very serious case. Ross took the wrong train in the morning. Had he waited for the next he would not have reached Alberton till 11 o'clock at night. In the auto he made the trip in five hours, almost an hour sooner than he would have if he caught the morning train. The auto was marked with a red cross. Owing to the prejudice against automobiles, the affair has created quite a sensation.

Baseball League Receipts Fall Off This Year.

Baseball gate receipts have fallen off heavily and three major leagues this year will make less money than two did last year. This statement was made by Charles A. Comiskey, president of the Chicago Americans. Comiskey declared that the public was weary of the wrangling and contract jumping which had thrown into the background the sporting features of the pastime.

"There is no use trying to hide the true state of affairs," said Comiskey. "It has been the players, aided and abetted by club owners and their agents, who have brought baseball to the condition prevailing at the present time. If there is no room for three leagues, well and good. The gate receipts will tell the story. The players have a right to get more money if they can, but not at the expense of their consciences in jumping their contracts. It is not so much a question of losing money so much as it is keeping up the standard of the game. If that is lowered, the public will desert it."

Ty Cobb Faces Trouble. Ty Cobb will be the defendant in a damage suit as a result of his attack on the family butcher in Detroit. The meat carver intends to take action against the famous ball player for his assault upon him, and as Cobb admits that he was at fault, will likely separate the diamond star from some of his easily earned money. The Tigers have dropped two games since Cobb has been out of the game and the Detroit fans are beginning to "sour" upon their erstwhile hero.

Johnson Will Weigh 210. "Jack" Johnson the champion heavyweight pugilist, will weigh about 210 pounds when he enters the ring in Paris on Saturday for his fight with Frank Moran of Pittsburgh.

Since Johnson began training he has lost 25 to 30 pounds in weight. He will continue his hard work until Friday. Yesterday Johnson went for his customary six miles of road work. Johnson says he is still looking for a taker of a bet of $50,000 which he wants to wager on himself.

The odds in regard to the fight range from 5 to 1 down to 2 to 1 in favor of Johnson.

Lacrosse Conflict. The rival lacrosse leagues are like the federal and organized bill picking holes in each other. N.L.E. supporters made the allegation that Nationals laid up a heat or two in winding up their former game at the island with the Tecumshes.

Now the Big Four people come right back with the assertion that the Rosedales pulled up shamefully last Saturday at Montreal to let Shamrocks make the close finish.

HUSBAND'S IDEAS ANCIENT. She Declares He Wanted "Old-Fashioned Wife." New York, June 26.—After being married thirty-eight years Mrs. Kate S. Masterton began suit for a separation from Robert S. Masterton, a financial agent, alleging that her husband wanted her to be "an old-fashioned wife, urged her to do the family washing and compelled her to get his breakfasts."

Mrs. Masterton also asserts that he was "cruel," and had refused to provide cream for the coffee. The trouble began following their thirty-seventh wedding anniversary. Then, Mrs. Masterton alleges, her husband "grew cold and indifferent."

At Kalar Station. Kalar Station, June 24.—The rain of last week did the berries and farm crops a great deal of good. Mr. and Mrs. Wrightmire and three children, of Belleville, were the guests of Mr. Wrightmire's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Forbes, over Sunday. Miss Olive Shuman visited at Nelson Tryon's on Monday evening. Mr. McLaughlin, one of the evangelists who has been at Filson, accompanied Mr. Merrick on Sunday morning and preached a very impressive service. Miss Gertha and Stanley Wood and Miss Drew were Sunday visitors at A. Forbes.

News From Elgin. Elgin, June 23.—Dr. Dwyre, Perth, and party motored out and were guests of relatives. Dr. Hamilton, Brooklyn, is the guest of his mother before leaving for the "Canadian west." Mr. and Mrs. J. Coon have returned from Waddington, N. Y., where they were called to bury a relative. Miss Stella Coon, who spent the winter at Toronto, is home. Mrs. John Dwyre is critically ill at her home. People are fighting the tent caterpillars which are destroying the shade trees. Orchard and sugar maples are being stripped. Stephen Pennock has his residence nearly painted. The Ladies' Institute held an enthusiastic meeting in the village last week. Mrs. W. Sheldon has returned from Brockville improved in health. Mr. Dillon, Gananoque, was in the village the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mustard, Toronto, are guests of their parents. The remains of Frank Willow, Philipville, were brought to Elgin for interment in the cemetery on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Sullivan spent a few days with friends in the vicinity of Kingston. Messrs. G. F. Warren and G. W. Ford were at Montreal last week. Rev. Mr. McFarland has returned from conference. Mrs. McOrnish, Westport, is the guest of her daughter. The post office has received a fresh coat of paint.

Helping No Risk. One gloomy day a young countryman went to a dentist to have a tooth extracted. Seeing the patient's obvious nervousness, the dentist inquired: "Would you like gas?" "Would I like gas? Of course I'd like gas," exclaimed the frazzled patient. "Do you think I'm going to have you yanking out my teeth in the dark?"

HELP FOR THE FRENCH

WHEN SEAT IN KENT COUNTY IS AT STAKE.

A School Grant Investigation. Selected by Government Inspector on District Call by Tory Candidate.

London, Ont., June 26.—While Sir James Whitney and Hon. W. J. Hanna and others of the cabinet are loudly proclaiming that this is an English province, and that they have settled the bilingual question, a well-authenticated story comes from Kent county that believes all these professions. At Big Point in Dover township a school that has before this aroused wide interest through the action of Nelson Bechard, now reeve of Dover, and at one time a prominent conservative worker, who addressed an open letter to Sir James Whitney denouncing the grant of a "Regulation No. 17." For two years in succession the provincial government grant to the Big Point school has been withheld, on the report of the inspector that the school was "not complying with the regulations."

