

TUMOR IN THE STOMACH

Completely Removed When She Took "Fruit-a-lives"

NEWBURY, ONT., April 4th, 1913. "Some years ago, I was sick in bed, and thought I was going to die. I had a growth in my stomach, which the doctors said was a tumor and they said that the only thing to do was to go to the hospital and have the tumor cut out. I dreaded an operation although both doctors said it was the only cure. I said I would die before being operated on. At this time, my mother in Alvinston sent me some "Fruit-a-lives" and induced me to try them as she had heard of another woman who had been cured of a similar growth in the stomach by taking "Fruit-a-lives".

To please my mother, I began to take "Fruit-a-lives" with the happy result that they cured me. I have not been to see a doctor since and my health is first class. I recommend "Fruit-a-lives" every time I get a chance and I will be glad to have you publish this letter as some other woman may now be a sufferer from the same trouble and "Fruit-a-lives" will cure her." Mrs. A. McDONALD. See a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

HONORED AN INDIAN

RECEIVED PUBLIC RECOGNITION FOR A BRAVE DEED.

A Monument to His Memory Dedicated With Impressive Ceremonies—He Was Naturalized and Exercised His Right of Citizenship.

Spokane, Wash., July 2.—For the first time in the history of the Spokane country the brave act of an Indian has received public recognition. Tam-mu-tsa, a Nez Perce chief, through his service to the United States troops, today shares equal honors with Colonel E. J. Steptoe and his band, on a monument dedicated with impressive ceremonies at Rosalia, Wash., recently.

For more than fifty years Tam-mu-tsa, or Timothy, as he was known to the white men, repeatedly exhibited his devotion to the whites, dating from the time when Missionary Spaulding, in the '30s, anglicized the name of the chief. In piloting the soldiers under Colonel Steptoe from almost certain death, and in the rescue of Eliza Spaulding, a daughter of the missionary, this red man showed that he valued his Christian teachings.

Timothy's sympathies with the whites were not confined to services in their behalf; he aspired to common citizenship with the early settlers. He was naturalized and exercised his right to take up a homestead at the mouth of Alpowa creek.

The tablet to the Indian hero reads as follows: "In memory of Chief Tam-mu-tsa (Timothy) and the Christian Nez Perce Indian rescuers of the Steptoe expedition. Erected by the Ester Reed chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Spokane, Washington, June 14th, 1914."

The unveiling of the Steptoe monument, on the site of a memorable battle with the federated tribes in 1858, was attended by 10,000 persons, including the only white survivors of the conflict, Thomas J. Beall, Michael J. Kenny and J. J. Kohn.

MUCH SOUGHT AFTER MAN

Anheuser Receives Over Thousand Proposals in Six Months.

Omaha, Neb., July 2.—Fred W. Anheuser of Omaha, who has received more than 1,000 proposals of marriage in the last six months, is to be married next Tuesday. He will thereby obtain a legacy of $50,000 left him by his uncle last fall, provided he got married within 24 months. Anheuser beat the 24 by nearly eight months.

"But, shucks!" says young Anheuser, "that $50,000 didn't have anything to do with my marriage. I've been engaged all the time. In fact, the date of our wedding was set before the death of my uncle."

Anheuser is city prosecutor and the girl he will marry is Miss Katherine Van Lome of this city.

Anheuser's millionaire uncle died last November. The day after the funeral the will was read. To Anheuser's surprise, the old man had remembered him with a legacy of $50,000. He found that he would have to get married in two years or the $50,000 would revert to the other heirs.

The story got into the newspaper at once. Mr. Anheuser's photograph was reproduced. In 24 hours all Nebraska, Iowa, South Dakota and Wyoming knew of the legacy, and from the number of letters that began pouring in on Anheuser it seemed that every unmarried woman in all those States wanted to help him get possession of that $50,000.

CHILD'S TONGUE FROZEN.

Placed Tongue on Frost-Covered Ammonia Freezing Pipe.

Keokuk, Ga., July 2.—When Alma Bentley, an 11-year-old child, placed her tongue on a frost-covered ammonia freezing pipe in the butcher shop of Joseph Hauberg, she discovered to her amazement that her tongue stuck to the pipe and that she was unable to remove it.

Before the child could be removed from the pipe by the doctor who was called, a part of her tongue had been frozen off and one side of her face was so badly frozen that her right eye was swollen shut and her face may be permanently disfigured.

Skunk Bites Sleeper.

