THEY'RE HOME AT LAST TWO RUGBY LEAGUES

QUEEN'S COMPANY OF ENGINEERS HAS ARRIVED. Ordered into Artillery Park Barracks For the Present - Further Orders From Militia Department.

No. 5 company Field Engineers, of Queen's University arrived home from their tour of duty on Thursday morning at nine o'clock on a special train over the Canadian Pacific railroad. The train was made up at Quebec City on Wednesday afternoon, and pulled out of the station at four o'clock in the afternoon. The engineers left Valcartier on Monday, and were in Quebec City all Tuesday and part of Wednesday, anxiously waiting for orders for them to leave for home.

There were 120 officers, non-commissioned officers and men in the company. About thirty of the company, in command of Major Alexander Macphail who volunteered for overseas service, are now nearing England. On account of none of the students being aware of the hour the train was due to arrive, there were only a couple of them on hand when the train pulled in. The engineers were first ordered to remain in the coaches until orders were received from the militia department as to what was to become of them. After waiting for about fifteen minutes, the engineers were ordered to march to Tete de Pont barracks where they will remain for the rest of the day. Some of the men state that the minister of militia has given out orders for the engineers to remain in barracks for some time, but this report is not confirmed. The engineers may be needed for second contingent work.

The majority of the men speak in glowing terms of the time which they experienced under canvas at Valcartier. Although the work was hard and tedious, the men did not appear to mind it, as they were out to learn something and that was the place to get it.

The hearts of the rugby enthusiasts were cheered on Thursday morning when they heard that Prof. Lindsay Malcolm and his engineers had arrived back in the city. The rugby artists know that Prof. Malcolm will get the team into shape for the opening game in Varsity on Saturday, October 17th.

Some of the engineers who figured on the senior rugby team last fall, are in the pink of condition as they have had practices with at the camp grounds. Freda, Erskine and McCartney were among the players who were at Valcartier.

While the engineers were at Valcartier, Prof. Lindsay Malcolm, who is in command, asked the minister of militia to put the engineers up in barracks at Kingston and to allow them to attend the university. Some of the men suffered financially by being forced to give up their positions, and unless the department sees fit to put them up in barracks they will be unable to attend university this fall.

On Thursday morning at eleven o'clock, No. 5 company went into quarters at Artillery park barracks.

NAMED TWO HOTELS Which Gave Him Liquor When He Was "Listed."

Thomas Rush, an inmate of the Home for the Aged who is a member of the "prohibited list" named magistrate Farrell in the police court on Thursday morning on the charge of being under the influence of liquor. When asked where he got his liquor he gave the names of two hotels where he was served. The magistrate stated that one of the hotel keepers found out that he had made a mistake, and notified the police immediately after Rush got the liquor.

Rush stated that he did not know that he was on the list. It appears that a short time ago he faced the court on the charge of being drunk and was allowed his liberty on condition that he would go on the list. The case was adjourned until Monday when the guilty hotel keeper will be summoned.

REPORT IS NECESSARY From City Engineer As To Condition of Roadway.

Before the Board of Works can meet to take up the question of macadamizing certain streets in order to provide work for the unemployed, Ald. Litton, chairman of the board, says that the city engineer will have to report on the drainage conditions. For instance, there is inadequate drainage on Montreal, Rideau and Outer Union streets. Sewers would have to be constructed before macadamizing could proceed. It is likely the board will meet before Friday afternoon. Ald. Litton thinks more work could be given the unemployed by laying permanent pavement upon some streets, such as Aberdeen and Upper William.

City Property Committee. At a meeting of the City Property committee on Wednesday afternoon Alds. Harrison, (chairman), White, Bews and McCann were present. Applications were received for the position of city hall fireman, but the same man who acted last year was re-appointed. It was decided to grant the Red Cross society the free use of Ontario hall for its work.

FORMED IN THE CITY FOR JUNIOR PLAYERS.

There Are Three Teams in Each League - Schedule Of One Was Drawn on Wednesday Night.

