MILLIONS OF BELGIANS ARE IN NEED OF FOOD AT PRESENT TIME.

Fearing to Return to Homes, People Must Starve or Beg—Fugitives in Desperate Plight.

London, Oct. 22.—The problem of securing food and shelter for the Belgian people both at home and in Holland, England and France is stirring the hearts and minds of men even in countries already distraught by the horror of war.

Figures are necessarily vague, but a conservative estimate is that 1,500,000 Belgians out of a population of 7,000,000 have been expelled.

Lord Gladstone's committee says that 70,000 arrived in London during the past week and the Women's Relief committee, which sent a ship to Holland last week, reports that in eight Holland cities the refugees number nearly 500,000. In other words, they are more numerous than the native population.

The Folkestone committee alone has the names of 16,000 refugees on its lists, some among them having little money and only a few having winter clothing. Folkestone already has established a maternity home and two hospitals, which are well filled.

There are many gentle folk among these fugitive Belgians who are not used to labor and who accept charity reluctantly.

The London committee has twenty-seven sub-committees in different cities in England, Scotland and Wales, and these organizations are placing refugees in homes as rapidly as possible. Alexandra Palace is being used as the central point for the reception work. Lady McDowell and Lady Emmott head committees for the collection of warm clothing work which is done by Boy Scouts.

Belgian wounded are scattered in British hospitals.

The penniless refugees here are suffering less than those in Holland and elsewhere who are without money. Many of them say that the poor, the sick and the aged at home are in a condition more pitiable than is their own.

A prosperous Belgian glass manufacturer of Charleroi, an employer of several hundred people, may be taken as typical of the way most of these people look to the United States for help. This man requested the publication in the United States of an open letter addressed to President Wilson, craving the American people for help in Belgium. "Their money soon will be gone," this manufacturer said today, "and the payrolls are discontinued. Food is scarce. My people must either starve or beg where they can find givers."

The editor of the Independence Belge of Brussels is now in London. His paper has been published successfully in Ghent and Ostend, and it will shortly appear in the British capital. This man, speaking to-day of the Belgian exodus, said:

THE EVANGELIST

A. A. M. in Punch.

I have found favor in the sight of God; From all His servants He selected me To take His gospel. "God and Ger. To Belgian heretics. Lo, I have trod Through Belgium terribly, and taught the pack; I put their ancient cities to the sack. I gave their men and women to the sword, I took their Belgian babes upon my knee And broke them to the glory of the Lord.

It may be that one Belgian kennel stands, One Belgian dog, not trampled in to dust, Still battles on beside these hosts of Hell.

Who think to question the most High's commands— God will forgive me one, for He is just.

The blood of many thousand lights my feet; Calmly I step before the Judgment Seat— "Have I done well, O Lord, have I done well?"

The Red Book Magazine.

The first installment of "Hopsy Burke," the story of a David Harum in petticoats, is perhaps the most important feature of the November Red Book Magazine. This novel is by Frank N. Westcott, in collaboration with Ward Noyes Westcott, who wrote "David Harum," and it has those same qualities of kindly humor, keen wit, and truth to American life, which made "David Harum" so popular.

These first chapters in the November Red Book will bear out the editor's remark that "if you liked 'David Harum,' you will love 'Hopsy Burke.'"

Among the other notable contributions to this number is the third installment of Rupert Hughes' brilliant novel, "Empty Pockets," a story of New York. Especially to be remembered among the thirteen short stories are King Lardner's "Back to Baltimore," a story of baseball and woman; "A Woman's Past," a tremendously dramatic story by Albert Payson Terhune; "The High Explosive," by Justin Huntly McCarthy, the story of a man with a scheme to prevent war, and "The Man Who Was Ahead," a powerful story of the far north by Berthe Knatvold Mellett. Other contributors are Harris Dickson, Opie Read, Charles G. B. Roberts, Ellis Parker Butler, Ida M. Evans, and Arthur B. Reeve.

A Matter of Difficulty.

An Ohio farmer took his numerous progeny to a county fair in that state. As the party moved about the grounds, the father felt his fourth son tugging at his coat tails. He turned and the youngster begged him to buy a certain top. "Buy it yourself," said the father. "Where's the dime I gave you a little while ago?" "It's down my neck," "Well, shake it out." "But, father," protested the lad, "I can't. It was in my mouth when it went down."

THE SPORT REVIEW

McGILL NOT SO SURE OF DEFEATING QUEEN'S

As Its Team Is Weakened by Losses—Frank Patrick, Hockey King, Has Enlisted For Active Service.

Ottawa are said to be offering even money that they beat the Hamilton Tigers on Saturday.

