The sides of both trench and holes must be kept perpendicular, so that the worms can't climb out. In their ellorts to escape from the trench, the caterpillars will fall into these holes and may readily be destroyed if straw or some other inflammable material is thrown upon them and ignited.

The worm's best or worst enemy found in the birds. It's the old story as I have pointed out time and again Our insectivorous birds must be pro tected. Apart from the birds, there are-flies that lay their eggs in the bodies of the caterpillars. When hatched, the larvae of the flies feed on the soft tissue of the worm. These fliesare numerous this year, but the effect of their work will not be noticed until next year. In fact, the army worm seldom breaks out in consecutive years in the same locality. Of the flies

William A. Twigg, dog fancier, Barrie street, is on the look-out for the contemptible person who gave poison to his valuable black silk cocker spaniel. On Tuesday evening about 7.45 o'clock Mr. Twigg found the dog in the yard at home. When the animal was taken When the animal was taken into the home it was found to be in a very bad i condition, as his hind legs were paralyzed. On Wednesday the dog was still living but it will never be of any use.

The poison must have been put out for this dog as the animal is not | allowed out unless Mr. Twigg has it on a string. The owner thinks the poison was thrown over the fence. The canine is the animal which carried off the prizes at the Montreal dog show and is about the best of its breed in the province.
