A SOLDIER DESERTED KNOW A GOOD DEAL THE LATEST TIDINGS

WILL BE TAKEN BACK TO REGIMENT AT HALIFAX.

Private R. W. Denney Skipped Out Two Days After he Joined the Royal Canadian Regiment at Halifax—Placed Under Arrest Here.

The life of a soldier did not appeal to one Pte. R. W. Denney. He had donned the uniform he thought he would like it, but he soon changed his mind, in fact he only stayed on the job for two days. Then he skipped, and his arrest in Kingston was the result.

Denney came out from the old country a short time ago. He arrived at Halifax early in June, and enlisted with the Royal Canadian Regiment. Two days later he was reported absent, and could not be located. His case was investigated and it was found that his parents were living at Kingston, so the local police were asked to keep watch for him. And they did so. The family home is on the Forty-foot Road. Late Wednesday afternoon, Constable James Bateson got a tip that the man wanted was at his home, so, in company with Constable William Nicholson, he paid a visit to the house on the Forty-foot Road, and placed the accused under arrest. He gave himself up without any resistance. He is now being detained at headquarters, awaiting the arrival of an escort from Halifax to take him back. Denney is twenty-five years of age.

Word was received on Thursday morning that an escort would arrive in the city during the afternoon and take Denney back to Halifax. It is stated that he will endeavor to purchase his release from the regiment.

ABOUT YORKE CASE, BUT ARE KEEPING QUIET.

Officers of Steamer America Interviewed by Detective Miller—They Will Make no Statement.

Detective Miller, of the provincial detective service, was in the city on Wednesday for the purpose of following up the clue that Miss Blanche Yorke, who has been missing from her home at Tamworth since July 8th, crossed on the steamer America to Cape Vincent one day last week.

While in the city the detective was in conversation with a number of the officials on the steamer America. On Thursday morning when a Whig reporter inquired from one of the officers on the steamer with regard to the case he was told that he (the officer) knew a lot about the affair but it was his intention to be mum until a later date.

It is thought that while the detective was aboard the steamer on Wednesday afternoon he told the men to keep their mouths closed.

While in the city on Monday afternoon, the two brothers of the missing young lady requested the local police department to keep a close watch for their sister. A constable meets the cape boat every day.

POISONING OF DOGS

WILL BE REPORTED TO ATTORNEY-GENERAL'S DEPT.

Kingston Owners Will Ask That Matter be Investigated—One Owner Says They Will Refuse to Pay Tax if City Does Not Provide Protection.

A prominent dog owner and one interested in the dog show which will be held in Kingston on Civic holiday, stated to the Whig on Thursday afternoon, that in view of the many cases in which dogs had been poisoned of late in the city, that the dog owners had decided to complain to the attorney-general's department, at Toronto, to have the matter investigated. It is the desire to get the provincial authorities interested.

A dog poisoner is blamed and it was at first the intention of the owners to secure the services of a private detective on the case, but finally it was decided to communicate with the attorney-general's department.

It is further stated that if the dog owners are not given the protection which they claim they should be given by the city, that they will refuse to pay taxes for the canines. During the last year a large number of dogs have died as a result of being poisoned, and the victims have been mostly of the very best class. In view of the dog show, to be held on Civic holiday, the killing off of the dogs has made the owners very warm in their determination that they will do their utmost to have the matter thoroughly investigated.

PRISONERS PUNISHED

GUARD AT THE PENITENTIARY EXONERATED.

Result of Investigation Into Finding of Suit of Civilian's Clothes in Coal Pile.

As a result of the investigation made at the penitentiary, over the finding of a suit of civilian's clothes hidden in an old box in a coal pile, two convicts who were employed in the stoker room have been deprived of one month's good conduct marks. The guard who was in charge of the suit of clothes and who gave it over to the convicts to be destroyed has it is understood, been exonerated. The offense is a very serious one, and the fact that the guard was exonerated while other guards found guilty of offences against the regulations have been punished, has caused much comment.

Just a few days ago, a guard who was found guilty of being asleep while on duty in the laundry, with a number of convicts under his care was dismissed. In this case a chance was given for one or more convicts to make an escape and it is regarded as a far more serious offence.
