IN SPORTING CIRCLES THE PATRIOTIC FUND WILL MOBILIZE HERE

QUEEN'S LOST THROUGH CARELESSNESS IN TORONTO.

Their Faults Will Be Remedied When They Meet McGill in Kingston on Saturday Next.

Owing to the tired condition of the players, no rugby practice was held by Queen's on Monday afternoon. The men are still as ambitious as ever, but are surprised that they do not vary do what it did. The general weak point in the tri-color line is the habit of taking things for granted. They do not stay on a man when they have him down. This fault will be remedied by Saturday, however, if the coaches have anything to say. The coaches have been constantly saying that the men should take no chances, but on the field on Saturday they forgot their lessons.

The game on Saturday has done wonders for the team and it now realizes its weak points. Each man can practice constantly to overcome his particular weakness, and on Saturday the feeling is that Queen's will be able to defeat the McGill team. It should be remembered that Queen's has not beaten Varsity in Toronto in six years, and this year did as good as anyone could expect.

Quigley Out of the Game.

Quigley, who has played at the quarter position for Queen's senior rugby team for the past two years, is out of the game as result of an injury to his shoulder which he received in the Varsity-Queen's game last Saturday. The Collegiate rugby team held a practice on the upper campus on Monday afternoon. There were about thirty players out and the squad were given a heavy workout. The signals were followed closely and the players are in fine shape for their game.

Owing to the war, the Royal Military College has no team in the league this year, and hence there are only Queen's and the Collegiates in this series. The schedule will be drawn up in the near future.

What McGill Will Do.

Montreal Star. There is joy in the ranks of Varsity. There is joy in the campus of Queen's. For McGill seems weak. And her bad luck streak. May yet spill her championship beans.

But there's faith in the ranks of McGill's men. Even though there is joy at Queen's. For just wait till "Shag" Shakes the tricks from his bag. And shows them what good coaching means.

City Soccer League Executive.

A meeting of the executive of the city soccer league has been called for Tuesday evening. There is something that requires straightening out in connection with the patriotic match scheduled for Saturday. It was thought at first this coming Saturday would be an open date for Queen's to play with one of the city aggregations, but it is now learned that McGill comes here to play Queen's.

PATRIOTIC FUND

Will Not Assist Dependents of Men on Home Service.

Philip H. Morris, assistant secretary of the Canadian patriotic fund, Ottawa, has written to the local committee as follows:

"At a recent meeting of the executive committee of the Canadian patriotic fund the question of men on active home service and the relation of their dependents to the fund was thoroughly discussed. Ultimately it was decided that such dependents could not be assisted by the fund since the men each received $1.85 a day, which should be sufficient to keep their families."

Remains To Arrive.

The remains of the late Fletcher Cook, a former resident of Harrowsmith, who was killed in an accident at Regina on Oct. 15th, are expected to arrive at Harrowsmith on Thursday, and interment will take place there. Mrs. Cook's wife was formerly Miss Edith Walker, daughter of Jas. Walker, of Holford. Three small children survive. Mr. Cook was an Oddfellow.

Mr. Cook was killed by being run over by a motor car on the street railway while trying to uncouple a car of coal. His foot got caught in a frog. His wife, so it is stated, is entitled to $2,000 damages under the provincial workmen's compensation act.

Free Industrial Classes.

The industrial classes being conducted by the Board of Education, with begin work on Wednesday evening at the Collegiate Institute, and in the domestic science quarters at the board rooms. The board is looking for a splendid attendance at these free classes. The best teachers in the colleges will look after practical subjects there, and at the board rooms, dressmaking, millinery and cooking will be presented in the most skillful manner by competent teachers. The board is to be commended for its interest in those who desire for more education than they received in their earlier years.

Good-Bye Mr. But.

James But and party of Houston, Texas, who have been spending the past few months in the city, started for their home on Tuesday afternoon at 12:20 o'clock. Mr. But, who spends each summer in this neighborhood, is a great sportsman, and delights in fishing in the vicinity of Loughboro and Buck Lake. He will return here next summer. His large automobile was shipped a few days ago.

Epworth League Musicals.

On Monday evening a musical was given by members of the literary and musical committee of the Epworth League of Sydenham street church. The programme consisted of numbers by Miss Woodman, Miss I. Jenkins, Miss Florence Valleau, Miss Ruth Anglin, Miss Tweedell, Miss Lucille Parrott, Master W. Fair, Misses Norton and Corbett, Mr. Watson and Mr. Murray.

SUM OF $1,565 REQUIRED FOR MONTH OF OCTOBER.

