Practical Prescription
Against Stomach Acidity Nine-tenths of all cases of stomach trouble nowadays are caused by too much acid. In the beginning the stomach itself is not diseased but if this acid condition is allowed to continue the acid is very likely to eat into the stomach walls and produce stomach ulcers which may require a radical surgical operation necessary even to prolong life. Therefore an "acid stomach" is really a dangerous condition and should be treated seriously. It is utterly useless to take peptic and ordinary stomach tablets. The excess acid or stomach hyperacidity must be neutralized by the administration of an efficient antacid. For this purpose the best remedy is bicarbonate of soda taken in teaspoonful doses in a fourth of a glass of water after each meal. Large quantities may be used if necessary as it is absolutely harmless. Be sure to ask your druggist for the bicarbonate of soda as other forms of soda make an effective mouth wash but they have not the same action on the stomach as the bicarbonate.

THE SPORT REVIEW
THE MCGILL RUGBY TEAM
STARTS PRACTICE.
 The McGill Students Want All Branches of Intercollegiate Athletics to Be Continued This Season as Usual.
 The initial practice of the McGill Intercollegiate rugby champions will be held this afternoon, with Coach Frank Shaughnessy in charge.
 Football is crowding on the basis of baseball, but the candidate must content themselves, for a time with much hard work and mighty little calcium.
 Metcalfe, who played on the line and in the scrimmage for Toronto Capitals last season, will not be available this fall, as he is at Valcartier with the first Canadian contingent.
 He is a son of J. H. Metcalfe, Kingston.
 Unless Walter Johnson gets on a winning streak in short order, the "fireball" king may be lucky to finish the season with better than a .500 mark.
 Johnstone, Williams, Boucher and Brophy look like the best available for the Ottawa back line. Davie Mc-Cann, if he consents to play, will again be used as a flying wing.
 Everybody wants to see McGraw's New York Giants get walloped. The fans generally don't care very much who does it as long as its done. This is the penalty too much success brings.
 W. E. G. ("Glad") Murphy is captain of the football team for this season. Murphy has been with the Scullers for a number of seasons, and has had plenty of experience in senior company. Murphy is formerly of Kingston.
 At a special meeting of the McGill Student's Council, it was decided to write the Canadian Intercollegiate association recommending the continuance of all branches of sport, despite the war.

Frank Shaughnessy, manager of the Ottawa ball club, received a wire from a class club in the Western States asking him to name his own price to manage the club next season.
 Shaughnessy replied that there was nothing doing.
 The Dorval park jockey club has written the minister of militia offering to give one day's proceeds taken at the race track toward the Canadian Patriotic fund. The condition is attached, however, that the minister of justice must consent to extend the number of days of the racing season for the occasion from seven to eight.
 Montreal Star:—Although the Nationals had the most wonderful season any local senior lacrosse club has ever had, winning all their matches but one, they lost between three and four thousand dollars. Their salaries cost $10,000, their trips to Toronto $2,500. They, with equipment and general expenditures, amounted to $14,500. Against that their receipts upon one occasion were as low as $125.
 The Alberta rugby union has decided not to play a schedule of games this season. The football outlook in Regina is not bright. The defection of the club in that city prompted the action of the union. Coach Fred Ritter, a former Princeton player, has joined the graduate coaching staff at the New Jersey university. The Manitoba union will now be in a position to send down its annual travel to take the Dominion championship to the prairies without the formality of beating the Alberta champions in the semi-finals.

RUSSIAN ADMIRE INTREPIDITY OF HUNGARIAN CAVALRY.
 Rome, Sept. 15.—A despatch received here from Petrograd expresses admiration for the intrepidity of the Hungarian cavalry. It says their magnificent charges facilitated the crossing of the Sava, Vistula and Du-naster rivers of those of the Austrians who arrived defeat at the hands of the Russians. Praise is given also to the Russian aviation corps, which, it is declared, flew out over the battle lines and located important Austrian contingents in time to prevent their escape.
 Don't consider a man absolutely worthless so long as he carries life insurance.
 The only man who can afford to look like thirty cents is the man who has about thirty millions.

