LIQUOR DEALER FINED

FOR SELLING TO A MAN ON THE "PROHIBITED LIST."

John Gordon was taxed $30 and costs in the Police Court on Wednesday Morning.

Found guilty of having sold liquor to George Jackson, a member of the "prohibited list," on September 23rd, John Gordon, liquor dealer, Wellington street, was on Wednesday morning fined $30 and costs by Magistrate Farrell, in the police court. Jackson swore that he secured the liquor from Mr. Gordon, and a woman called as a witness corroborated the evidence. The woman who gave evidence knew Jackson, and was in front of the store at the time he went in, and swore that she saw Gordon fill a flask for him and seen Jackson walk out of the store with it.

When arraigned, Gordon stated that he could not show any consideration for the chief prosecution, but he was guilty or not, as he did not know Jackson. T. J. Rigney appeared on behalf of Mr. Gordon, and after the evidence of the prosecution had been given, asked permission of the court to enter a plea of "guilty" for the accused.

Mr. Rigney stated that in making the plea he wished to point out that the serving of liquor to Jackson, by Gordon, had been an innocent mistake, and for this reason he asked for the consideration of the court.

C. R. Webster, who conducted the prosecution for C. W. Wright, the license inspector, stated that the prosecution had been put to a great deal of trouble in securing the evidence to prove the case, and on this account he did not believe that the court should show any consideration for the chief prosecution. The list had to come from the liquor shops. If the shop keepers would not assist the inspector then the full penalty should be imposed.

Mr. Rigney stated that the law had been framed to meet all cases, and that the suggestion made that there had been any attempt to make the task of the inspector harder in this case was unfounded.

Magistrate Farrell stated that while Mr. Gordon perhaps did not know Jackson the law made him responsible and it was up to him to know the men on the list. It was not necessary to prove the dealer's knowledge of the man. He did not think that Mr. Gordon took the steps he should have taken. Apparently, from the evidence, he had made no effort to find out who the man was to whom he sold the liquor.

The magistrate thereupon imposed a fine of $30 and costs of twenty days.

For being drunk while on the list Jackson was fined $10 and costs of twenty days.

WEDDED FIFTY YEARS.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sears of Wil-mur Celebrated.

A happy golden wedding anniversary was celebrated by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sears, who reside at Wilmur, Perth Road, on Sunday, September 27th. On this day the aged and highly regarded couple had assembled about them their sons and daughters, numbering seven. In addition to these were also other relatives.

In 1864 this amiable pair were united in wedlock by Rev. Maxwell Inglis, who at that time was pastor of the parish church at Perth Road. Mrs. Sears' maiden name was Miss Hannah Buck. By the union nine children were born, eight of whom are still living, and owing to illness one of the sons, Frederick, who lives in the west, was unable to be present. However, those that did assemble all paid their homage to the devoted parents, who had so carefully watched over them in their infancy and reared them to be noble men and women.

A sumptuous dinner was spread at the noon hour, and the following children, in company with their parents, sat down to it: Matthew, John and Mrs. LeKay McRinnis, of Perth Road; Benjamin, Mrs. H. Fowell and Warren Sears, of Fortsmith; Mrs. J. Allmark, of Kingston. From each of the children Mr. and Mrs. Sears received a ten-dollar gold piece. Other beautiful presents were bestowed upon the old couple from various points, as well as hearty congratulations from a large host of friends.

Mr. Sears is seventy-six years of age and Mrs. Sears has reached the age of seventy-one years.

LOST BY NARROW MARGIN.

Methodists Reject Admitting Women to Councils.

Ottawa, Sept. 30.—Though a special committee of the general conference of the Methodist church reported to the conference this afternoon in favor of giving to women the equal rights with laymen in the administrative affairs of the church it was voted down.

By the terms of the constitution governing the conference any matter effecting a radical change in the constitution requires a three-fourths vote of the total vote cast. A standing vote was taken first, and resulted 200 for and 102 against. Some of the delegates called for the yeas and nays, with the result that a slight change in the vote was noted; this time 194 yeas and 99 nays being recorded. The latter vote was of course a decisive one. Thus to have carried the report 220 votes were required.

This is the third time the general conference has turned down in the question of extending the same privileges to women as are enjoyed by the laymen of the church. Each time it has been lost by a narrow margin. The committee reported that it had voted solidly against the proposal to admit women into the ministry.

PREMIER NOT YET CHOSEN.

But Understood the Ministers Have Officially Agreed.

Toronto, Sept. 30.—To-day the official ceremony of swearing in the new lieutenant-governor, took place. The selection of a premier to succeed Sir James Whitney has not yet become an accomplished fact. A meeting of ministers was called at 11.30 a.m. With the exception of Hon. J. S. Hendrie, the newly-appointed lieutenant-governor and Hon. J. J. Foy, who is still ill, it was fully attended. The outcome of that meeting is still uncertain, and though it was comparatively brief, it is whispered that ministers were able to arrive at an understanding among themselves as to just which one would be called upon to form a new cabinet. Opinion seems to favor a speedy settlement of the matter by leaving it entirely in the hands of the ministers themselves, aided by Hon. Mr. Hendrie.

Observance of Yom-Kippur.

Yom-Kippur, the most widely observed of all Jewish holidays, commences at sundown on Tuesday and continues until sundown on Wednesday.

During the twenty-four hours interval, most of which is devoted to prayer, the orthodox Jew does not eat or drink. The custom of fasting is most universally observed even to the more radical of the reformed congregations.

In all Jewish houses of worship the services open with the singing of "Kol Nidre." By many this is said to be the most perfect of all sacred music.

A degree of solemnity attaches to the Yom-Kippur service far in excess of any other Jewish holiday. It is sometimes known as the Day of Atonement, when the sins of an entire year are expiated by a day of fasting and prayer.

Tea in Aid of Day Nursery.

A tea in aid of the Kingston day nursery—the Creche—will be held at the residence of Mrs. W. R. Givens, Maitland street, (near Yacht Club) on Thursday afternoon, Oct. 1st, from 4 to 6 o'clock. Everybody is asked to bring a pound of anything suitable for the Creche, and ten cents. Help a worthy cause along by your attendance and gift.

Will Not Go To Front.

A despatch received from Valcartier on Wednesday morning states that the No. 3 company army service corps in command of Major W. A. Mitchell, of Kingston, will not go to the front with the Canadian overseas contingent. No. 3 company and No. 4 company of Montreal will be kept in Canada for home service.
