ROBLIN IS UP AGAINST THE FIGHT OF HIS LIFE
Manitoba Premier Big Issue in Provincial Election—School Question Threatens to Unhinge His Government Over Famous Caldwell Amendments.

Winnipeg, July 4.—Sir R. P. Roblin, after fourteen years of undisturbed power, is up against the fight of his life. It is Roblin against the "government" of T. C. Norris, who happens to be the leader of the opposition. It is Roblin we hear about, Roblin who is the issue, Roblin who is good or bad. The provincial election, to be held next Friday, will be a vote of confidence or want of confidence in the provincial prime minister. Both sides are confident and appear to have plenty of money. Where the liberals are getting theirs is a matter of speculation. There are the usual protests about fraudulent naturalization, bogus registration, and other indignities said to have been perpetrated by the party in power, but so far as can be observed the Roblin government has fled the law after fourteen years of power.

Manitoba has never encouraged American immigration. In a matter of fact intending settlers from United States had been advised to go elsewhere. The three big elements of the population are British immigrants, Ontario people and their descendants and immigrants from continental Europe. Sir Rodmond, to do him justice, is a sincere imperialist, anti-American and anxious to keep Canada within the empire. He has placed a British flag on every school house and has been a consistent Britisher. He is Ontario born and has an enormous personal acquaintance among the Ontario people in Manitoba. He is a farmer and looks the part, and he is a downright, effective, if somewhat blustering, stump-speaker. He does not like Sir James Whitney, but imitates him. Now, with the foreign vote Sir Rodmond would have almost everybody controlled, and he is bidding for the foreign vote. He has always been of good terms personally with Archbishop Langevin. He is therefore likely to make a strong bid for the French Catholic vote. The Orange order is numerous, influential and powerful in Manitoba. The Orangemen are said to be bitter in their hostility toward the premier and they will be able to beat him. But of course he hopes to divide the vote, and he may do so. If the Orange order as an organization succeeds in downing premier Roblin it will be a signal victory.

PORECELAIN SHIPS.
Englishman Believes Material Better Than Steel.
London, July 7.—M. Hales Turner of Gravesend has made public a daring scheme to build big ships of porcelain. He believes liners of porcelain, driven by petroleum derivatives will some day out steam-driven ships of steel and wood.
After forty years' labor and an expenditure of $500,000 he has discovered how to manufacture plate porcelain at $35 a ton in any size up to ten by fifteen feet. He would make all parts of his ship porcelain except the framework and sides. Mr. Turner points out the advantage of the new material as regards cheapness, cleanliness and permanence.

"THERE IS NO HELL,"
Such is Declaration of Rev. R. W. Norwood, London.
London, July 7.—Rev. R. W. Norwood, M. A., rector of Bishop Cronyn Memorial church, this city, and one of the most prominent Anglican clergymen in the diocese of Huron, declared in the course of his sermon to-night that he did not believe there was a hell, and that in his opinion there was no damnation of the soul.

Theatres, Dances, Cards, Banned.
Los Angeles, July 7.—Theatre-going, card playing and modern dancing, except the framework and sides, were placed under a ban by a resolution adopted by the Baptist Young Peoples societies' convention of the Pacific coast.
"Modern dancing" is declared by prominent Baptists to mean the tango and other such dances, and not the waltz, two-step and folk dances.
R. C. Bishop of Down Dead.
Belfast, July 7.—Right Rev. John Tohill, Roman Catholic bishop of Down and Connor since 1908, died yesterday. He was born in the County Derry in 1855 and was professor at St. Malachi's college, Belfast, from 1878 to 1894. Before he was appointed bishop he was parish priest of Cushendall, County Antrim.

The School Question.
For it is the school question which threatens to unhinge the Roblin government. The Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Orange Order for British North America and the R. W. grand master for Manitoba and the Orange Sentinel, and the great bulk of the Orange order have condemned unsparringly the school legislation of 1912, embodied in the famous Caldwell amendments. These amendments in effect provide that a qualified Roman Catholic teacher must be employed for every twenty-five Roman Catholic pupils in country districts and for every forty-five Roman Catholic pupils in Winnipeg and other cities. They may be in fact, as The Patriot declares them to be, merely declaratory of the law as it has always been since the Laurier-Greenway agreement, but in their practical application they have included in the public schools system the Roman Catholic schools of Winnipeg, which, it is charged, are being conducted as separate schools. The amendments were undoubtedly passed as a concession or partial concession to the demands of Archbishop Langevin of St. Boniface and the Roman Catholic minority. At the time they passed they attracted little attention, but now the uproar is definite.