SKIN TROUBLE
on the Scalp
 Skin Dried and Cracked and Hair Fell Out—Cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment.
 Eczema is annoying and distressing at any time, but doubly so when it gets into the scalp and causes the hair to fall out. Here is a grateful letter from a lady who was cured by using Dr. Chase's Ointment.
 Mrs. Hector Currie, Tobermory, Ont., writes: "I was cured of a disagreeable skin disease of the scalp by using Dr. Chase's Ointment. The trouble started with itching and pain in the scalp, the skin would get dry and crack, and at times would bleed, and the hair would fall out. I tried three doctors without benefit, and suffered for three years. Reading in the Almanac about Dr. Chase's Ointment, I began its use, and am now completely cured. The hair has grown again, and I am as well as I ever was. You are at liberty to use this letter, for I am glad to recommend an excellent treatment." Dr. Chase's Ointment has no rival than having him break out.

EMPERESS HAS NO COOKS.
 No Dinner for Guest Because Kitchen Was Empty.
 London, Sept. 15.—Lord Portsmouth recently visited the French Empress Eugenie at her home in Hampshire. He found the illustrious lady full of courage and devotion to the French cause. In explaining her failure to treat her guest as she would have desired, the Empress said: "I cannot give you dinner, because most of the men of my kitchen have gone to war."
 Conscience makes cowards of us all, but don't jump to the conclusion that the brave man has no conscience.
 Even when marriage is a lottery it may develop into a habit.
 When a woman marries she has to break a man in, but that is better than having him break out.

WOUNDED FRENCHMAN TELLS
OF GERMANY'S AWFUL LOSS
 The Order That There Would Be No More Retreating Gladly of the British and French.
 Dieppe, Sept. 15.—(Dispatch to the London Standard)—Many of those wounded in the week's battles arrived here this morning. So fresh were they from the field that the blood was still wet on their faces.
 Some of them had been wounded on Monday and others on Wednesday.
 Almost without exception shell fire had done execution. By favor I was allowed to visit several wards in the various hospitals and heard a great many versions of the fighting of the last few days.
 One non-commissioned officer who had a splinter of shell as big as a thumb nail in his calf, gave a vivid account of his experiences:
 "The army with which we were engaged is believed to be that commanded by the Crown Prince. When I was wounded it seemed to be lost.
 It was defending itself almost entirely with howitzers firing from strongly entrenched positions eight or ten miles away. It was surrounded and cut off and was summoned to surrender, but replied that as long as it had ammunition it would fight.
 It will not have much more by Monday night.
 "Those howitzer shells are enormous, and explode only on falling, digging a hole a yard deep and splintering into hundreds of pieces, killing and wounding everybody near where they fall, but not killing very far.
 Their other shells do comparatively little damage, and they were too short of cartridges to do much rifle firing. Their aeroplane service was perfect. They were always hovering over us, out of range, and we were certain within an hour to get howitzer shells. Wherever we moved it was at their expense.
 "We did terrific execution with our 75-millimeter field artillery. I counted in one trench 185 dead and many of them just as if in the act of firing or loading. Some of the ground occupied by the enemy was this morning, I believe one of every two yards—and you might have jumped for a mile on bodies without ever putting a foot to the ground. They buried the dead when they had time, anyhow, piling five or twenty in a shallow pit, and often wounded among them.
 "I had been fighting, almost without stopping, ever since Compiègne.
 For ten days we had no time to eat.
 There were plenty of provisions of every kind, but we tasted meat only once, because there was no time in which to cook. Apples were what we ate with, after bread. I had not smoked for a week, either, nor anybody else till yesterday.
 "We did not mind, however, because we knew we were winning.
 The Germans, on the contrary, were fighting with the knowledge that they were losing. If we had not been sure we were coming out on top, some of it makes all the difference gone on. It makes all the difference.
 The German, after all, are men and soldiers like ourselves, and scores of their wounded were sick at heart and cursed the Kaiser for the war.
 At Reims we saw upon twenty-seven in a farm house and expected a hot reception; but they threw down their rifles and said: "Shoot us if you like; but we have had enough of this butchery." It is real butchery, not when either our artillery or their big guns get to work." Others told me that what had a worse effect almost than the hellish shell fire was the perpetual retreat, day after day, without being beaten or forced, being allowed to advance or charge.
 "We were pretty well demoralized," said one, "by this everlasting

