vian frontier the Croatian regiments suffered enormous losses. Around Lemberg, the capital of Galicia the Austrian infantry sustained also terrible losses because the artillery was caught in the marshes. It is also asserted here that the Austrian artillery decimated three of their own infantry regiments, whom they mistook for Russians because of a similarity in the RESPECTABLE WOMAN WOULD uniforms worn by both armies. An army order just issued forbids Austrian troops to fire upon aeroplanes for the reason that it is impossible to distinguish between their own and the enemy's aviators. An unexpected difficulty has arisen in connection with the feeding of the soldiers in the field. The smoke from the field kitchens betrays the on locations of the troops, and it is probable that the system of food supply will be changed. a dian Patriotic Fund. There was a meeting of the executive committee of the Canadian Patriotic Fund yesterday afternoon.

Among other things decided was the following : To have a public meeting on Monday evening in the city hall, to be addressed by Sir William Mulock and Dr. Bland if their presence can be secured. This meeting is to be of distinctly military character, and to that end all the officers and cadets of the Royal Military Coffege, the officer commanding in this district, the ofticers and men of the 14th P.W.O. Rifles, not on duty, will be invited to attend. The bands of the city will also be invited to play to the city hall and on the market square prior to the opening of the meeting. The workers will assemble elsewhere, probably at the Frontenac hotel, and organize for the campaign, which begins on Tuesday morning. Under the direction of Messrs. C. A Macpherson and J. H. Birkett a staff of nearly a dozen persons have been preparing the lists and cards for H. McIlrov, of Seeley's Bay, was use by the canvassers,
