WHAT IS THREATENED

IF THE BOSTON BRAVES WIN AGAIN TO-DAY

Plank Will Try to Turn Back the Boston Batsmen — One Desperate Man Grew Gay and Caught a Bullet.

Philadelphia, Oct. 10.—If the Boston Braves beat "Eddie" Plank and take the second game of the world's series, to-day, they are going to demand that Philadelphia surrender the Liberty bell and adopt "Tessie" as the municipal anthem.

At the present time the city of brotherly, fatherly, or whatever sort of love it is, is now joining loudly in the chorus with the Athletics rendering "There Goes My Nanny Now." The Athletic fans are not spreading "last ditch" conversation as yet in discussing the possibilities of to-day's game.

The routing of Chief Bender shocked Father Penn from the top of his hat to the silver buckles of his shoes. One man felt so desperate, last night, that he hit a policeman on the head with a brick just to assert his independence. The policeman answered the salute and a bullet hit Frank Gallagher, a twenty-two-year-old fan, in the thigh, which was the extent of past game casualties.

Up to daylight, to-day, George Stallings hadn't hit or choked anyone since he throttled the team. As there are several thousand in town who still don't believe all things they read in the papers as to what actually happened at Shibe Park, yesterday afternoon, there was a line of nearly three thousand waiting outside the bleacher gates before breakfast to-day.

As soon as yesterday's crowd was admitted to the bleachers the line for to-day's game began to form. There were hundreds of all-nighters and after midnight men and boys arrived in droves. There were but few who offered their places for sale. The police permitted them to have boxes and stools to sit on during the long hours of waiting and vendors were on the job with coffee, crullers and fruit, despite the fact that the cloudy weather continues to linger in the vicinity, possibly attracted by the big scrap the weather man predicted sunshine for the game this afternoon.

Connie Mack has made no secret of the fact that he expects to start Plank, the Gettysburg hero, after the galloping Braves, and expressed nothing but absolute confidence in the veteran's ability to turn back the Boston batsmen.

Will There Be Sunshine.

Philadelphia, Oct. 10.—It was cloudy and a very light mist was falling early to-day, but Weather Man Bliss predicted a clearing and sunshine before the time for the second game of the world's baseball series this afternoon.

How Boston Won on Friday

Philadelphia, Oct. 10.—Playing with the same sensational speed that marked their rush from last place to the position of pennant winners in the National League the Boston Braves crushed the Philadelphia Athletics here yesterday in the final game of the world's series by a score of 7 to 1.

The victory over the two to one American League favorites was well won, no lucky breaks or baseball flukes figured in the defeat of the famous Mackman clan. By sharp heavy and timely hitting the Braves piled up an offensive lead which, coupled with Rudolph's sterling box work and the general defense of his teammates, left no opening through which the Philadelphia club's attack could penetrate.

The National league combination actually feels the certainty of ultimate victory. United in a world's series, they have won decisively a new record, for with their bats they drove Chief Bender, the Athletics' greatest money pitcher, to the bench, a feat no other club ever achieved against one of Mack's pitchers in a world's series.

Fully 25,000 spectators saw the down-fall of the Athletics, and while the defeat shortened the odds in the betting, it has not shaken the faith of the average local fan in the ability of the Mackmen to come from behind and conquer their younger and presumptuous rivals.

In the distribution of individual honors the lion's share went to Rudolph the pitcher. It was his slow deceptive delivery that proved the Mackmen's undoing.

THE SCHEDULE DRAWN

For the New City Amateur Rugby League.

A meeting of the new city amateur rugby league was held on Friday evening when this schedule was drawn:

- Oct. 28th—Shamrocks vs. Crescents.
- Oct. 31st—Crescents vs. Drybones.
- Nov. 3rd—Shamrocks vs. Crescents.

A coach was appointed in the person of Robert Yellowley. The first game of this league will be played on Thanksgiving Day.

Officials Chosen.

