The Light That Failed

Kipling's pathetic tale of the artist who lost his sight teaches a moral. "The eyes are bread winners; take care of them!" "Trust no eyes only to a reputable optometrist of known ability."

We are Optical Specialists. We do nothing but examine eyes and fit the proper glasses. Our ability to correct defects of vision is the reason for our being in optica exclusively to-day.

DR. THIRD GETS BACK

HAD HARD WORK GETTING OUT OF GERMANY.

A Ticket Agent Demanded $15 as a Tip—Germany Prepared for War Before It Was Declared.

"The British people are determined that there will be but one end to the present war," was the statement of Dr. James Third, who returned to Kingston from the seat of war on Monday afternoon. The Kingston party, composed of Dr. Third, Mrs. Third, Reginald Third, and Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Minnes, arrived in the city on Monday afternoon, from Montreal, after being on the ocean since August 22nd.

Dr. Third and his son were in Berlin on August 2nd, two days before the great war was declared by Germany against Britain. When speaking to a Whig reporter on Monday afternoon, Dr. Third stated that the experiences which he and his son went through will never be forgotten.

"I was very fortunate to get out of Berlin when I did," was the statement of the doctor. "Although war was not declared until August 4th, the German nation was ready long before the declaration was made. They were all mobilized and were moving some days before war was declared."

Although the doctor and his son had to hurry out of the capital of Germany, they lost no luggage. While making the trip from Berlin to Cologne, the doctor stated that he passed no less than eight or ten troop trains on their way to the Belgian frontier. He also noticed one hundred cars loaded with about one thousand cannon.

"When we arrived at the Belgian frontier we were ordered to get off our train and then we walked for a distance of about a mile and a half. All the way along we marched between lines of soldiers who were on duty. A number of the passengers on the train who had a large quantity of luggage were compelled to throw it away."

The eruption in Germany is awful, the doctor declared. He stated that on one occasion he was called upon to give an agent a tip of $15 before he would sell him a railway ticket.

Dr. Third has in his possession a railroad ticket which he purchased but was unable to use.

On one occasion he evidently thought that he might be forced to fight for Germany but after the German officer asked the doctor his age he found out that he was too old and that the war was too young, and he let them alone.

The trip from Glasgow to Montreal was one to be long remembered. It had been expected that they would have left for home about two weeks ago but the steamer on which their passage had been secured was taken over by the British government for the purpose of moving troops. After trying for some days the party was able to secure passage on the steamer Scandinavian. The trip was slow and stormy.

Mr. and Mrs. Minnes had intended to visit Berlin and Paris but they were advised of the war and called off the trip.

Mr. Minnes, when speaking to the Whig stated that he was glad to be back in Kingston. While in England he had an opportunity to see the men of Britain preparing for the great war. The British are confident of victory and are enlisting in thousands. Mr. Minnes spoke of seeing the men drilling in parks all over England. Mr. and Mrs. Minnes left Kingston on July 15th. They joined Mrs. Third in London.

MYSTERIOUS "HOLD-UP" CASE.

Man Accosted at Corner of Union and Beverley Streets.

A mysterious hold-up case was reported to the Whig on Monday afternoon.

It appears that while one of the city mail collectors was about to take the mail out of the street box at the corner of Union and Beverley street on Saturday night, he was accosted by a young man, a stranger to him, who asked to be allowed to ride in the mail wagon with him, stating that he had been held up by a man at that corner and was afraid that the man would do him harm.

Crawford-Chart Wedding.

A pretty wedding was solemnized in St. George's cathedral on Wednesday, August 25th, when Edith Chart, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Chart, Russell street, was united in marriage to Robert J. Crawford, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Crawford, Barrack street. The bride was attired in white net over-silk with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of white roses. She was assisted by her sister, Miss Nellie Chart in white embroidery dress and hat to match. The groom was assisted by his brother, George Crawford. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful gold pin, to the bridesmaid a gold pin and to the groomsmen a gold tie pin.

MARRIAGE AT PORTSMOUTH.

The Freeman-McGeen Nuptials on Monday Morning.

At 6.30 o'clock Monday morning, a pretty wedding took place in the Church of the Good Shepherd, Portsmouth, Rev. Father Macdonald officiating. The principals were May Agnes McGeen, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. McGeen, of Portsmouth, and Charles Freeman, second son of Mr. and Mrs. James Freeman, of Cobourg. The bride, wearing a dress of heavily embroidered marquisette, trimmed with Irish crochet trimmings, was given away by her father. Her hat was beautiful black tulle, trimmed with tango roses and black velvet ribbon.

The bridesmaid was Miss Sarah McIlwain, who wore a dress of heavily embroidered marquisette, with Irish crochet trimmings, and a black lace hat trimmed with tango roses and velvet ribbon.

The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl ring and to the bridesmaid and groomsmen, each a signet ring.

After the ceremony the wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents.

Many beautiful presents were received by the happy couple, testifying to the high esteem in which they are held. Steacy and Steacy sent linen and the choir and the Church of the Good Shepherd sent a beautiful dining-room chair. Other presents were received from Cuba, Brockville, England and California.

The Late James Dennison.

On Monday morning, at 8.15 o'clock, the death occurred of James Dennison, at his home in Portsmouth. He had been ailing for about a week, but his condition was not thought serious. For years he was master carpenter at Rockwood hospital. He was a member of Cataract Lodge, No. 19, I.O.O.F. He is survived by his widow, four sons, William, of Gananoque; Frederick, Edwin and Norman, at home, and one daughter, Mrs. A. Bright, of Toronto; also one sister, Mrs. A. Orser, of South Bend, Ind. The funeral will be held on Wednesday afternoon, to Cataract cemetery. Rev. John Dawson will officiate at the service.

Her Four Sons Volunteer.

Mrs. J. Murray, a widow on Montreal street has four sons and three sons-in-law who have gone to the war. One son is from Toronto, one from Montreal and two are here in the volunteers. Two sons-in-law are from here and one has gone from the old country. Two sons saw service in the South African war and their father served twenty-five years in the English army.

SANG GERMAN SONGS.

While the train, on which the Germans were being brought to Kingston from Montreal Saturday night, was coming in from the outer station some of the prisoners started singing German songs but were quieted down by the guards. One old man was very much excited over the matter and declared that if he were given a chance he would have "trimmed" the Germans.
