AN AUGUST WEDDING

CROWN - LAMBERT NUPTIALS WEDNESDAY MORNING.

Pretty Ceremony Took Place At the Home of the Bride in This City— Ceremony Performed by an Uncle of the Groom.

A very pretty wedding was quietly solemnized Wednesday morning at 10.30 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lambert, Clergy street, when their elder daughter, Lillian Elizabeth, was united in marriage to Thomas Clarence Chown, of Montreal.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate relatives, by Rev. Edwin Chown, of Toronto, uncle of the groom, in the drawing-room, before a perfectly arranged curtain of evergreen on which was outlined a large true-lovers knot in feathery white astors.

As Miss Laura Nicolle, A.T.C.M., played the wedding music the bride entered with her father, looking very lovely in her wedding gown of white duchesse satin. The skirt was softly draped and, at one side, was caught with orange blossoms partly concealed by a tablier of princess lace, which fell from beneath a satin tulle.

The same lace formed the corsage and was softly veiled in tulle. The veil fell to the edge of the train from a coronet of orange blossoms, which had been worn by the bride's mother on her wedding day. The wedding bouquet was a shower of roses and lilies-of-the-valley, and the groom's gift to his bride was a diamond and pearl ring.

The bridesmaids were Miss Beatrice Lambert, whose gown was of apricot crepe meteor with flowered nylon overdress and touches of lace, and Miss Edith Chown gowned in pink charmesse with nylon tunic and lace-trimmed bodice.

Both bridesmaids wore flowered wreaths and each carried an armful of sunset roses. The gifts of the groom to them and to Miss Laura Nicolle, were pearl pins, while J. McD. Harold, Montreal, who was groomsmen, received a gold headed cane.

After the bride and groom had received the congratulations and good wishes of the guests a dainty buffet breakfast was served in the dining room where the bride's table was centrally arranged with tulle and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Lambert, the bride's mother was handsomely gowned in dove blue silk with corsage bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Chown sat on the west-bound train for Muskoka, to spend their honeymoon, after which they will reside in Montreal.

IN SOBBY PLIGHT. Paris and London Press Face Paper Famine.

With the "biggest story" in history at their front doors, newspapers in Paris and London may be forced to suspend because they cannot print it. The supply of paper is very limited.

Paris papers now print but two pages and have cut out the margins in order to husband their resources.

In London the great Times has cut from fourteen to six pages, and other papers have reduced accordingly.

Even at this rate it is possible that before the great battles are fought, there will be no paper on which to print the news. All advertising has disappeared.

To Transfer a Patient A hurry call was sent into S. S. Corbett's undertaking parlors on Wednesday morning and was immediately responded to by the ambulance tearing down Princess and Brock streets to the C. P. R. station.

Many persons who happened to be on the street at the time thinking that something serious had happened rushed after it, but were disappointed for their long run. The ambulance was called to transfer a young lady to the hospital. The patient was brought to the city on the Bay of Quinte train.

DEATH OF MRS. AYLESWORTH.

Passed Away at Colborne After Long Illness.

On August 16th, at the manse, Colborne, Mrs. Lester Allen Aylesworth passed away after an illness of almost eight months, which finally developed into heart trouble and other complications.

Deceased was formerly Mary Elizabeth Bennington, and was born at Glenvale, township of Kingston, in May 1871. During her married life she lived at Bath, and in March 1913 Mr. and Mrs. Aylesworth retired and went to live with their daughter, at Colborne, Ont. where Mr. Aylesworth died suddenly of heart trouble on October 1st of last year.

Since that time Mrs. Aylesworth had been gradually failing in health, sometimes a little better and in hopes of recovery, but falling very fast at the last. She passed peacefully away on Sunday, August 16th. During all her illness she bore her suffering with christian patience and great fortitude.

A short service was conducted at the manse, Colborne, by Rev. Mr. Knox of the Methodist church, and Rev. Mr. Church of the Baptist church, after which the remains were taken by G. T. R. to the Presbyterian church Bath, where a service was conducted by Rev. T. J. Glover, of Toronto, former pastor.

Two brothers, John Bennington, Prescott, and George Bennington, Cataract, survive, also one daughter, Mrs. (Rev.) Malcolm Lindsay, Colborne, is left to mourn the loss of a most devoted and loving mother.

VELVET SHAPES USED. Modified Sailors and Turbans Lead in Favor.

The advance styles of millinery are arriving, and point to velvet and plush as the favorite materials for hats, with ostrich feather novelties a leading favorite. Bunching and long soft plumes bunched up in a sort of pompon effect are pretty.

The sailor is modified slightly as to crown, which is higher and the brim is a trifle wider. Sometimes the regulation straight brim is used, but usually the added width takes the form of points and curves slightly upturned. The tricorne is a favorite model. In small close hats there is the turban, consisting sometimes of a simple crown without a brim. Again, the brim turns sharply back against a high crown, and is held by lariat ostrich feathers, or a fluffy ostrich tip.

Some of the very smartest hats have the entire crown made of small ostrich feathers; an all white hat has the crown of these feathers, which pass into a close swirl resembling a soft breast or wing. The narrow brim is of white silk plush. These hats also come in colors with no other trimming. A few hats have wide straight brims of velvet and low soft crowns, and are made still more soft by long fued ostrich feathers curling close about the crown.

He Would Have Been. We wish to use no harsh or unjust words of our enemy. Judgment will be given by that God of battles to whom he has appealed.

The German emperor has made this war which will for ever disgrace him. It is the old fight between liberty and despotism that we have to wage to-day, and it can only end in one way—by the downfall of despotism.

Wers Germany to conquer, the sun would have gone out of the sky and Europe would have reverted to the rule of force. That will not be. It needs must, and if unhappily the forces now mustering should prove inadequate, the whole civilized world will yet combine to stamp out the mad autocracy which has brought such infinite anguish upon Europe. Let us lift up our hearts.

Had Enjoyable Time When the Graduate Nurses Entertained Artillerymen.

Gananogue, Aug. 26.—The supper tendered by the local graduate nurses to officers and men of the 3rd battery of the overseas contingent at the armoury, last evening, was a very successful affair, and was thoroughly enjoyed. The Citizens' band was present and rendered fine selections. From the number of local nurses it is understood that several have already offered their services for Red Cross work.

The King street bridge, over the Gananogue river has been closed to traffic, all communication with the West war being over the swing bridge. The town is having new walks laid on the bridge and are strengthening the supports on either bank of the river. The Gananogue Water Power company while the water is shut back at the Marble Rock dam, is putting in a cement wall on the side of the canal next to the shovel works of the Ontario Steel Products company, where there has for some time past, been a bad leakage that threatened damage to the foundation of the building.

No Socialists Executed London, Aug. 26.—A Berlin despatch to the Cologne Gazette, under date of August 17th a copy of which has been received here, says the result of the trial of Liebknecht, the socialist leader, was shot because he declined to do military service, is untrue, and that Liebknecht at the same time was living in Berlin undisturbed. The paper says that neither Rosa Luxemburg nor any other socialist had been shot or interned with.