Both Dodge Bilingual Question.
What must seem curious to an Ontario observer is the way in which government and opposition alike dodge the bilingual question. La Liberte newspaper, which is supposed to be the organ of his grace of St. Boniface, denounced Mr. Norris as a liberal and generally speaking, it may be said that the non-English speaking vote of Manitoba is likely to go to the Roblin government on the bilingual school question. Of course in Manitoba it is much worse matter of the French, but the German, the Rutherfordian, the Galician and other languages dominate many schools. Under the law of 1897 any ten pupils may demand instruction in their native tongue, and the charge is freely made that many public school teachers in Manitoba have a superficial knowledge of English, and that a considerable percentage of children attending the public schools are unable to speak English. Sir Rodmond says that the Greenway government passed the law and the liberals must take the responsibility. On the other hand, he has not modi-

MARGARET ANGLIN'S PROTEST
Famous Canadian Actress Complains of Unfair Report.

Ottawa, July 6.—Miss Margaret Anglin, the famous Canadian actress writes complaining of the reprinting in Canadian newspapers of an alleged report in a yellow New York Journal of the examination of her husband (Mr. Hull) in a court suit brought by a colored woman for damages in an automobile accident, Miss Anglin, who is visiting her brother, Justice Anglin, in Ottawa, says in part:
"A peculiarly unfair and unjust suit was started in New York some time ago against me and my husband, through a legal technicality was the person sued. Mr. Hull some time since abandoned his own profession at my request, and with it, a considerable income, in order to aid me and take charge of my business affairs. He has been unwilling to accept my salary from me for his services, which have been unremitting and of inestimable value, merely charging the business with his actual expenses, which the person who is conducting the case, chooses for purposes of humiliation to put down as clothes and car fare."
"It is all so undignified and unworthy that I am truly loathe to contaminate myself by entering into discussion for publication. I really am ashamed and sorry newspapers of my country should have stooped to such methods of attack, when the Journals of New York—with the exception of one paper, of semi-importance discarded the story entirely. It was not furnished as court news but published many days after the evidence had been taken, and on the morning I was to make my deposition, solely, I believe, for the purpose of annoying me."
"This, too, after I had offered before suit was brought to take care for five years of the plaintiff in the case, whose injuries were brought about solely by her own inadvertence, and whose life was saved by our chauffeur at the risk of our own. "More might be said, but it is unnecessary. If in fairness, you will give space to what I have written, you will remedy a wrong which you have (I hope unconsciously) done to an honorable man. For what you have done to me — that may pass. I am at home. Yours truly, Margaret Anglin Hull."

BRITISH LOTTERY SWINDLE.
$250,000 in Prizes Against Millions in Tickets.
London, July 7.—A curious lottery case was heard before Justice Coleridge two days ago at the Devon assizes.
Henry James Houston, William Twyford Dixon and Charles Henry Towler, advertising agents, were indicted for conspiring to publish a scheme for the sale of tickets in a lottery called the "John Bull Derby Sweepstake, 1914," between Jan. 1st 1913 and April 20th, 1914. They pleaded guilty to distributing circulars and tickets, but not to originating the scheme.
Mr. Foote, K.C., for the crown, said he did not allege that the defendants originated a scheme, but that they conspired to carry it through. If the tickets printed by one firm alone had been sold the sum of $7,500,000 would have been realized. The prizes to be distributed totaled only $250,000, about three per cent. of the total.
Lord Coleridge said the unsatisfactory part of the case was that he had not before him the real culprits. The object of the prosecution was to stop this "gross and palpable swindle." He thought justice would be met by binding over Dixon and Towler in $500 on their own recognizances. Houston, who was nearer the actual swindlers, and employed other men, would be fined $500, and would have to pay the costs of the prosecution, both here and in the lower courts.

THE SILK TROUSERS, AN ADMIRABLE PROOF FOR BEACH WEAR.
Nothing like the little frock of dark silk for a trotabout frock in summer time. The model pictured is a frock of blue and white striped pussy willow taffeta, simply made but smartened immensely by the charming hat trimmed with pink poppies, white buttoned boots and a blue and white striped parasol. The young men are correctly dressed; one in a lounge suit in Norfolk style and the other in gray flannel—with the new form-fitting lines—accompanied by smart English flat-heeled boots.
