Besides her husband she has two sons, Ernest and Oscar, all of Lyndhurst, and three daughters, Mrs. E. Sheffield, of Lyndhurst, and Annie and Constance, at home. The funeral took place from her residence to the Methodist church and the sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Curtis, of Newboro. The remains were buried in the family plot. The 15th and 16th were the days of the fair, and the weather was all that could be desired. The show of fancy work was grand and the horse show

When the Liver Gets Torpid

There is Nothing Like Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to Set it Right.

Mrs. C. L. Cook, 248 Tenth street, Brandon, Man., writes: "I have used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for the last four years for liver trouble, and can say that I have had great satisfaction and help from them. I find that I do not need any doctor if I use them when the liver gets torpid, and believe that they are exactly suited for my case. My husband has used them for kidney trouble with good results, and my daughter in Winnipeg has been helped a great deal by the use of these pills. We say we can't keep house without them, and have cheated the doctors here out of a good many visits. I think Dr. Chase's medicines are just the thing, and have recommended them to many people who have used them with good results."

By keeping the liver active and the bowels regular Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills prevent and cure such disorders as biliousness, constipation, chronic indigestion and headache. One pill a dose, 25c a box, 5 for $1; all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

SEPTEMBER BATTLES.

A Great Many Have Happened This Month.

September is notable in the year's calendar as a battle month. To-day is the sixth anniversary of that of Alma, when the combined British and French armies defeated the Russians in the early stage of the Crimean campaign. Fifty-seven years ago to-day the city of Delhi was taken by storm, and history records no more heroic and desperate forlorn hope than that of the handful of officers and men who blew in the Kashmir gate. On September 23rd, 1803, Arthur Wellesley, later famous as the Duke of Wellington, defeated the Marhattas at Assaye, victory almost as decisive as that of Plassey. In that battle he exhibited for the first time in war that capacity for offensive tactics which came to full maturity during the Peninsula war.

September 25th saw Lucknow relieved, and is also the date of the commencement of the siege of Paris in 1870. The battle of Busaco occurred on September 27th, 1813, and on the 28th, forty-four years ago, Strasbourg capitulated to the German investing army. The early part of the month is no less studded with important actions. Napoleon III. surrendered on the second of the month at Sedan, and on the same day, twenty-eight years later, Lord Kitchener wiped out the Mahdi at Omdurman. Malta became part of the empire on September 5th, 1800; Sebastopol was taken in 1855 on the eighth; Scotland mourned the fatal fall of Flodden on the ninth, 491 years ago, and on September 11th, 1709, Marlborough and Prince Eugene won at Malplaquet. Tel-el-Kabir was fought in 1882 on the 13th, and yesterday was the 55th anniversary of Pottiers' of special interest, too, at this time is the 82nd birthday of Lord Roberts, falling on the last day of the month.

SLAVERY FOR ITALY.

Clemenceau, of France, Makes Powerful Appeal to Italians.

Bordeaux, Sept. 22.-George Clemenceau's article on the war in the paper L'Hom Libre, is a powerful appeal for the entrance of Italy on the side of the allies without further hesitation. M. Clemenceau quotes the words of an Italian statesman in a personal conversation with the writer.

"We are Austria's allies," said this distinguished Italian, "because that is the only means to avoid being compelled to make war upon her."

M. Clemenceau adds: "Never did Italy have such an opportunity of settling her just claims. Admitting for the sake of argument that the pan-Germanism will finally triumph, what would be her lot? Slavery, or the honor of having fought to escape it. On the contrary, if she shows a martial spirit she will earn the right to claim her seat at the round table when the settling day comes."

Beer Cures Lockjaw.

Logansport, Ind., Sept. 22.-A case of lockjaw in a horse has been relieved by a diet of beer. When Dr. J. Burge, veterinarian, was called the animal was unable to eat, and Dr. Burge prescribed a beer diet.

For seventeen days beer was given the horse through a tube, and the jaws began to loosen. Recently they opened wide and the animal ate three ears of corn. Next day he ate regularly, as though nothing had happened. The horse is sixteen years old and has been in the family of George Ash, furniture manufacturer, for years.