Finance Committee Approved of Requisition of Relief Committee For This Amount — Letters From Head Office.

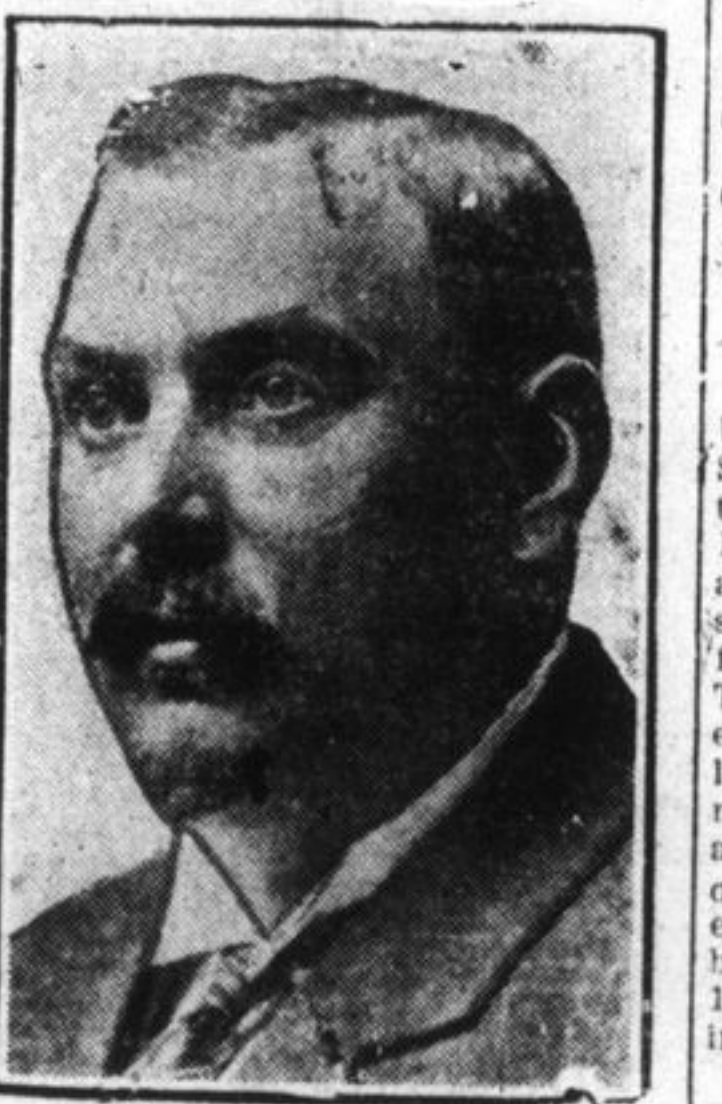

A meeting of the finance committee of the Kingston branch of the Canadian Patriotic fund was held in the Board of Trade rooms on Monday afternoon, Mayor Shaw presiding.

A letter was read from the assistant secretary at the head office of the fund, in Ottawa, which stated: "I am pleased to be able to inform you that the executive committee of the Canadian patriotic fund have granted the request of your local association for admission as a branch of the National Fund."

The committee approved of the requisition made by the relief committee on the fund at Ottawa for $1,565, for distribution for October.

The committee passed a resolution of thanks to the proprietors of the British Whig and the Standard for their kindness in forwarding receipts accounts for work done. The accounts of each were over $300 and were for supplies, job printing, advertising and other requisites secured from the newspaper offices. The committee expressed great appreciation of the generosity of the newspaper companies in dealing with the matter.

The committee decided to ask F. C. Ireland to act as auditor for the committee.

THE TOWN OF GANANOQUE.

Leeds Patriotic Association Is Busy Raising Money.

Gananoque, Oct. 20.—A largely attended session of the executive committee of the Gananoque branch of the Leeds County Patriotic League and Relief association was held last evening in the town hall. The ladies have had fair success in the exhibition of Stuart Taggart's picture, "Guilty," which has been on display for the past week, and are also completing arrangements for a patriotic lecture on the British navy by Mr. Ames, of Montreal.

The funeral of the late George Nuttall, relict of the late George Nuttall, took place yesterday afternoon at Gananoque cemetery. There was a beautiful display of floral tributes. Out of a family of ten children living, nine were present at the obsequies: Mrs. Russell, Kingston; Mrs. Todd, Brewer's Mills; Mrs. Berry, Taylor; Mrs. Widdis, Gananoque; George Nuttall, South Lake; Thomas Nuttall, Gananoque Junction; John Nuttall, the far west, and Albert Nuttall, Gananoque. One son, Edward Nuttall, of Rainy River district, was not present.