Haskell, Ok., July 2.—Because the night was hot John Reerink, 16 year old, took his blanket and slept on under a tree. He was awakened by something soft nosing about his head. He struck at it with his hand and an instant later a set of sharp teeth pierced his ear. His father was aroused by the yells that followed, and found a large skunk clinging to the boy's ear. The skunk was killed and the blanket buried.

Losses Fortune to Marry.

Boston, July 2.—Frank Palmer Spear, educational director of the Y. M. C. A., will forfeit $600,000 when he marries Miss Katherine A. Vinton. His wife left him that sum on condition that he should not re-marry.

"I only did what any clean, square jawed man would do," he said today. "I have no regrets for the fortune I have passed away."

WHY OTTAWA WENT LIBERAL

Temperance and Local Issues Decided Against Ellis.

Ottawa, July 2.—The striking turn over in Ottawa, where the former members, Ellis and Champagne, were defeated by Messrs. Hurdman and Pinard, was attributed to two causes. In West Ottawa, Ellis lost considerable prestige when defeated for the mayoralty last January, but it was the temperance vote in the heavy conservative ward that more than anything else caused his defeat. Another influence was the French vote in the west end, which went strongly liberal, while the conservative candidates' stand on the local question of water supply caused many people who opposed him for the mayoralty to carry their prejudice into the provincial field. The disaffection of the Ottawa citizen, the independent conservative paper, also contributed to the result in both Ottawa constituencies.

WILL SHUT BIG COAL MINES.

Operators Will Suspend Work to Bolster the Market.

Wilkes-Barre, Penn., July 2.—Plans have been made to close twenty-five collieries of the Lehigh Valley Coal Company and eight of the Lehigh and Wilkes-Barre Coal Company from July 1st to 6th. About 30,000 men are employed in these mines. There is an effort to bolster the market, which has a large supply of coal.

The mines concerned are the largest in the anthracite region. The mines may be kept closed for a longer time if there is no improvement in conditions in the coal trade.

The operators say that the open winter was disastrous to business. There was no very cold weather, they say, until after the first of the year, and business conditions long ago would have warranted the action they now take. There was an early spring, they say, and coal sales fell off.

Other coal companies in this region have been working on half time for several weeks. Officials of the Susquehanna Coal company and the Kingston Coal company said to-day that they were not contemplating any suspension.

TO HAVE RECOUNT.

Toronto, July 2.—The liberals will demand a recount in North Westwood, where the government majority is 3; in East Lambton, where it is 13, and in West Kent, where the conservative had 15 votes more than his liberal opponent.

Titles of recounts being demanded in North Brant, South Essex and South Oxford.

Quebec, July 2.—While he stood in prayer before the statue of Sainte Anne at Beausere, death struck Honoré Mailly, Montreal. The young man had come to the shrine with the hope of recovering his health, and it is while kneeling in church that he was stricken. His wife was with him.

Another Enquiry.

St. John, N.B., July 2.—St. John is to have another police investigation. W. B. Chandler, K. C. of Moncton, has been appointed a commissioner to investigate the administration of the police department where inefficiency is charged.

Canadians on the border have become subject to a drastic income tax regulation.

JOHNSON-MORAN FIGHT

DECLARED A FAKE — MORAN WAS A TOOL.

Alleged that Black Man Allowed Moran to Stay in Most Obvious Way for Money-making Purposes — The Whole Affair Prearranged.

Paris, July 1.—"Jack" Adams, a well-known octocorn sportsman and one of "Jack" Johnson's principal trainers in his last fight, told the New York American correspondent that the fight with Moran was a fake.

"Moran has been a tool of Johnson, Ziegler, McKetrick, Wolf and others ever since the articles were signed. McKetrick proposed Moran to Johnson as a man who could be used and whom Johnson could handle with the utmost ease.

"They sent Moran back to America to work up popularity for himself through boxing pictures and other ways as the one and only 'white hope.'"

"The whole thing has been a campaign not only for this meeting, which was brought off without a hitch in every detail, but for another bout in America."

"Johnson took $30,000 out of the fight, while Moran received a mere pittance and plenty of promises that he would be put in the way to make money later out of the gullible American public."

"Mrs. Johnson drew her husband's $30,000 the Saturday before the fight. I think the plot has been detected. Johnson himself, who behaved in the ring with consummate folly, as he could have knocked Moran out in the fifth round.

"He didn't do so on account of the money. Later he appeared in a mere pittance and plenty of promises that he would be put in the way to make money later out of the gullible American public."

