INCIDENTS OF THE DAY

LOCAL NOTES AND ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST

Happenings in the City and Vicinity—What the Merchants Offer to the Readers of the Whig.

Insist on White Rose flour. A $1 Emulsion, 50c. Gibson's. H. N. Van Potter, of Aylmer, spent the week-end in the city.

Four Headache Powders, 10c. Gibson's. Sunday was the sixtieth anniversary of the battle of Balaklava.

"Hot water bottles," guaranteed pure gum rubber, at Gibson's. U. B. Roberts, of Edmonton, came to Kingston on Sunday to spend a week.

Four Headache Powders, 10c. Gibson's. Miss Mina Eady, of Trenton, will enter Rockwood hospital as nurse-in-training.

"Cancelled library books," 2c. Gibson's. H. Cunningham, piano tuner, 21 King street, leave orders at McAuley's book store.

A life membership in Tabard Inn Library costs $1.50. All new books, Gibson's. A local Russian left, Monday, for Quebec, to sail for Europe.

"Phone 230, Gibson's, for drugs." Prof. William Morgan sailed on Saturday from Glasgow, Scotland, where he has been delivering a course of lectures.

"Your winter reading." A life membership in Tabard Inn Library costs $1.50, Gibson's. Large crowds attended the Kingston Township patriotic meetings at Glenvale and Cataract on Saturday evening.

"The Did It Herself." A man was brought before the court upon the complaint of his wife. While the prisoner was testifying the judge made it clear that he intended to be harsh with him; so that his wife became frightened, and when called to the stand refused to give testimony.

"So your husband didn't strike you, then?" said the judge. "Where did you get that black eye?" "I got it when I struck it accidentally on the mantelpiece."

"No! And that piece bitten out of your ear—how did that get there?" "No, no, your honor, I did that myself!"

Plain Talk to the Kaiser. Collier's Weekly. Rightly or wrongly, William II. is quoted as calling Count Zeppelin the greatest of all living inventors, and it is this Zeppelin whose aerial torpedoes are being used by the Germans and children are being killed in a deep broken only by death. Looking ahead, one can see that a people falsely represented by its William and its Zeppelins will once again be loved as home makers and lovers of the beautiful. But what wonder is it that to-day men of Germany's success wherever Christianity is preached, wherever mankind is emerging from the brute.

Cattle Sales at Plevna. Plevna, Oct. 23.—Shonauer Bros. have finished threshing in this vicinity, which were a good crop. The boys have great sport these days hunting partridges. C. Hollinger left yesterday with a large drove of cattle for Carleton Place. T. Clark also started yesterday with a drove for Cayuga. J. F. Card has returned from Kingston where he has been for some time. Mrs. B. Floyd is very ill. Mr. I. Wood was the guest of Mrs. E. F. Card on Wednesday. Misses Ella and Grace Ohlman are at the Riverview.

Pauline Chase, Actress, Weds Officer. London, Oct. 26.—Pauline Chase, the American actress and Alexander Drummond, son of George Drummond, head of Drummond's Bank in London, were married Saturday at St. Martin-in-the-field. Miss Chase, just from a role as "pink palama girl" from a role played in musical comedy, is the daughter of Dr. J. B. Bliss, of Washington, D.C., and her husband is an officer in West Kent Yeomanry and their wedding was hastened by the war as he is bound for the front.

Lombardy Locals. Lombardy, Oct. 24.—Miss Rosella O'Mara, Ottawa, is visiting her parents. Mrs. J. E. Secors, Thorold, has returned after visiting Mrs. McKenny. The auction sale held by Mrs. Thomas Miller on 23rd was largely attended and prices ranged high. Miss Morrissey, Jasper, was a week-end visitor here. Charles Bionette held an auction sale of his effects on the market square in Smith's Falls on the 24th inst.

"Prompt delivery of telephone orders." Phone 290, Gibson's, for drug wants. Adeline Patti, after her long retirement, reappeared, Saturday, at the patriotic concert, given in Albert Hall, London, with the king, the queen, and other members of the royal family present.

"A very busy telephone." 230, Gibson's, Red Cross Drug Store. Sir Robert Borden and Lady Borden have reached Hot Springs from Ottawa, and will remain two weeks.

German Spy at Lower Lavant? Lower Lavant, Oct. 22.—A suspicious looking character has been prowling in this vicinity for the past week. Whether he is a German spy or not no one can ascertain. Flash lights have been seen signalling from the government tower for some nights as if sending signals to some of the other towers which were erected for this purpose.

G. Annet purchased a valuable horse from James Reid. Threshing is being rushed through while the weather is fine. Some grand crops are reported.

A $1 Emulsion, 50c. Gibson's. The Weston Shoe company, Campbellford, will make about 1,400 pairs of shoes for the women and children of Belgian families. The town will pay for one-half of the stock and the Weston people the other half. The employees of the factory all agreed to give their time free of charge.
