Contractors, Attention!

We have just opened a kiln of stock brick and we want the contractors and builders to come out and see them. It won't cost anything to look at them and you don't have to buy them if they don't suit you, but we invite inspection and challenge comparison. They can also be seen at J. O. Hutton's and McKelvey's hardware stores. See our new hollow brick for inside work. They certainly are dandies. We will also have it ready for the market in about two weeks. Give us a call. WHAT WHIG CORRESPONDENTS HAVE TO TELL

News From Villages and Farms Throughout the Adjoining Counties—Rural Events, and Movements of the People.

Bath Liked The Rain.

Bath, July 23.—Leo Cunningham and Henry Saunders, of Chicago, arrived on Wednesday on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Luke Cunningham. Mr. Joseph Keller, of Rochester, N. Y., is visiting at H. Covert's. After the long drought, the rain of Thursday was gladly received as it was badly needed. Some of the farmers living in the vicinity of the farm are complaining of the ravages of the army worm in their crops. In some fields the worms have completely destroyed the crops. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wemp visited friends in Odessa on Sunday last.

Cows Killed at Pittsferry.

Pittsferry, July 22.—The storm on Tuesday, which was thought to be very light, killed four of T. Stark's cows. Haying is about completed, but the grain and garden are at a stand still for the want of a good shower. The Ladies' Aid and missionary society of St. John's Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. R. Ballantyne on Wednesday, July 22nd, with a good attendance. A dainty lunch was provided by the hostess. John and David H. McClelland attended the ditching demonstration at six o'clock on Thursday. Misses Bell and Helen McLean, of Kingston, are the guests of Mrs. Robert Barclay. Miss Mildred Wiskins, Gananoque, is the guest of Miss Mammie Lane. Miss Jennie McClelland is spending a few days with friends in Kingston.

Wedding At Maberly.

Maberly, July 22.—Raspberries are very plentiful. A baby boy has arrived at Mr. Dooking's. Miss Lilly Conroy, and Mr. Justin, were united in marriage by the Rev. Mr. Cole on Wednesday evening, at six o'clock. Miss Buchanan assisted the bride while John Conroy performed the duties of best man. The happy couple left on an extended trip. On their return they will reside at Clarence. Miss Marie Thompson, Miss Eva Flaherty and Ervin Battersby, left for Rochester, N.Y., going the way of Kingston, on Saturday. Mrs. Crowe has gone to visit friends at Parham. Miss Leta Hawley, is visiting in Maberly. Mrs. Kehoe, Montreal, is visiting Mrs. Fleming, Mrs. A. Gray and family, Ottawa. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wesley, are moving into their new home in the village. A number from here attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Joseph Perkins, on Saturday. Ollie Perkins, arrived from Winnipeg on Friday to attend her mother's funeral.

Itinerary Happenings.

Itinerary, July 24.—The cottages at the lake shore are filled with tourists who are thoroughly enjoying the fishing on Loughboro lake. Mrs. Maggie Downey and son, Glen, and Mr. Ritchie have returned to Toronto. Mrs. Ida Gibson and some friends from Toronto are at the cottage now. On the eve of the 29th there will be a lawn social on John Gerald's lawn in the village. Andrew McEaden is quite ill. He is undergoing medical treatment in the general hospital, Kingston. Miss Jeanette Smith, after an absence of eleven years, is here on a visit to her sister, Gladys, and her family. Mrs. Herbert Gibson and family and some friends are camping on the shore of Loughboro lake. The people of Pine Grove held their annual picnic on Monday last. At her home on Wednesday Miss Ferdie Ferguson entertained all the little girls of the community and a few of her most intimate friends from Kingston to a most delightful party in honor of her guests, Misses Annie and Hilda Langwith, of Sunbury. The little folks amused themselves with games, swinging, races, etc. Kieut-Col. Ferguson proved himself an adept at amusing children. Miss Annie Langwith obtained first prize in the largest girls' race. Miss Hilda Langwith secured first place in the smaller girls' race. Miss Muriel Barr received first prize in the little girls' jumping contest. The tug of war afforded great amusement, especially when a few of the girls walked away with Col. Ferguson at the other end. At five o'clock Mrs. Ferguson, assisted by Miss Jean McEaden, of Kingston, and Mrs. Josephine, of Pine Grove, presented the lawn. The supply at both factories is very low owing to the scarcity of milk. Miss Georgie Ferguson, of Kingston, is spending her holidays at Thomas Thompson's. On Wednesday a number of the old friends of Sampson Arthur assembled at his home to celebrate his ninety-second birthday. Among them were his oldest son, Philip Arthur, of Pense, Sask., who is here on a visit to his father and friends. Mrs. Mima Hughes, Kingston, is at W. J. Arthur's. Mrs. J. B. Holmes remains quite poorly.

Stag Island, in Detroit River, has been purchased by the International Peace Association and its name changed to Deconer.

The Interests of Labor.

London Advertiser.
Hon. I. W. Crothers is minister of labor. His law partner, Samuel Price, has been appointed to administer the workmen's compensation act. It is to be hoped that Mr. Price will do more for labor in his official capacity than Hon. Mr. Crothers does in his. He probably will, for it would be difficult to do less. It cannot be denied, however, that the Vancouver strike situation was not handled to the satisfaction of the labor interests, and it was handled by Mr. Price when his law partner, the minister of labor, was absent in Europe and should have been at home to attend to it. Mr. Price is an able lawyer, and has had much experience in the public service. He may prove an admirable chairman for the workmen's compensation commission.
