

A FURTHER ADVANCE OF THE RUSSIAN FORCES

After a Day's Bombardment of Dubiecko.

AUSTRIANS RETREATED

RUSSIANS CAPTURED MANY PRISONERS AND GUNS.

Przemyl Under Attack From Three Directions—Austrians Burned Jaroslaw—Emperor Franz Josef Again Reported Dead.

Petrograd, Sept. 21.—Further advance of the Russian troops was announced by the war office to-day. A daring night attack, the culmination of a day's bombardment, overwhelmed the Austrians at Dubiecko, on the San, and the Russian forces captured thousands of prisoners and a score of guns, together with large quantities of supplies, left behind by the Austrians' retreat. Przemyl is now under attack from three directions, the war office statement declared. "The bombardment is continuing with our forces steadily advancing on the outer entrenchments. The retreating Austrian forces burned Jaroslaw before their evacuation."

Austrian Emperor "Dead Again."

London, Sept. 21.—The report that Emperor Franz Josef of Austria is dead was revived to-day in a despatch to the Chronicle from Geneva. The despatch quotes a high official returning to Louvain from Vienna as stating that the emperor died a week ago, but the news was suppressed to avoid a revolution.

The Losses At Sea.

New York, Sept. 21.—Forty warships have either been destroyed, badly damaged or otherwise lost to European powers since war began. Those are known losses as reported in belligerent countries. The sinking of the German surveying ship Mowe, by the British cruiser Pegasus, announced in London without date, suggests that other warship disasters may be concealed. The naval casualties show that France alone, of the great powers, has not suffered at sea. The losses of other countries are: Germany, 23; Great Britain, 10; Austria, 5; Russia, 2; Japan, 1.

Entered A Protest.

Bordeaux, Sept. 21.—President Poincare to-day directed a formal protest to the neutral powers against the destruction of the historic cathedral of Rheims by the German artillery. The protest of the French government states: "The German troops, without military necessity, but for the sole pleasure of destroying, subjected the Rheims cathedral to a systematic and furious bombardment. The famous Basilica is now a mass of ruins." The government denounces the "revolting act of vandalism," and declares it would arouse the indignation of the world.

War Tidings.

The British Admiralty announces the loss of the submarine AE 1, belonging to the Australian fleet. Germans in the Kiau-Chau district report that an aeroplane successfully dropped bombs on the Japanese troops north of Ping-Tu, killing 50 and wounding 30 others. One side of the Austrian dreadnought Viribus Unitis was badly damaged in a fight in the Adriatic, but the vessel escaped her pursuers. A report received in Rome from the Austro-Hungarian frontier says that 300,000 Austrian troops are watching the Italian border. Garrison has been left with only a garrison of 20,000 men. "A solid wall of warships" is thrown across the northern part of the North Sea according to the captain of a British trawler who has just arrived at London from Iceland. The skipper said it was "absolutely impossible for any foe to break through undetected," so constant and thorough was the patrol to the north.

Possibilities of Roumania entering the European conflict on the side of Russia are reported in brief official advices from neutral observers in Bucharest. No reasons were given for the probable action of Roumania. Bulgaria, likewise, is reported showing strong sympathies for Russia.

Gen. Dankls Austrian force in Galicia has been entirely cut off and full surrender is expected shortly. Servian troops ambushed and defeated a large force of Austrians. Japanese land forces have taken some of the outer defences of Kiau Chow.

The entire city of Rheims has been reduced to ashes following German bombardment. The Russian Baltic Fleet of twenty units is cruising off the Dardanelles to attack the Turkish squadron if necessary.

Official Paris report says German crown princes' army retreated for six miles. Japanese troops landed at Iao Shan bay, twenty miles across the Isthmus from Kiau-Chau.

A Petrograd despatch says that Saxony cavalry sent from France has suffered severely near Sandomir, Russian Poland.

Replying to Switzerland's neutrality declaration, France, Germany and Austria affirmed their intentions to respect its neutrality.

The Russian legation at Antwerp announces that the German offensive in East Prussia is checked. The Russians captured German artillery sent from Breslau.

Official announcement Sunday afternoon states that slight advances were made by the allies, who captured many prisoners and standards.

The bulk of the allies remained in the trenches all Sunday, while their artillery performed wonderful feats against the German masked batteries.

The fifth day of the battle of Aisne opened on Monday, with little advantage to either side but with terrible casualties.

The British admiralty announces that the auxiliary cruiser Germania sank the German auxiliary at Cape Trafalgar, off South America. The German cruiser Koensigsdorff disabled the British cruiser Pegasus, with heavy British losses, in Zanzibar Bay. The German chancellor is at Geneva and is reported to be sounding the foreign ambassadors regarding peace.

The name of Mother Adrienne, head of the Dames du Sacre Coeur, Paris, who formerly was Adrienne Babel, appears in a long list of names of those killed on the battlefield. She was struck by a bullet from a German machine gun as she was raising the head of a wounded soldier.

Discussed C.M.B.A. Rates.

A mass meeting of the Kingston members of the C.M.B.A. was held on Sunday afternoon, when the proposed new rates were under discussion. There is a proposition to make quite an increase in the rates, and it is being strongly objected to.

