

For Sale
Property on McDowell St.
132 ft. frontage with barn.
Price $1050. Easy payments.
W. H. Godwin & Son
Real Estate and Insurance
89 Brock St. Over Northern Crown Bank. Phone 424.

Albion Hotel
Remodelled throughout.
One of Kingston's Best.

Drug Specials
Ointment—Double strength.
Pain-Expeller—Double strength.
Mercurized Wax
Saxillite
Chlorox
Spiramax
Almazola
Croxone
Talcicide
Parasitol
Sargol
Cathartic Compound
Therax
Mercurine
Epitone
Marmala, Etc.
And all the specialties for making up any recipe seen in the daily papers. Have it put up right.

At Best's
Sunday hours, 1.30 to 5.30 to 9

KRYPTOK
FAR VISION
NEAR VISION

glasses are the genuine "ir-visible" bifocals. The "near" and "far" lenses are one solid glass. No "lines," no cement.
Kryptoks are the "real thing"
in bifocals.

WHY NOT HAVE THE BEST FROM KEELEY IR Optometris
We Urge the Lensless
8 Doors Above the Opera House

Their Goodness is Evident

In every thread—
In every stitch—
In every line—
Of Jenkins' Clothing.

The new summer two-piece models awaiting your inspection.
Moderately priced.
$15, $16.50 and $18.00

Flannels, Homespuns and Lightweight Serges.

The New Goods Store
Agreeable salesmen to serve you.

E. P. Jenkins'
CLOTHING CO.

NIGHT OF JUBILATION

IN THE CITY HALL FOR THE CONSERVATIVES.

Addresses Were Delivered by F. J. Hoag, Dr. Ross, Dr. J. W. Edwards, W. F. Nickle, A. M. Rankin and Others.

F. G. Hoag, president of the liberal conservative executive of Kingston, presided at the meeting in the city hall at 7.15 Monday evening. He assured the audience that he was proud of the large majority given Dr. Ross, who had proven a strong man for twenty-five years. The church counted as nothing in the campaign, he declared, and temperance was not the only issue of the election.

Dr. Ross arrived at this point with W. F. Nickle, M. P., and was loudly applauded. Continuing his speech, Mr. Hoag said that this was a lesson to the church to leave politics alone in the future. The people had shown by their voting that they would not be dictated to by the church, or be told how they should vote by anyone.

Dr. Ross was welcomed by prolonged applause. He said that he could hardly find words to express his thanks to the electors of the city of Kingston for the big majority the returns had credited him with, which showed that politics was not the only issue in the election. He said that many of his best friends were liberals. He spoke of the pamphlets that had been issued by his opponent and declared them an insult to the citizens. He did not believe in the use of rostrums but had always spoken his thoughts through the press or on a public platform where they could be answered.

It was a fight for independence of thought on the part of the electors, he said. The church had never been able to say that "thou shalt do so and so." Dr. Ross spoke of his respect for the church, and did not want the respect for the church to make anyone lose their respect for the church. It is all right for the churches to give their opinion, but people would not be coerced into voting for one man or another. He had heard the remark on the street that no Christian would vote against Harrison. Deep down in their hearts people knew what was right, and as a result the famous and much-talked-of silent vote had been for Ross. He accused Mr. Harrison of being a man who would renounce party, friends or opponents to get votes. He again thanked the electors of Kingston for electing him as their member.

A. M. Chisholm, who had predicted a majority of 1,100 for Ross, was then called upon. He said that he had made that prediction, relying on the good sense of the people of the city. He finished by giving the old song, "We Will Roll the Old Chariot Along."

Dr. J. W. Edwards, M. P., received loud applause on his appearance. He said that he was spotted with county of Frontenac mud he had collected working for Mr. Rankin. He congratulated Dr. Ross on his victory.

W. F. Nickle, M. P., said he had often spoken on that platform but he had never thought that the conservatives would ever be as strong in Kingston as the returns had shown Dr. Ross to be. He admired the good sense of the people of the city in electing Dr. Ross and thought their reason was owing to the rugged nature, the out-spokenness as well as the bald-headedness of their member. These were the things that the people of all Ontario admired. He said that the liberals had never been as sincere as the conservatives in their policy. He referred to the Pense-McInyre election and spoke of Sir James Whitney's regret that the late Mr. Pense was elected at that time.