It was announced at Queen's university on Saturday morning that "Jack" Hazlett, president of the Intercollegiate rugby union, had appointed the officials for the Varsity-McGill game this afternoon, but no name would be given out until a few hours before the game was slated to commence. Under these conditions there is no chance for the teams to "kick."

To Enter Basket Ball Teams.

At the meeting of the executive of the S.S.A.A.A. held on Friday evening it was announced that Queen street Methodist and St. Andrew's had decided to enter teams in the senior S.S.A.A.A. basketball series. The series will likely be composed of the following teams: St. Luke's, Brock street, Sydenham, Bethel and probably Cooke's.

Mayor Shaw came up from Ottawa on Friday to attend the civic finance committee meeting and returned there early Saturday morning. It is understood his worship is negotiating with the dominion government with reference to the King street break-water.

Saturday's Market Prices.

There was a very large market on Saturday morning. The prices were unchanged from last week except that apples, though plentiful, were selling at 30c. a bushel. Potatoes are worth 80c. a bushel; butter, 30c. to 32c. a pound, and eggs from 30c. to 32c. a dozen.

Have Formed A Band.

A number of the German prisoners of war, confined to Fort Henry, have organized a band. A number of the men who are very handy with a pen-knife have made whistles out of pieces of wood. A drum has been made out of a portion of a vinegar barrel. The men march around the parade grounds and go through drill.

The Rifle Found.

The rifle which Symonds carried off with him when he made his escape from the penitentiary has been found in a quarter that is quite unexpected in view of his statements as to where he had been during the time he was wandering about the country. The exact location has not been disclosed as yet, but the weapon was found in the vicinity of Smith's Falls.

War, War, War.

For King and Country extra two reel special, first German war pictures direct from England showing actual scenes on the battlefield, troops leaving for the front, roll call of the 4th Royal Suffolk, mine layers at work, capture of German spies and many genuine battle scenes, at the King Edward, Wednesday and Thursday, afternoon and evenings. Special programme for Thanksgiving.

Warning to Parents

An inspector of the department of neglected and dependent children, of the Ontario government, has drawn attention to the following clause of the Children's Protection Act of Ontario, being section 16 of that act: "No girl under sixteen and no boy under ten years of age, shall engage in, or be licensed or permitted to engage in, any street trade or occupation." Several girls and very young boys have been seen breaking this act by selling papers on the streets of Kingston. The attention of parents is drawn to this so as to prevent trouble for them and their children.

Some Echoes From Valcartier.

A soldier who arrived from Quebec on Friday gives some facts about the Valcartier camp and its management. The horses were on the transport ships from Saturday to the following Thursday before they left the wharves. There were more supplies left on the wharves than were taken on board. There were thousands of dollars worth of supplies, such as tents, boots and clothing that were never taken out of the boxes and cases they were shipped in, were burned on the grounds. There was an order sent out that another dress parade would take place on the Sunday before the troops sailed but this was cancelled suddenly. It was current gossip that the order cancelling the original one issued by the minister of militia was made by the Duke of Connaught.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL

Held Thanksgiving Social and Tea on Friday Evening.

A most enjoyable Thanksgiving social and tea was held by the First Congregational church on Friday evening. Seventy-five people sat down to the tables, and after tea, an informal programme was given. Miss Edna Singleton rendered two solos. H. Blake gave several musical monologues. Mrs. (Rev.) Thomas, an old member of the congregation, favored with a couple of readings and David Scott a very happy selection from Burns. "Two Dogs." Miss Myrtle King rendered a solo and Miss King and Miss Emma Leach a duet.

The social offered an opportunity for members and friends of the church to bid good-bye to Mrs. James Massie and family, who are leaving shortly for Toronto. During the evening Miss Edith Massie, secretary of the Sunday school, was presented with a bouquet of flowers on behalf of the Sunday school. Miss Bessie Rogers was the accompanist for the evening. The pastor, Rev. E. LeRoy Rice presided.
