SHOULD BE ASHAMED

YOUNG MEN WHO ARE OUT OF EMPLOYMENT

Should Join the 14th Regiment and Drill, Instead of Idling About the Streets.

Major H. J. Dawson, officer commanding the 14th Regiment, when addressing the men of that corps on parade on Tuesday evening at the armories, stated that young men of the city who are out of work and persist in hanging around the streets of Kingston should blush with shame.

The commanding officer believes that this is a time when every young man in Kingston who is out of work should come forward and get the most military training as no person knows when the Canadian regiments might be called out as a body to defend the shores of Canada.

Major Dawson urged every officer, non-commissioned officer and man to urge their friends to join the ranks of the regiment.

The next parade of the regiment will be held on Monday evening, September 14th, with two bands in attendance. It is altogether likely that a street parade will be held on that evening.

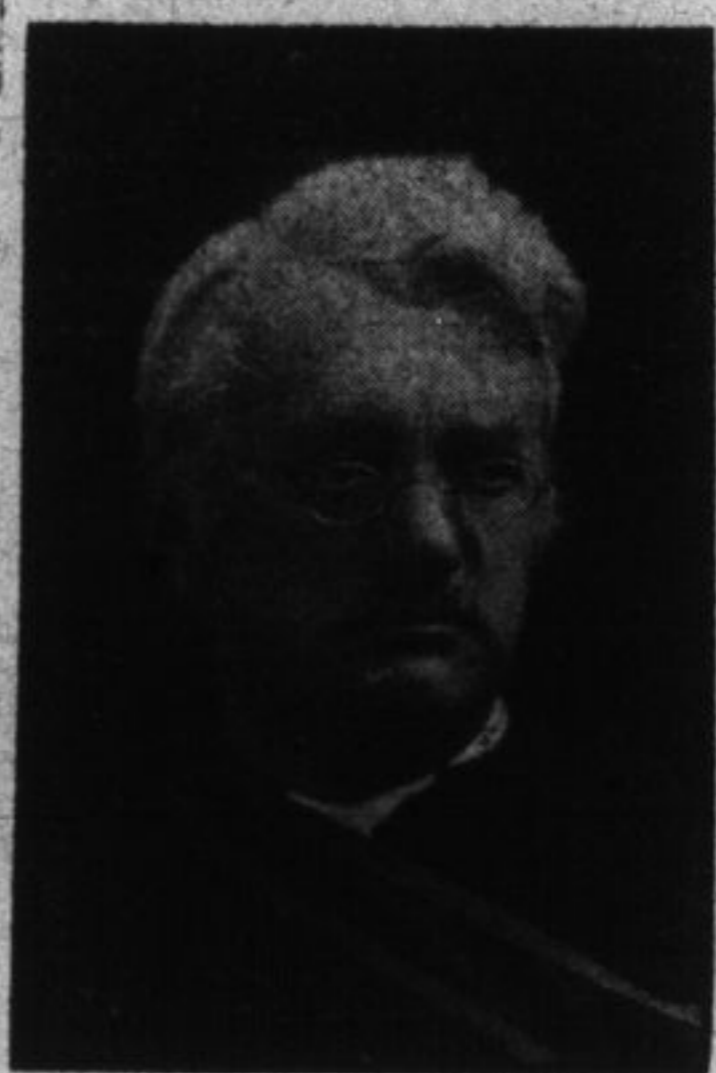

Last evening the men of the regiment who paraded to the armories were divided into two companies and were drilled by six of the officers under the direction of Major W. Y. Mills.

KINGSTON PRESBYTERY

Met in Belleville on Tuesday—Dr. Jordan Re-elected Moderator.

Rev. Dr. Jordan, moderator, presided at the meeting of the Kingston Presbytery held in John Street church, Belleville on Tuesday.

A call to Rev. Mr. Graham Ma-

REV. W. G. JORDAN.
Re-elected moderator of Kingston Presbytery.

doc from Markham and Cedar Grove, Toronto Presbytery was presented by Rev. Frank Rae, Unionville, and Messrs. Morrison and Morrison elders. After Mr. McIntosh and Mr. Cross, Madoc, had spoken of the strong desire of Madoc congregation to retain Mr. Graham's services the call was placed in the hands of Mr. Graham who intimated acceptance. Mr. McCurtie was appointed to declare the pulpit vacant on Sunday, 7th inst. Dr. Jordan and Rev. Mr. Kerr were appointed to interview the congregation of Melrose and to deal with the matters there, arising from the resignation of Mr. Cameron.

Principal Ross reported that Queen's Theological board had appointed Dr. Wallace associate professor of Hebrew and the Presbytery left the arrangement for the induction in the hands of Principal Ross, Dr. Jordan and the chairman of the Theological Board.

Rev. J. W. McIntosh, in introducing Rev. Dr. Herridge, moderator of the General Assembly, and Dr. A. S. Grant, secretary of the Finance Board, made a report as canvasser of the Presbytery committee on systematic giving, which was declared by Drs. Herridge and Grant to be the best they had ever heard.

Drs. Herridge and Grant gave most inspiring addresses on the work of the church.

Rev. Mr. Gracey gave a detailed report on home missions and augmented charges in the Presbytery.