PARIS IS VERY JOYFUL
AS SPOILS OF WAR POUR IN TO
THE CITY.
 Twenty-One Full Trains of Booty Arrive Representing Only Half Total From Battle of Marne.
 Paris, Sept. 16.—Since Saturday, besides a continuous stream of taxis, motor wagons private automobiles, and properly equipped motor ambulances, conveying wounded to the hospitals, Parisians have witnessed the continuous arrival of German war material captured at the battle of Marne. Twenty-one full trains of such booty already have reached Paris, and this is said to represent barely half the total amount.
 It is estimated that sixty cannon, thirty mitrailleurs, forty ammunition wagons, and three aeroplanes have already arrived, while as these lines are written there rises from the nearby Place de l'Opera exultant roar from the crowd who for the last two hours have been awaiting the passing of one of the numerous batches of German prisoners, travers-ing the city on their way to the western concentration camps.
 An amusing incident of the German rout comes from a tourist agency, where great delight is expressed at a recapture of the rubber-neck wagon which was accustomed throughout the summer to carry overseas visitors around the city to the Bois de Boulogne and race courses. Requisitioned for the transport of troops, its driver—a familiar figure in the Place de l'Opera, who was nicknamed "Sant Kilow," because he is barely five-foot tall—managed to avoid capture when the machine was seized by Germans near Compiègne. Since then he has accompanied the French forces very discreetly, but was overjoyed on Friday to discover that his beloved wagon had been abandoned near Meaux. It is still intact, though battered and riddled by bullets.
 A Zanzibar pensioner of the British government called on the American embassy and announced that he was down to his last four dollars, no recent remittances having reached him on account of the war. He asked the ambassador to telegraph "Sir Edward Grey" how about it?" which the ambassador did.

SHOULD OBSERVE RULES.
 Government Points To Need of Clause in Bills of Lading.
 Ottawa, Sept. 16.—A statement was issued by the government calling the attention of shippers to the necessity for the clause inserted in the war risks insurance bills of lad-ing requiring vessel owners to meet all regulations of the British government as to sailings and ports of call. Some objection has been raised by shippers against such a provision.
 The government explains that the requirements as to calling at a British port for instructions and advice are necessary for the security of the cargo equally with that of the ship. The official statement adds:
 "The government desires that shippers should take particular notice of this explanation, and as their interests are safeguarded and not sacrificed by such a clause it is hoped there will be no further objection to its insertion."
 William Gall, milk inspector, Ingersoll, stricken with hemorrhage of the brain, died without regaining consciousness.
 H. P. Ross, customs collector at Penetanguishene, died on Monday.
 He was a liberal and a Presbyterian minister. He was 65 years of age, and had 25,000 volts of electricity turned through him, but he may recover.
 The Valcartier camp post office is now doing a business that averages $5,000 per day, in money orders, stamps, etc.

THE Y. M. C. A. AT VALCARTIER
 This Organization Is Doing Splendid Work There.
 At Valcartier the Canadian National Council of Young Men's Christian associations is working for the welfare, comfort and convenience of the Canadian volunteers. Its equipment consists at present of three large tents, and it is considering the feasibility of duplicating this. Ten thousand letters and five thousand envelopes daily are being distributed to the men gratis; the average daily sale of postage stamps is over $600; picture postcards, largely military and patriotic are sold, tables, pens and ink are provided.
 This department alone takes the time of three men.
 "The dry canteen" supplements the other rations. Here at moderate cost are provided biscuits, cakes, pies, oranges, bananas, ice-cream, orangeade, etc. This is a popular place, and it is not uncommon to see the men lined up four or five deep waiting to be served. Especially after a hard drill do the men enjoy a "snack." For those disposed to indulge in such recreation, and there are many, balls and bats, foot-balls and quoits are provided, while for those less strenuously inclined checkers, chess and dominoes are at hand; for those with musical tastes there is the piano, which is much used. Magazines and other wholesome literature is distributed—30, 000 pieces the first two days. Moving-pictures are shown outdoors or in the tent, the General Film Exchange in Montreal furnishing without charge two reels daily.
 Song services and gospel meetings, largely attended, are held "down the lines", around a camp-fire or in one of the tents. At the campfire meetings, as many crowd around as can hear and all join heartily in the singing of the old well-known hymns. A special hymn and song book (an edition of 25,000), is being prepared to give the men as they leave for the front. There are now thirty association men engaged in this work at Valcartier. Associations are releasing their secretaries, and several churches have loaned their pastors for this service.

Reformed.
 Mr. Toad (nervously)—Are you sure I am quite safe in your presence, Mr.
 Snake?
 Mr. Snake—Most assuredly. Since the prohibition wave has struck these parts I never touch hops in any form.
 Whistling girls never crow about it.
 It is not only a woman's privilege to change her mind, but her name as well.