The Whig was informed on Monday morning that the increase was four times the present amount and that it would mean that a great many of the members would have to drop out. From all that can be learned there is general dissatisfaction over the increase. No definite action was taken as a result of the meeting, but another meeting will be held in the course of a week or so.

NEURALGIA SETTLED IN HER LUNGS

No Relief From The Pain Until She Took "Fruit-a-tives"

CAMPBELLVILLE, ONT., MAY 5th, 1913. "I cannot speak too highly of 'Fruit-a-tives'. For over thirty years, I have suffered from chronic Neuralgia and Constipation, experiencing untold agony. The Neuralgia settled in my lungs and I took bottles of medicine without relief. The doctor told me I would not get better, but 'Fruit-a-tives' proved that the doctor was wrong by giving me quick relief and finally and completely curing me. 'I would not have my present health if it were not for 'Fruit-a-tives' and I am glad of this opportunity of giving you this letter about such a splendid remedy as 'Fruit-a-tives'."

VOICE OF THE PULPIT.

Services In Two of The Churches On Sunday.

The congregation of Calvary Congregational church had the pleasure of having the services of Rev. John Lyal, of Guelph, at both services on Sunday. In the evening he preached from Revelations 1, 5: "Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood." During the course of the service solos were rendered by Mr. Lyal and George Allen.

At Cooke's Church.

In the absence of Rev. J. W. McIntosh, pastor of Cooke's church, Rev. Dr. E. B. Ryckman and Lawson Chambers, M.A., of Queen's University, occupied the pulpit on Sunday. Dr. Ryckman preached at the morning service and Mr. Lawson in the evening. Arthur Stroezer sang "Crossing the bar" at the evening service, while Miss Ada Rosvear sang the solos in the anthems.

Sailors Fell Into Harbor.

Two men had an unexpected dip at the Kingston Shipbuilding wharf on Sunday morning. A schooner was preparing to set sail and these two sailors were adjusting the sails from the rope ladders. The rope upon which one was standing gave away and caused him to fall back into the water. The other sailor was also sent headlong into the water by the two coming into contact.

ROAD HOG OF EUROPE

IS WHAT DAVID LLOYD-GEORGE CALLS PRUSSIA.

British Chancellor of the Exchequer Makes Some Stirring Remarks About Germany's Disregard of Solenn Treaties.

London, Sept. 21.—Addressing 3,000 London Welshmen Saturday afternoon at a patriotic meeting designed to stimulate recruiting, David Lloyd George, chancellor of the exchequer, sarcastically referred to the new famous "scrap of paper" incident.

"They tell us that treaties are only scraps of paper," he said. "Let me ask you this: Have you any bank notes in your pockets? Well if you have, just remember that they are scraps of paper. You can go ahead and burn them as rags if you want to. They are worthless if I were not that the whole credit of the British empire stands behind them. Treaties are somewhat the same. They are the currencies of international statismanship. And yet Germany did not think them worth respect."

This reference was cheered wildly. Referring to the accusation that Great Britain had used the treaty providing for Belgian neutrality as a cunning cloak to veil her jealousy of a superior civilization, the chancellor said:

"Our answer was the action we took in 1870. In that case Prince Bismarck respected Prussia's treaty obligations, but it was to the interest of Prussia to break her treaty to-day, and she has done it to Prussia a treaty is just a scrap of paper.

"This doctrine of scrap of paper goes to the root of all public law. We are fighting against barbarism, and there is only one way of putting it right. If there are nations who say they will respect treaties only when it is to their interests to do so, we must make it to their interest to do so in the future."

Referring to the German excuses Mr. Lloyd George remarked: "A great nation ought to be ashamed of behaving like a fraudulent banker trying to escape his obligations."

Referring to the case of Serbia, the chancellor of the exchequer said that Emperor Nicholas had given Austria the only answer that became a man when he said, "I will tear your ranshackle empire limb from limb." "He is doing it," he added.

"Prussia," said Mr. Lloyd George, "is the 'road-hog of Europe.' Men, women, and children, and nations are ordered on of the way. Even Great Britain is ordered out of the way. If the old British spirit is still left in British hearts the bully will be torn from his seat. They thought we could not beat them. It will not be easy, it will be a long job. It will be terrible. But in the end we shall march through terror to triumph."

Appealing to Welshmen to join colors, the chancellor continued: "This struggle is a great war for the emancipation of Europe from the thraldom of the military casts which has thrown its shadow upon two generations of men and has plunged the world into a welter of blood."

GALICIANS AIDED RUSSIANS.

And Austrians Will Execute Them as Traitors.

Berlin, Sept. 21.—More than 1,200 Galician peasants and villagers, have been taken to Graz, Austria, there to await sentence of death as traitors. They furnished information to Russian commanders as regards the movements of Austrian troops. They sent up smoke signals, the varying density and color of the rising smoke indicating definite news to the Russian observers. Others volunteered their services as guides and as spies.

Some of the Galicians are women. The disaster to the Austrian armies is largely attributed to the ability of the enemy to obtain information.

Godfrey Happenings.

Godfrey, Sept. 19.—Mr. and Mrs. H. Giles, Medicine Hat, are here. W. K. Burleigh has returned. S. Harper and R. Judge have returned from Valcartier. Mrs. C. Lake and Mrs. M. J. Haney are at Mrs. C.