Ald. R. D. Sutherland, secretary-treasurer of the liberal-conservative executive, spoke of the influence of the young conservatives in the elections.

F. G. Hoag then read a telegram of congratulation he was sending to Sir James Whitney.

H. Angrove, first vice-president of the conservative association, spoke of his hard days' work and extended his congratulations to Dr. Ross on his election.

PRESENTATIONS MADE

TO REV. A. W. AND MRS. STEWART LEAVES FOR HIS NEW CHARGE AT BATTERSEA.

By the Methodist People—Mr. Stewart Leaves for His New Charge at Battersea.

Wolfe Island, June 30.—The members and adherents of the Methodist church of Wolfe Island, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Woodman on Monday evening to bid farewell to their pastor, Rev. A. W. Stewart, and family, ere their departure for their new charge in Battersea. The spirit of love and friendship was expressed in the following address, which was read by William Fitzgibbon and the presentation of beautiful gifts by the Misses Langdon and Cooper—a Morris chair in quarters sent to Mr. Stewart, a pastor cabinet to Mrs. Stewart and a leather club bag to Mrs. Ferguson. The address was as follows:

"To Rev. A. W. Stewart and Mrs. Stewart:

"Upon the occasion of your retirement as our pastor, we, the members of the Methodist church, Wolfe Island, wish to express to you and Mrs. Stewart our highest appreciation of your earnest, persistent and successful labors—our recognition of the fact that personal interests and ambitions have been continuously subservient to your intense zeal for the spiritual welfare of one and all with whom you have come in contact."

"The difficulties and discouragements inevitably connected with your position—have been faced with cheerfulness and Christian fortitude, and we have received from you the inspiration of indomitable perseverance of courage and self-reliance and evinced your untiring energy are shown in the improvements which have been made during your brief stay with us."

"Both you and Mrs. Stewart will be greatly missed, not only by the various organizations in connection with the church but also by the choir of which you were able leaders."

"As a very slight token of our esteem and affectionate regard please accept this cabinet and chair."

"Our best wishes are extended to you, to Mrs. Stewart and to your family in your new field of labor, and may all the years to come be peaceful, prosperous and happy."

Mr. Stewart replied feelingly and stated that to say he was surprised was putting it mildly. He congratulated them on having planned and kept the surprise so well. He considered that among the different times he had been honored this was indeed the happiest time of all, and thanked them for this tangible expression of appreciation of his services as their pastor.

After the company had done justice to the abundant repast provided by the ladies' social speeches were made by E. J. Jenkins, William Fitzgibbon and J. C. Cleary. Mrs. Maywell gave a rousing and Miss Olive Woodman sang "A Perfect Day."

The pleasant evening was brought to a close by the singing of "Auld Lang Syne," followed by a few words of prayer.

OTTAWA LADIES' COLLEGE

It is to have a Substantial New Building.

Attention is here drawn to the advertisement of the Ottawa Ladies' college. A new building is now almost completed. The main portion has a frontage of 150 feet and a depth of 59 feet. The rear wing, in which are situated the dining-room on the ground floor, an assembly hall or chapel on the second floor, and bed-rooms on the top floor, is 68 feet by 38 feet.

The new building has been constructed with the sole object of providing for the safety and comfort of coming students. So far as construction can devise, it is absolutely perfect. The exterior walls of the finest La Prairie brick. The floors are re-enforced concrete. The partitions are terra cotta. The roof is tiled. The class rooms are large, well-lighted, and thoroughly ventilated. Throughout, every modern convenience has been made for music and art, elocution, physical culture and such subjects as domestic science, stenography, nursing, sewing, book-keeping.

CONFEDERATION DAY

Kingston, June 30.—(To the Editor): You will find enclosed some thing which would possibly interest your readers on July 1st. This poem was written for the Montreal Saturday Reader on July 1st, 1867, the first Dominion Day, by J. R. Hooper. The Reader has long since ceased publication.—Yours truly, V. C. READE.