Gananoque's intermediate rugby team although the result of their Thanksgiving day game with Ottawa was not of an encouraging nature, has settled down to good hard work for its game here next Saturday when it will meet the intermediate team from Brockville.

Messrs. Charles H. Lattimore and Walter Campbell, C. E., of Toronto, were in Gananoque over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. James Lattimore, of Brockville.

The gentlemen represent the railway construction firm of Campbell and Lattimore. Thomas Ralph Wilms, a former solo cornetist in the Citizens' band, who has been located for some time in Hamilton, is spending a week in town the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Pelow. Miss Essy Meggs, who was in town for the O'Neill-Meggs wedding on Saturday evening, left yesterday to resume her duties at Syracuse, N.Y.

DIES IN EIGHTIETH YEAR.

Last Of Family Who Came to Canada in 1835.

Smith's Falls, Ont., Oct. 20.—Mrs. Arnes Mair Craine, relict of the late John J. Craine, who was one of Smith's Falls well known citizens, died Monday in her 80th year. Born in Belgh, Scotland, youngest of eleven children, her death removes the last of her generation of the Muirs, of Belgh, who came to Canada in 1835. She resided in Smith's Falls all her married life. Two children survive, John and Arnes, the latter one of Canada's pioneer women in medicine.

OVERSEA VOLUNTEERS FROM THE 3RD DIVISION

To Come to Kingston—The Armouries Will be Fitted Up For Sleeping Quarters.

The militia department has definitely decided that the volunteers from the 3rd division, who will fall with Canada's second overseas contingent, will mobilize at Ottawa headquarters at Kingston.

Officers have been sent out by the officer commanding the division for the 3rd division, the different units to take on men for service abroad. The divisional order will be allowed to mobilize one thousand men.

It has been arranged that the men will come to the city and will be quartered in the armouries and the stables at artillery park barracks. The main floor of the armouries will be laid out as sleeping quarters. It is possible that the rooms which have been used as hand rooms, and the galleries, will be divided off into sleeping quarters.

The stables on the artillery square will make very comfortable quarters for the men. During the summer months a new concrete floor has been laid and the building is very up-to-date. Stoves will be placed in the building.

On Tuesday men were engaged in fixing up things at the stables.

It is expected that the volunteers will commence to gather in the course of a week or ten days.

Volunteers From 47th.

A meeting of the officers of the 47th Regiment was held at the Windsor hotel, on Tuesday morning for the purpose of selecting a body of men and officers to go abroad with the second Canadian contingent. Capt. Truesdale, of Sydenham, and Lieut. Frink, of Odessa, both volunteered. There were also fifty or more non-commissioned officers and men willing to recruit.

Recruiting Proceeding

The recruiting at Tete de Pont barracks is going along splendidly. Seventeen men came from Toronto and twelve from Montreal on Monday evening for the R.C.H.A. and many more are expected. Beside the staff there are now about forty-five recruits at the barracks. They are being drilled and rounded into soldiers. They are a fine looking and an intelligent squad of men. As they are examined and accepted, uniforms are issued. The old canteen building has been taken from the 14th regiment and is being used by the R.C.H.A. The 14th men are "doubling up," sleeping twenty-two in a room.

The 14th regiment is recruiting rapidly and has nearly a full company of men. They have all been supplied with uniforms and are being drilled in the square. This is the squad that has volunteered for home-service only. The overseas volunteers are reporting at the barracks daily.

HOW LAD MET DEATH.

The Burch Shooting Tragedy at Jones Falls.

Cecil, the seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Burch, Jones Falls, who was accidentally killed last Friday, went out with his other two older brothers shooting. When they had gone some little distance from their home, the two elder brothers, one of them carrying a shot gun and the other a rifle, came along to a knoll where a heavy thicket was located. The brother carrying the shot gun told his eldest brother that he would shoot into the thicket while he sat on the opposite side to see if anything would emerge. The little lad had wandered into the thicket unnoticed, and when the shot was fired from the shotgun the young chap yelled "Oh my eye!" Rushing in to see what had happened, the brothers found little Cecil fatally shot. It was afterwards found that five of the bullets had penetrated his heart while others had entered his brain.

Before leaving the house the little chap had kissed both his mother and father good-bye and waved his hand toward them as he was going. The youngster had been sick on Friday and remained home from school, and was only after considerable coaxing that his parents allowed him to go.
