It will become Ald. Hoag to cast any slur on the church. No one knows better than he what swelled the majority. The pulpit has always been a great educator and while it does not dictate it must ever denounce evil, or preaching is a farce and becomes as useless as a sounding brass and a tinkling cymbal.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

"After the Battle."—A Rap at Ald. Hoag.

Kingston, July 2.—(To the Editor) Ald. Harrison has nothing to be ashamed of in being defeated; but he was defeated in a good sense than victorious in a bad one. You remember how the majority fared in the time of the flood. It's something that we have fourteen hundred and thirty-two who were neither thought or sold, many of them leaving their own party for the time being.

"Caught One Patient But the Other is Tearing on Dr. Ryan's Bicycle."

For the past few days the authorities at Rockwood asylum have been searching the country for two patients who made a sudden departure from that institution. On Wednesday the authorities got in touch with Chief Graham, of the Nanapanee police force, with the result that Thomas Kerney, aged forty, who has been missing for a couple of days, was landed in that town. He was placed under arrest and held until Wednesday evening when he was taken back to the asylum by two of the attendants, who went up on the evening train.

The other man, who is about twenty-five years of age, has been missing for about a week's time. Since his departure from the institution nothing has been seen or heard of him.

It is thought that he is making his way from place to place on a bicycle which he took from the home of Dr. Ryan, superintendent, the day he made his escape.

Elected by Registered Vote.

An analysis of the vote in Kingston shows some remarkable things. The conservatives had the means to secure support and of the 2,500 registered votes the opinion is that Ross secured 2,000 of them. This left him 500 less the solid substantial vote of electors on the municipal lists. Harrison got 500 registered votes and 900 also of the electoral vote on the municipal lists. Ross' chief support came from the "Boaters," and constituted his big majority. The manner in which this big vote was secured is well known.

Leaving for Ireland.

Rev. W. F. Fitzgerald, M.A., and Mrs. Fitzgerald left Thursday on a two months' visit to the old country. Canon Grou and Archdeacon Hobbs will take duty in St. Paul's during Mr. Fitzgerald's absence.

Going to St. John, N. B.

Dr. W. G. Anglin will go to St. John, N. B., on Friday to attend the annual convention of the Canadian Medical Association. He will read a paper on a timely medical sectrtheria at the gathering.

Robert A. Chambers, New York, a 16-year-old millionaire, got an order from the court for $100,000 for spending money.

GRIT AND TORY VIEWS ON THE RESULT OF THE ELECTIONS IN ONTARIO.

The Liberals Increased Their Vote in Toronto Four Times as Much as the Conservatives.

The Toronto Star, (liberal), commenting on the election results, says in part: "There is no occasion for fault-finding. It is true that very few conservatives were ready to put the abolition of the bar before their party's allegiance but they were exercising an unquestioned right in marking their ballots as they did. It is a remarkable fact that the Liberals gained more in Toronto than throughout the province. They did not succeed in capturing a seat, but they polled three times as many votes as in the election of 1911. They polled 20,000 more votes than in that election, while the conservatives increased their vote by only five thousand."

The preachers who expressed their views freely need not worry over the abuse heaped upon them by many politicians. The preachers do not hold their positions by the grace of the patronage committees which hand out the political jobs.

The Toronto Telegram says: "The result in Ontario is not without its moral for the electors of Manitoba, who, eleven days hence, will be called upon to pass a verdict for or against local option. The contest in this province in the single particular is similar to the Ontario combat. Sir Rowland Robinson stands with Sir James Whitney on the local option issue."

While it is true that Mr. Norris has not pledged himself to banish the bar, that policy has been set up in opposition to the Roblin government policy of total prohibition by local option. Mr. Norris' attitude is thus weaker than that of Mr. Rossell. He has the courage of his convictions, which characterized Mr. Rossell's advocacy of the 'fad.'"

"Hamilton spectator (conservative): 'The verdict of yesterday means that when the temperance people of Ontario want to go with it, they want the shop to go with it. It means that they prefer a workable law thoroughly well enforced than the premature realization, in form only, of the dream of an idealist, to become a dead letter and a farce through lack of rigid enforcement.'"

Montreal Le Devoir (Nationalist) says: "The election of Mr. Ewart in Prescott is very regrettable, but is explained by a number of local circumstances. We have no wish to excuse it, but to those English-speaking patriots in Ontario who are already making a big cry about it we would point out that it is not so good ago that Anglo-Ontarians rejected Mr. Ryker, who had been expelled from parliament by his peers."

Brantford Courier (conservative): "Whitney has abolished Rowell, and it has been done to the king's taste. The beauty of it all is that the victory was not achieved by dubious methods, but simply on the splendid record of continuous clean and progressive methods. As for Rowell, he sought, by using the temperance cause, and the pulpits for political purposes, to create a stampede, which most markedly failed to materialize."

Le Canada, Montreal, (liberal), says: "The lesson of the election undoubtedly is that the people of Ontario are not in favor of prohibition, not even partial prohibition. Result of the voting cannot be considered by liberals. In other parts of the country because of the introduction of the unique 'abolish the bar' policy of Mr. Rowell."

Montreal Journal of Commerce: Although defeated, Mr. Rowell was successful in reducing the conservative majority, and we firmly believe that he is speaking from his heart when he declares that he will continue to fight until he achieves his object. Mr. Rowell is a desirable type of man to have in public life and will accomplish much before he ends his political career."

Toronto Mail and Empire (conservative): "The opposition strategists did not underestimate the moral sense of the people, but they did very greatly miscalculate as to the people's common sense. They believed that the voters could be baited and hauled in by spurious moral reform politics, but they did not credit the people with the intelligence to discriminate between the sham and the genuine."

Winipeg Free Press, (liberal): "Provincial party lines in Ontario have been greatly broken by the campaign. It is certain that Mr. Rowell lost considerable liberal support by his uncompromising advocacy of immediate abolition of the bar by legislative enactment, and picked up compensating conservative support. The new alignment will continue."

Washington, July 2.—Says a recent department of agriculture report: "The belief, still to be found in all countries, that planets and the moon affect the weather never had any scientific basis. We believe neither the planets nor the moon can have any effect, because they furnish so little heat, upon which all weather changes ultimately depend."

Former M. P. Dead.

London, July 2.—Henry Joseph Wilson, for many years liberal member for Huddersfield, Yorkshire, is dead. He was a strenuous opponent of the Boer war in the height of the war fever, but the sincerity of his conviction, his public service and his benefactions commanded universal respect.

PURE RICH BLOOD PREVENTS DISEASE

Bad blood is responsible for more ailments than anything else. It causes catarrh, dyspepsia, rheumatism, weak, tired, languid feelings and worse troubles.

Hood's Sarsaparilla has been wonderfully successful in purifying and enriching the blood, removing scrofula and other humors, and building up the whole system. Take it—give it to all the family so as to avoid illness. Get it today.