"Tom" Flanagan, who has been Johnson's adviser through thick and thin, knew the fight would go twenty rounds. Early this morning he declared to me he was thoroughly disgusted and it was the last time he would have anything to do with such a contest.

"Johnson lied about his weight, as he entered the ring at 214 pounds, and not 208, nor 206, as he told the newspapers. He made the standard great mistake in his life since being brought out of America through his escapades with white women.

"Johnson has now turned against himself the entire sporting public in the country where he intends to make a permanent home, as the French won't credit him as being a great fighter again."

Johnson has arranged to fight "Sam" Langford the middle of October. For this battle he will receive $30,000, win, lose or draw, and in addition will be given fifty per cent. of the moving picture receipts. The articles for the fight with Langford will be signed in London in July.

Wolcott's Arm Broken.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 1.—"Ad" Wolcott broke his arm, yesterday, thus halting the Rivers-Wolcott twenty-round lightweight match, which was to have taken place here July 4th. He will be forced to remain idle two or three months before he can fight again.

Died at Clarendon Station.

We regret to announce the death of James Campbell, his sixty-fifth year, which occurred last Saturday evening, at his residence at Clarendon Station. Mr. Campbell had been ailing for some time, and the end was not wholly unexpected. The funeral took place from the home on Tuesday, where a short service was held, conducted by the Rev. H. W. Bronwich. Mr. Campbell had a wide circle of friends, and there was a large attendance at the funeral.

The interment took place at McDonough corner, his parents are buried. John Campbell (brother of deceased) and wife, Kingston, were present, as were all the members of the family.

The deceased was survived by his wife and the following eight children: Archie, James, Thomas, Lily, Margaret and Ethel, at home, John in Kingston, and one married daughter Mrs. A. Boles.

Mr. Campbell will be much missed and we extend to the bereaved members of the family our sincerest condolences.

Head as Big As Cow.

Sarnia, July 2.—The head of a large sturgeon is now on exhibition in a store front on Front street, the head being about the size of a full-grown cow. The fish, which was caught in the net of R. Soles, Lake Huron shore, was about nine feet in length and weighed in the neighborhood of 190 pounds. This is the second largest sturgeon that has been caught at this point this season, the other fish weighing about 160. When one figures that it takes a sturgeon egg twenty years to hatch, and that the fish grow very slow, some idea of the great age of this fish can be ascertained.

Ottawa, July 2.—The postoffice department has been asked to issue a special stamp commemorating the Carrière centenary. The matter is being considered by the postmaster-general. There is no decision yet.

TO DOUBLE FORD PLANT

Will Be the Largest in the World When Completed

Detroit, Mich., July 1.—The Ford Motor company will double its plant before fall, making it the largest manufacturing plant in this country and probably in the world. Seven new buildings and a power house are to be erected at a cost of about $5,000,000. The buildings will each be 900 feet long by 50 feet wide and 6 stories high. The power house will be 240 feet long, 150 wide and 85 feet high, and will house the largest gasoline engine in the world, driving motors that will produce 80,000 horse power.

The company plans with these increased facilities, to double its 1914 output next year. This means that when the factory is running full, about 40,000 men will be employed.

Mr. Wanamaker's View.

New York, July 1.—In testifying before the Industrial Commission of Philadelphia a few days ago Mr. Wanamaker stated that he believed absolutely in the principle that the United States government should own the railways of that country.

"We would then have one cent postage," he said. "I worked for the postal savings bank and for the parcel post and I intend to cooperate in any effort on a sound basis to nationalize the railways."

To Renew Operations.

New York, July 1.—The American Smelting and Refining company has decided to resume operations at its Chihuahua, Mexico, smelter. The company's employees have been ordered to proceed to Chihuahua, and it is expected that by July 2nd the plant will be in full operation.

Too Rough to Take Trip.

The Oswego Times of Tuesday says:—The steamer Olcott, because of high winds and heavy seas, did not make the trip to Kingston, Ont., as scheduled to-day. The steamer was in readiness to go, and there were forty passengers on board when the time arrived for departure, but Manager Hunt believed from reports received from incoming vessel captains that the interests of all would be better served by remaining at the dock.

The steamer Jeska came into port about eight o'clock, and reported a tremendous sea with a high wind blowing on the north shore, and when this report was spread among the passengers there were not many who wanted to go by water to Kingston.

The new French cabinet now fears another strike of state employees.