It looks as if Ottawa was in for a bad football season. Both teams have yet to win a game. Better results might have been obtained if they had but one team.

The Toronto Telegram says: An Argo victory at Montreal and a Tiger win in Ottawa, a feat which is always difficult for the Jungs to perform, would lock the Big Four in a three-cornered fight. It looks like a probable occurrence.

It is now quite certain that the directors of the National Amateur Athletic Association expect to have a team from Ottawa replace Boston in the new hockey league that they are organizing to combat with the National Hockey Association.

A deal is now pending between the Pacific Coast Hockey League and the H.C.A. of Montreal. Lalonde, of the Canadiens, may be traded for Vestina, the good net guardian of the French team. Lalonde played with Canadiens last winter, but is the property of the Coast League, and, as he is in business in Montreal and wants to remain there, the Patricks gave their consent.

The hockey clubs at Harvard, Yale and Princeton have agreed to several revisions to the ice hockey rules. The Boston Athletic Association has endorsed the changes. Canadian and other teams playing Yale, Harvard, Princeton or B.A.A. during the coming winter will be obliged to conform to the new rules, which are said to differ materially from those in general use in other parts of this country and in Canada.

Montreal Mail: The best world's series contests were between the Giants and the Red Sox. They were not the best in the quality of the play, not by a great deal, but there is more to baseball than cold mechanical precision. The big side, after all, is the human side, and in excitement, stirring interest and enthusiasm the Giants-Red Sox games were the best of all.

According to unofficial averages of the American League, Walter Johnson is still the strike-out king, with 228 to his credit during the past season. He also took first place as a wild pitcher, with twenty charged against him. The National League's strike-out king is Alexander, of the Phillies, with 209. Towson is second with 185. Bender leads the American League pitchers and James Laps tops those of the National, Rudolph is third.

Montreal Gazette: From the present outlook the McGill line-up for Queen's looks to be: Flying wing, Seale; halves, Ross Laing, George Laing and Paisley; quarter back, Montgomery; scrimmage, Demuth, McManis; full back, inside wings, Ross and Brown; middle wings, Quilty and Norman Williamson; outside wings, Kennedy and Jefferys. The losses through players leaving college and others suffering from injuries have made a difference in the McGill team and victory over Queen's does not look as promising as that over Varsity.

Frank Patrick has enlisted and will be one of the second Canadian contingent to go to the front. Frank Patrick has held a commission in one of the Vancouver regiments for the past couple of years and has resigned to go in the ranks. In a letter he furnishes the hockey news that Portland has been taken into the Pacific Coast League, and the players from New Westminster will be transferred there. The composition of the coast teams will be practically the same this season as a year ago, and the schedule will be arranged at a meeting to be held at an early date.

THE WAY OF A WOMAN.

Baltimore Sun.

The way of a woman is God's own way

Of making a beautiful thing of life Of healing the hurt of the toiling day

Of lifting with love the shadows of strife;

Of reaching our sorrow and care and care

With the inner sweet of her personal soul;

Of giving us courage to trust and to bear,

Of helping us grow to the life that's whole.

The way of a woman is God's own creed

Of patience and sweetness through all that comes;

The grief and the sorrow, the cross and the lead

The trumpet call or the rattle of drums;

Of making us better that she is near,

Of helping us better that she hath learned

The gift of the aching heart and the tear.

The grace of the glory of golden morn.

The way of a woman is God's own law

That unites the lives around her feet

Her love shall life us to holy awe

And make us better, and true, and sweet;

And make us wiser than merely wise,

And make us stronger than merely strong,

To struggle and strive for the peace that lies

In the rest that floats from the wing of song.

For everything in music, call at Dutton's. Teacher's supplies. Opposite Griffin's Theatre. Clocks keep on working when they strike.

LITTLE THINGS.

Andrew Lang.

A good-bye kiss is a little thing,
With your hand on the door to go,
But it takes a venom out of the sting
Of a thoughtless word or a cruel flog.

That you made an hour ago.

A kiss of greeting is sweet and rare
After the toil of the day,
And it smooths the furrows plowed
By care,
The lines on the forehead you once
Called fair.

In the years that have flown away.

'Tis a little thing to say, "You are kind;
I love you, my dear," each night;
But it sends a thrill through the heart
I find—
For Love is tender, and Love is blind—
As we climb life's rugged height.

We starve each other for Love's
caress;
We take, but we do not give;
It seems so easy some soul to bless,
But we dole the Love grudgingly,
less and less,
Till 'tis bitter and hard to live.

Insist on White Rose flour.