Representatives from Foxboro and West Huntingdon asked that Rev. Mr. Hall, of Strling be appointed interim moderator and this was agreed to. A committee was appointed to investigate into conditions re the church property at Wellbridge.

Prof. J. Matheson's report as treasurer of the Presbytery showed a balance on hand of $342.

Rev. J. A. Shaver reported for V. P. S. and S. S. work and Rev. Mr. Dowling for the Summer School question, a committee being formed to look more particularly into the subject of Mr. Dowling's report.

Rev. Dr. MacGillivray, Kingston was nominated for moderator of synod and Rev. Mr. Dowling and Mr. Belter for committee on bills and overtures.

Rev. Dr. Jordan was unanimously re-elected moderator. This practically concluded the business of Presbytery but in the evening two magnificent addresses were delivered by Drs. Herridge and Grant, at a mass meeting in John Street church.

The next meeting of Presbytery will be held in Kingston in December.

HACKETT AT THE GRAND

He Gave a Good Impersonation of "Othello."

His fame and popularity of James K. Hackett was amply salient to draw another large and enthusiastic audience at the Grand Opera House last evening. Shakespeare's "Othello" was again presented, and gave opportunity to Mr. Hackett to display his unusual genius as a romantic character artist. His work on Monday evening was a revelation and a delight to the theatregoers, and last night added to the delight. Lovers of Shakespeare enjoyed the production to the full. The acting of the play, from an artistic and historic point of view, was beyond criticism, while Mr. Hackett and his strong company gave an interpretation of the play that merits genuine admiration. The second performance was perhaps a little more finished—if such could be—and shows that in adopting a Shakespearean role, Mr. Hackett has assumed a task for which he is admirably fitted. "Othello" will without doubt be a splendid success, whenever presented. Kingstonians were indeed fortunate to see the two initial performances of the new play produced here, and they will not soon forget the triumph achieved in both instances.

George Arlis in Diraehl.

George Arlis, in Louis N. Parker's comedy, "Diraehl," under the management of the Liebler company, is the attraction at the Grand on Thursday, Sept. 10th.

Mr. Parker shows Diraehl at a period when he is no more the spectacular young Jew, the author of romantic novels and the wearer of startling waistcoats, but an artistic statesman, whose warmth of Oriental imagination is concentrated on making his country a world power. The production is elaborate scenically, and the costumes of the period, the early 70's, lend the play attractive pictorial qualities. Mr. Arlis' company includes Ermita Lascelles, Margaret Dale, Florence Arlis, Lelia Kepton, Lilla Caspelli, Charles Harbury, Arthur Eldred, Henry Carvill, Vincent Sternroyd, Dudley Digges, and others.

Rise and Fall of Napoleon.

Speaking of the photoplay, "The Rise and Fall of Napoleon," which will be seen at the Grand on Friday and Saturday, Sept. 11th and 12th, afternoon and evenings, an Ottawa paper says:

"A brilliant portrayal in motion pictures of the leading events in the life of Napoleon Bonaparte was given at the Russell theatre last night before a large and distinguished number of spectators. These pictures will be shown every afternoon and evening of this week. The production of this monstrous film, which portrays the thrilling events and battles connected with the reign of Napoleon, marks a new era for the efficiency of modern motion pictures."

WORK AT THE Y.M.C.A.

Programme Planned For the Fall and Winter Months.

The Y.M.C.A. Board of Directors held their first fall meeting, Tuesday night. A goodly number were present and the plans for the coming fall and winter season were enthusiastically discussed. New chairmen were appointed for the religious work, finance, boys' work and property committee. These chairmen will immediately pick committees and each will have some definite work shaped out in the general program which the board are considering.

Among the special features being planned for the coming season, the religious work committee will consider a meeting for young men and especially strangers in the city to be held in the association parlor on Sunday evenings after church. An evangelistic meeting to be held at least once a month on Sunday afternoon, in a downtown theatre, with strong speakers in attendance.

The popular Monday evening bible class will likely be another feature in the religious work program. T. F. Best, late of the Hamilton as association, who is now giving his entire time to the promotion of personal evangelism, will be invited to spend several days or a week with whatever evangelistic or yoke fellows' band that may be formed for this splendid kind of association service.

The physical work schedule will again be a full one this year, a special effort being made to organize senior and employed boys' leaders' corps. It is expected that the Sunday School league will again be in the schedule, and on the same nights are being reserved for their program.

The boys' work committee under the chairmanship of Frank Kinneer will again follow the group plan of organization. The committees are arranging a meeting to plan the "Father and Son Banquet," which formally opens the boys' department for the fall. The Ladies' Auxiliary will be asked to co-operate in making the affair a success.

The Young Men's Cabinet are arranging their fall meetings and their committees will shortly announce their program of activities.

There has been a report circulated by someone, that during the last cadet camp at Barriefield, exorbitant prices were charged for refreshments at the Y.M.C.A. tent. Not only was this incorrect but as the local association was supposed by some to have been handling the work, when in reality the National Council of the Y.M.C.A. was in charge. The directors of the local institution were anxious to correct the impression and an investigation was conducted. It was found that at the refreshment tent orangeade sold two glasses for five cents and ice cream five cents a dish. This could hardly be called exorbitant.