The schedule for the junior city rugby football league was drafted at the meeting of the executive on Wednesday night, as follows:

October 10th-K.C.I. vs. Argonauts.
October 17th-Argonauts vs. Ontarios.
October 24th-Ontarios vs. K.C.I.
October 31st-Argonauts vs. K.C.I.
November 7th-Ontarios vs. Argonauts.

November 14th-K.C.I. vs. Ontarios. The rules of the league bar any player who last year played junior intercollegiate, excepting those now working in the city, so that it will give a chance to those who are not able to catch the first teams and who still want to stay in the game. The age limit for all players is twenty years.

Another Junior Rugby League. Still another junior rugby league has been organized. The new organization will be known as the City Amateur Rugby League and will comprise the following teams: Shamrocks, Crescents and Drybones. At a meeting held on Wednesday evening these officers were elected: Honorary patrons, J. J. Hart, J. H. Birkett, D. E. Smith, A. F. Treadgold, L. A. Guild and W. McFried; honorary presidents, T. J. Higney and W. James; president, "Nipper" Matheson; first vice-president, Bert. McWiliams; second vice-president, P. Lawless; secretary-treasurer, Frank. Herchely.

The executives of the following teams were elected as follows: Shamrocks, G. Mills and W. Bowman; Crescents, S. Hammond, Iver Wallace; Drybones, W. Elmer, Bert. Thompson. A special meeting will be held on Friday evening to draw up the schedule. The initial game will be played at the cricket field on Thanksgiving Day between Shamrocks and Drybones.

AT QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY. Impossible to Estimate Attendance of Students Yet.

At present it is impossible to say how the attendance at Queen's university this session will compare with that of last session, was the statement of the registrar to the Whig on Thursday afternoon.

All students who desire to enter the faculty of arts must report to the college by Friday unless they are granted special permission. In the faculties of science and medicine they can register for some time yet.

For some days the majority of the science students have been unable to attend certain lectures at the university on account of two of their professors being at Valcartier. These professors returned to the city on Thursday, so it is expected that the classes will be resumed at once. The following professors were at Valcartier: Prof. Alexander Macphail, Lindsay Malcolm, Henderson, D. Ellis and Sterne.

"Long Way To Tipperary" New English Battle Song

London, Sept. 12 (Special correspondence).—The route to Tipperary, that famous old spot in Ireland, famed for generations in song and story the world over, is of no strategic importance in the great war, but it is playing no mean part these days in upholding what staid military experts call the "morale" of the British troops fighting the Germans in France. It's a Long Way To Tipperary" has come to be the English battle song in the present war. It will go down in history and it is nothing at all but a London music hall ditty.

As they go into battle the Germans thunder their "Die Wacht am Rhein," the French chant their "Marseillaise," and the Belgians fight gallantly with their beautiful "Brabanconne" on their lips, but the British sing no national air. "Tommy Atkins" goes into the fray shouting an inconsequent vaudeville jingle that has in it not a word about death or valor, glory or pathos. And, best Americans do not know the words of this epoch-making chorus, here they are, fated for some unthoughtful reason to become historic:

It's a long way to Tipperary,
It's a long way to go;
It's a long way to Tipperary,
To the sweetest girl I know.
Good-by, Paddy!
Farewell, Leicester Square;
It's a long, long way to Tipperary,
But my heart's right there.

The author-composer of this imperishable lyric is Jack Judge, a music hall artist, and there is probably no man in the world more surprised than he at the "fine thing" vogue it has so suddenly received. The British hero sings when he reveals himself he sings it with a rousing march, to drive the monotony of "boots-boots-boots-boots, sloggity up and down again!" he has familiarized his French comrades with "le why he chooses this particular air nobody knows.

St. Andrew's Church New Soloist. St. Andrew's church is to be congratulated on securing Miss Mary G. Chalmers, of Ottawa, as leading soprano to fill the position recently vacated by Miss May Hinkley. Miss Chalmers is favorably known in Ottawa where she has been singing as soloist in the First Baptist church for some time past. A pupil of Miss Shepherd, of Toronto, a graduate licentiate of the Toronto Conservatory of Music, and for a time a member of the Mendelssohn choir as well as having filled other important church positions, Miss Chalmers comes well equipped for her new position, and the musical people of Kingston will be glad to receive her as a very welcome addition.