Our land is flushed with love,
Through the wealth of her gay
hued trees,
From her bright-red fingers the sun has been dropping his amorous fire,
And her eyes are gladly oppressed with the weight of his lips' excess,
And the zephyr-thrills of her bosom keep time with the voice of his lyre.

'Tis the noon of the sweet, strong summer, the king of the months of the year,
And the king of the years is crowning our land with his glory of love,
And the King of all kings, in whose cross each gem is the light of a sphere,
Looks smilingly down on our land from the height of His heaven above.

For to-day she breathes what to her is the first of a nation's breath, As she lies 'neath the gaze of the sun, as a bride, or a child, newborn,
Lies with fair motionless limbs in
"the beautiful semblance of death, but awakes with the joy of a bird, that awakes with the whisper of morn."

And her soul is drinking the music
"that flows through the golden
lyre,
From the depths of the woods and waters and wonderful hearts of men,
From the long-hushed songs of the forest, the wild, primeval choir, Till she feels the breath of the Spirit move over her face again.

So she hears, not in words but in spirit, the changeful tale of the past,
As she leans to the sun with veins that are blue like the blue of the sky,
Hears with a smile on her lips that the demon, Division is cast into the river of death, as a monster worthy to die.

And she hears many tongues of men, that are singing as one in her praise,
Calling her, all, by one name, a name that is noble and old, Singing a poem of joy, for the light of the gladdest of days, Making a noise of thanksgiving for union more precious than gold.

BLOOD TEST FOR LAZINESS.

Pressure Shows if Brain Worker Does His Best.

Paris, June 30.—That brain-workers are more really fatigued than those engaged in physical toil is the conclusion reached by Prof. J. M. Lahaye, who read a report this week before the Academy of Medicine describing his researches on the state of blood pressure in various cases of fatigue, mental and physical.

Not only does the pressure vary, according to the quality of the fatigue, so that Prof. Lahaye claims to be able to determine a man's profession from experiments with his blood at the conclusion of his day's work, but even the pressure indicates whether the worker is honestly doing his utmost or merely idling.

Prof. Lahaye adds that the pressure increases considerably from mental fatigue, but is hardly affected by physical effort; thus, while a new terror may be introduced into the lives of lazy members of an office staff, factory employees have no need for apprehension.

Mourner Got Reward.

Paris, June 30.—A very curious funeral took place recently in the parish of Isle-sur-Sorgue. A lady of seventy-nine made a condition in her will that every person attending her funeral should receive fifty centimes on leaving the cemetery. For years she had been collecting hundreds of fifty-centime pieces for this purpose. She also left $20 to the local orchestra to play funeral marches at the cemetery.

So great was the crowd when she was buried that the local police, though reinforced, had considerable difficulty in maintaining order while the people were receiving their rewards.

Celebrate July 4th.

At Ogdensburg by taking SS. Thousand Island at 8.30 a.m.; home 11 p.m. Fare, 75c.

What will the suffragettes do about the proverbial office that seeks the man?
"The man who is well balanced is naturally the one who isn't easily upset."

DOMINION DAY.

The Whig will not be issued to-morrow, Dominion Day. It hopes all its readers will have a joyous holiday.

SCROFULA AND ALL HUMORS GIVE WAY

There are many things learned from experience and observation that the older generation should impress upon the younger. Among them is the fact that scrofula and other humors are most successfully treated with Hood's Sarsaparilla. This great medicine is a peculiar combination of remarkably effective blood-purifying and health-giving roots, barks and herbs, and has been tested for forty years. Get it today.

Notice

Arrange your coal bin so that baskets will not be required in delivery. This will save you the extra charge of 35 cents per ton.
Stove Coal, $7.50 if shovelled in.
Stove Coal, $7.75 if carried.
Nut Coal, $7.75, if shovelled in.
Nut Coal, $8.00, if carried.

THE JAS. SOWARDS COAL CO

PHONE 155

PROBS. Moderate north-west to west winds, fine and warmer to-day and on Wednesday.

