OUT AGAIN AND IN AGAIN.

John Billings Locked Up Same Day He Was Liberated From Jail.

"My, but this is awful. If I had just been given a chance I would have got out of the city."

John Billings, no relation to the renowned John Billings, had this to say at the police court Saturday morning, and perhaps he had cause for the remark. John was just liberated from the jail on Friday morning, after serving a term for drunkenness. By nightfall he was again very drunk, and Constable Mackay, who did him a good turn by taking him to the lock-up. The magistrate imposed a fine of $3 and costs or one month. As he had but seventy cents he will have to go to jail. Billings makes money by selling shoe laces.

Three drunks, who raised a row in a restaurant Friday, were given a chance to proceed on their way to Montreal.

Married At Halifax.

A wedding of interest to many people in Kingston took place last Monday afternoon in Halifax, N.S., when Miss Madge E. Macdonald was quietly married to William Edward Steacy, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Steacy, Johnson street, who is stationed at the barracks in Halifax. The ceremony was performed in the church by Rev. Dr. Foley, and the bridesmaid was Miss Frances Ringwood, sister of the bride, while Lieut. Ringwood performed the duties of best man. No wedding trip was taken, as the groom is daily expecting orders to go overseas.

Should Be Questioned.

Four Germans placed under arrest at Gananoque and brought to Fort Henry some time ago, were later released and are now living in a tent on a farm. There are Germans living outside the town, that should, at least, be questioned by the authorities.

MRS. MARY PETERSON, OF BATH, HAD A STROKE.

Found By Her Foster Daughter—The Deceased Was Eighty Years of Age.

Mrs. Mary Peterson, of Bath, was found dead in the cellar of her home by her foster-daughter, Thursday afternoon. The deceased had been stricken with paralysis. She was eighty years of age and was very active despite her years. It is thought the deceased had gone down into the basement to get potatoes to peel for dinner. The adopted daughter, thinking she was going out into the garden upon her customary walk, did not think anything more about her until an hour or more had passed. When the old lady had not made her appearance a search was immediately started and to her horror she found her lying in the cellar, life being extinct. Miss Peterson hurriedly informed the neighbors, who came and assisted to carry the body into the house. The funeral of the deceased was held on Friday afternoon.

William Mackie, with the Royal Artillery in France. Lieut. Mackie was then well. He had been in all the battles from Mons on to the last, and is now at the Aisne. His column was in tight corners, but escaped. Dr. Mackie states that two of his nephews are also at the front.

McGILL RUGBY TEAM

To Meet Queen's in Kingston Saturday Afternoon.

The wind on Saturday morning was due north and quite strong. This will not be a benefit to the McGill team when it meets Queen's this afternoon. The McGill ground is surrounded by trees and the Montreal team does not have much practice in heavy winds. Shaughnessy, the McGill coach, will play the following: Flying wing, Seath; right half, Paisley; left half, Laing; centre half, Jeffrey; quarter, Montgomery; scrumhalf, Demuth; McCall, Penneck; left inside wing, Reid; right inside, Ross; left middle, Williamson; right middle, Quilty; left outside, R. Laing; right outside, Kennedy.

Officially, McGill does not know anything of the protest by Varsity. Shaughnessy says that every player signed by two members of the faculty. Waterous is not playing because his people do not want him to. All of the other players mentioned are now attending college. All that the McGill authorities know of the protest is a question sent from Toronto asking if the allegation was true.

Strawberries Grown In October.

On Saturday morning J. B. Ash, 49 Arch street, brought a bunch of strawberries to the Whig office, which he had grown in his garden during October. He has a number of the plants at the present time in blossom.

Saturday Market.

There was a very large market on Saturday, but no change in prices. Potatoes sold at 75c a bag, and it is likely that the price will go even lower, as there is a large supply. Butter sold at 32c a pound, and eggs at 30c a dozen.

"McConkey's week-end sweets," Gibson's.

Mrs. W. H. Peterson, an old and highly respected resident of Bath, was found dead on Wednesday morning. Cause of death stroke of paralysis.
