A BOER IS AMONG FIGHTING BRITISHES

He Has Left a Family in the West to Join the Overseas Contingent.

Ottawa, Aug. 20.—Among the Princess Pats, who came from the west, is a Boer who fought under Cronje in the South African war. He has left a wife and four half-grown children, near Saskatoon, and will go to the front to fight under the flag of his former enemies.

Constable Smith and three city constables had a call to Division street, near the G.T.R. crossing, to chase some tramps that had been bothering the residents of that district. When the constables had arrested, however, the tramps had departed.
