FIVE GENERATIONS.

The Whig presents here a group comprising five generations. The old lady, in the centre, is Mrs. Emily Simpkins, Wilton, aged 96 years; the other lady sitting is Mrs. Wesley Brown, Wilton, aged 78 years, daughter of Mrs. Simpkins. Mrs. (Col.) T. Clyde, Odessa, is next in line, her son, Elmer Clyde, Wilton, standing behind his great-grandmother holding his daughter, Thera, in his arms, who looks down upon her great-great-grandmother and great-grandmother. A truly wonderful Canadian group and all born and living within the township of Ernestown.

CALLED FOR DECEMBER

Methodists, Presbyterians and Congregationalists Will Confer Toronto, Oct. 21.—Another effort to bring about the organic union of the Methodists, Presbyterians and Congregationalists will be launched here at a representative conference of the three denominations to be held in the city early in December. The amendments to the former basis of union which are proposed by the Presbyterians will be submitted. It is expected that they will be accepted by the Methodists and Congregationalists.

The new basis of church union will be submitted to the next meeting of the general assembly, which will be at Kingston next June. The advocates of church union in the general assembly will then secure authority for a vote by presbyteries on the new basis.

BLEW UP TENEMENT

Montreal, Oct. 21.—A whole tenement block was blown up by Austrians last night. Russian and French-Canadians were hurt. The assassins themselves were killed.

War Oddities

Amsterdam—Thirty-eight thousand iron crosses of the first and second classes have been distributed since the war began, according to a message from Berlin.

London—A special branch man from Scotland Yard was sent to Victoria station on the occasion of the departure of a member of the royal family. As his moustache was turned up at the ends, (a la Kaiser) railway officials arrested him, declaring his papers forged.

Petrograd—Warsaw is now entirely "dry."

The authorities have prohibited the sale of spirits, wines and beer, even at first-class restaurants and clubs.

London—A well-known Italian restaurant here has the following item on its menu: "Spezzatine alla Milanese." (formerly Vienna Schnitzel).

Paris—In a tramcar a wounded

French soldier, vainly endeavored to bring his bandaged right arm up for a salute to an officer. "To-day, my friend," the officer said, "I salute you," and he did.

Milk Cow As Lead Fines.

London, Oct. 21.—"The coolest thing I ever saw in action was that of a big Highlander, who milked a cow under rifle and shell fire, to get something for his wounded mates to drink when the water ran out," said Private Clarke, of the King's Royal Rifle, in a letter home.

Rescues Child From Drowning

Brockville, Ont., Oct. 21.—Beatrice Daley, aged six, fell into the St. Lawrence river and was saved from death by Dolaine Polow, eleven, who pluckily jumped into the water, held the small girl with one hand and swam to shore.

There was a very small market on Tuesday morning composed of only a few gardeners' wagons. The markets are big only on Saturday's as the people in the north part of the county do not come in on Thursday, as formerly, owing to the taking off of the cheap railway rates on that day.

Baby Eczema Becomes Chronic

Causing Great Suffering and Anxiety—Prompt Relief and Cure by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

This is one reason why every mother should know about Dr. Chase's Ointment, since it is an unfailing cure for all itching skin diseases.

Mrs. F. Clarke, Belmont, Mass., writes: "My baby had eczema on her ear. The sore was very bad, and nothing seemed to do her much good. Hearing of the remarkable cures Dr. Chase's Ointment was making, we sent for some, and after the third application the sore began to heal. I am glad to say that it is quite well now, and we give the credit to Dr. Chase's Ointment. We cannot recommend this preparation too highly."

Here is another letter, which tells of the cure of a five-weeks-old baby. Mrs. Wallace Minton, River John Road, Colchester County, N.S., writes: "My little girl took eczema when she was five weeks old. Though we doctored her until she was nearly a year old, she got no better. I was advised to use Dr. Chase's Ointment, and this treatment completely cured her."

Notes From Morven

Morven, Oct. 20.—The weather continues fine and summery like and farmers are very busy with their fall work. Last Sabbath services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Pierce, Kingston, to the satisfaction of all. Manson Smith and family, of Floating Bridge, autoed up on Saturday, and spent the day with his mother, Mrs. D. R. Hicks.

On Sunday the body of a fully developed infant was found in the Trent river at Frankford. Every indication being infantile.