Now, however, on the eve of the election, the government, in face of all the protestations on the public platform, seems to have decided upon an action that demands the fullest explanation, if explanation there is other than party expediency. The fact is, at all events, that George W. Sullivan, who is a conservative candidate for re-election in West Kent, has been finding the tide going against him, including the French district. Fearing defections in Dover township, where he usually had a majority, defections which added to the possibilities of turnovers in the other parts of the riding, he made his defeat certain, he sent a hurried call to the government to get the arrears of the school grant settled before election day. And the trustees of the Big Point school are looking for the cash with the next few days, for they have been promised it.

The manner in which this promise was conveyed indicates the straits in which the government must find itself, for in order to give some semblance of regularity to the proceedings, the department of education despatched an inspector to Dover within the past week, and after his "inspection" he announced to the trustees that he would recommend the payment of the two years withheld grant, and promised them that a cheque would be forthcoming within the next few days.

Charleston Lawn Social. Charleston, June 24.—The social in aid of St. Denis' church, Athens, was held on Tuesday evening on the Misses Hudson's lawn and proved to be a success in every detail. The weather was ideal for an occasion. Early in the evening the crowd began to gather. The lawn presented an attractive and inviting appearance with its tables laden with the good things provided by the ladies and brilliantly illuminated with a profusion of lights. On a spacious platform the young people entertained themselves dancing for a few hours. The beloved pastor of St. Denis' church graced the occasion with his genial presence. Among those from a distance who attended the social were Mr. Votie and son of Summit, Mr. J. H. Alice Wood Morrisburg, and Mrs. Harry O'Brien, Everett, Wash.; Mrs. O'Brien accompanied by her sisters, Mrs. Sidley also of Everett, and Mrs. Dillon of St. Paul, Minn., visiting relatives in this vicinity after an absence of twenty-four years. The happy gathering lasted about midnight and many were loath to remark that the Charleston social was the crowning event of the month of June.

Miss Alice Wood, of Morrisburg, is spending a few days with Miss Fanny Hudson. The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Spence is very ill. Quite a number attended the Methodist and Anglican socials at Athens on Monday and Wednesday evenings. Mr. and Mrs. Greenwood, Brockville, are spending a few days at W. C. Taylor's. Mrs. O'Brien, Everett, Wash., is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. H. Heffran, Mr. and Mrs. O. Green, Oak Lake, are in Guelph attending the wedding of their son, G. Raymond Green. There is a large number of guests at the hotels.

Things From Bath. Bath, June 25.—Mr. Youngman, Mr. Curtis and Mr. Holt, all of Toronto, are visiting at Mr. Cappage's. Mrs. Bush, of Rochester, N.Y., is visiting at Robert Mott's. The steamer Althea calls here daily instead of the steamer Brockville. The schooner Marshall is undergoing coal for G. A. Wartman, and Mr. Baker is in Kingston, attending synod committee. The meeting held in the village hall, on Tuesday evening, in the interest of Mr. Carscadden, was well attended. The speakers were Mr. Carscadden, of Napawan, and Mr. Baker and Mr. Givens, of Kingston.

Mrs. Alexander R. Milne, of Kingston, who is stopping at Mrs. James Graham's, "Hay View Villa," Bath, has the honor of catching the first large black bass of the season. It measured twelve inches and was caught on the wharf at the villa.

A very enjoyable tennis tournament took place here on Saturday last, on Dr. Northmore's court, between the married and single men. After a number of closely contested sets, the married men were victorious. There were a number of spectators, and after the match tea was served on the lawn by Mrs. Northmore.

Doings at Arden. Arden, June 24.—All hope of the abundance of wild strawberries is a fore-runner of good crops in general. A large number went to Petawawa for military drill. K. L. Mackinnon, M.D., and Miss Blanche DeLor, visited at Hillcrest Place. Under the Good Road system considerable repairs and improvements are being made on the roads. Miss Sadie Gendron is visiting friends at the village. Ross and Dale Greene, W. Jeffries, B. Loyst and the Misses DeLor spent Sunday at Green Grove. Mr. and Mrs. Hagar are visiting at J. E. Hayes'. Mrs. L. Youmans at Mrs. Krings'. Mr. and Mrs. J. Barker spent a day at Tamworth. Misses Hazel Greene and Mary Crozier and Erwin Gendron are home from Tamworth. S. Gendron and mother have gone to Toronto. Mrs. A. Miller is at Tamworth attending her son, Ross, whose leg was broken while playing ball.

Judging by Numbers. There recently came to a fashionable shoe shop a daughter of a man whose wealth had been acquired within very recent years. The young woman was disposed to patronize the clerk, and rejected a number of "classy" slippers he produced for her approval. Finally she said: "I think, perhaps, I shall take these two pairs. But, Louis XV heels are too high for me. Give me a size lower—or, stay—perhaps, Louis XIII will be high enough—Harpers' Magazine.

Five Divers to Open Side of Liner and Remove Victims.

Quebec, June 26.—In spite of the unfavorable reports of the divers who have been at work on the hull of the Empress of Ireland at Father Point a last desperate attempt is to be made to-day by the divers to see if in any way they can get the bodies of the eight hundred dead out of the ship.

Captain Walsh, marine superintendent of the C. P. R., stated that it has been felt no possible effort to recover these bodies should be neglected and that the whole work would be devoted to this end. Last evening five divers from H. M. S. Essex, under command of Chief Gunner McDiarmid, with diver Weather, of New York and three other divers, left on the tug Lord Strathcona for Father Point. Mr. Weatherpoon has also telegraphed to New York and Chicago with the intention of getting two more divers. As soon as the party arrives at Father Point they will get to work on the sunken hull, and whatever can be done to open her and make her give up her terrible cargo of dead, will be accomplished.