Ladies', Misses' and Children's Wash Dresses

Stunning styles, many direct from New York and all to be had at extremely modest prices.
For Ladies
Many novelties in Crepe, Ratine, Novelty Voile, etc., embracing the season's newest colorings and white.
PRICED FROM $5.50 TO $22.50
Print, Gingham and Pique Dresses in solid color and two tone effects.
98c TO $4.50

For Misses and Children
An unusually attractive assortment of New York Dresses, all late styles and at prices that are temptingly low.
Store closed to-morrow, Dominion Day

Steady's
The Busiest Store in Town

The Best China
The choicest and the most beautiful is found in our store.
There is a wide range in style and prices.
Our Special 25c Table
Odd articles 50c, 75c, $1.00, all to clear at 25 cents

ROBERTSON'S, LIMITED
China Cut Glass, Etc.

Merchants and Citizens
We are prepared with the stock necessary to change your main service wires on Princess St. and adjoining streets.
Those who have already entrusted us with their work will be looked after so that no interruption in power and light will occur.
We respectfully solicit your orders which will have prompt and careful attention.

H. W. Newman Electric Co.
Phone 441. Home 1376. 79 Princess Street.

Oxford Shoes
We have the nattiest lines of Goodyear Welt Oxford shoes, in tans, blacks and patents.
PRICES FROM $4.00 TO $5.00
Come here for Packard's Dressings, Foot Life and Foot Ezers, and all shoe sundries, largest assortment in the city.
Phone 1246.

JOHNSTON THE PRACTICAL SHOEMAN
70 BROCK ST.

ANTHONY M. RANKIN
Re-elected as conservative member in Frontenac.

THE TALE OF THE 29TH.

Election summary Tuesday morning: conservatives, 84; liberals, 25; independents, 1; laborites, 1.

Sir James Whitney says: "It was a glorious victory, just what I expected."

Mr. Rowell says: "We were greatly handicapped by a short period we had to prepare for the election."

In some quarters it is stated Mr. Rowell will resign the liberal leadership.

Murvale Matters.

Murvale, June 29.—The rain of yesterday has done a lot of good as the crops were suffering badly. Mrs. William Wallace, who is seriously ill, is no better. Anos Rutan had the misfortune to fall off a load of hay on Thursday injuring himself very badly. Ross Swerbyck is ill. Mr. and Mrs. Michael Van Loven are spending a few days with friends at Brockville. Visitors: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller, Wilton; at Bert Purdy's, Mrs. Ferguson, Kepler, at D. Taggart's, Mrs. Taggart and Mrs. Ferguson at William Shellington's. David Murton at John Shellington's.

W. D. BLACK
Re-elected conservative member in Addington.

An Untrue Statement.

The story has been repeated several times that the liberals of Kingston registered over 100 foreigners for the late election. Mr. Harrison assures us that this was not so. Endeavors were made to register seven Maltese men, who had British citizenship papers, but a technicality in their papers prevented them being registered. The liberal party did no improper work in the way of registering floaters.

Laurence Irving's Estate.

London, June 30.—The court granted H. B. Irving leave to presume his brother Laurence's death in the Empire of Ireland's wreck. Deceased's estate amounts to about £1,000 and the will, bequeathing it to his wife, The court ordered that her death also should be presumed.

Miss Allan Recovering.

The friends of Miss Lall Allan, Brock street, will be pleased to know that she has recovered from her illness and is able to go to the mountains in New York state. She will be the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Leatherland for the next two months.

Crippled With Rheumatism

And Skeptical After Trying Many Medicines—Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills Cured Him.

When the kidneys fail to purify the blood the poisons left in the system cause pain and suffering, such as backache, lumbago and rheumatism. Read how this skeptic was cured by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Mr. F. W. Brown, Kingsbury, Que. writes: "I have been completely cured of backache and lame back by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I also recommended the pills to a man who was a cripple from rheumatism. He was skeptical, as he said that he had tried nearly everything on earth. Finally he consented to try them, and to his surprise was greatly benefited in the first week, and the pain left his legs until he was so supple he could walk without pain or difficulty. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills have worked wonders in this case, and we think there is no medicine like them."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25 cents a box, 5 for $1; all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.