QUEEN'S ENGINEERS MOVE INTO NEW QUARTERS.

The Weekly Parades of the 14th Artillery called off—those who on Guard Duty Turn In Their Uniforms.

On Monday evening the members of No. 5 company Field Engineers, of Queen's University, who have been in quarters at Artillery Park, moved into new quarters at the old Reginald College building, at the corner of King and William streets.

Although the quarters at the college building are not as large as the barracks the men appear to like them. The job of moving required the biggest part of the evening. On Tuesday morning the meals were served at the barracks but it was expected that the cook house would be in running order at the new quarters by evening.

A number of engineers were busy on Tuesday installing an electric light system in the building.

It is expected that the 14th regiment will go into Artillery barracks on Wednesday.

Weekly Parades Called Off.

The weekly parades of the 14th regiment, which have been taking place for some weeks, have been called off on account of the armistice.

THE HALLS OF QUEEN'S.

Schedule For the MacLennan Soccer Series.

The schedule for the MacLennan trophy soccer series is as follows: Oct. 26, A Science 15 vs. Science 16; Oct. 28, B Arts 15 vs. Arts 16; Oct. 29, C Meds 13 vs. Meds 14; Oct. 30, D Science 17 vs. Science 18; Nov. 2, E Arts 17 vs. Arts 18; Nov. 3, F Meds 17 vs. Meds 18; Nov. 2, P winner of group A vs. winner of B; Nov. 3, Q winner of group F vs. winner of B; Nov. 4, R winner of group C vs. winner of F.

At the conclusion of this schedule sudden-death matches will be arranged for the three teams which qualify to enter the final. All players are eligible to play, who have not won their "Q" in past years or who have not played one or more matches on the first team in the Intercollegiate series during the current year.

The first game of the series was scheduled for yesterday afternoon at three o'clock, but only three or four players turned out for each team, so it was decided to throw out the game. Arts 16 had a rugby practice under direction of Manager T. Y. Marzyn.

About eighteen players were in uniform and practice began their first game on Wednesday afternoon.

Q.U.M.A. held a meeting on Saturday morning. Rev. S. J. M. Conpton, B.D., honorary president of the association, addressed the gathering.

A SPLENDID EVENING

Enjoyed by Young People of Princess Street Church.

The Princess street Methodist church Epworth League held a concert and sale on Monday evening to commemorate the silver jubilee of this organization. The hall was decorated and added to the success of the evening. Miss Hattie Buck occupied the chair and handled the duties to a nicety, adding interesting touches at certain intervals which created enthusiasm. After a short opening address Miss Buck called upon the following members to give three-minute addresses: Miss M. Graves, Miss M. Quin, Miss R. Kirk, Miss Bella Mack, Miss C. Barrett, Miss G. Gougeon, Miss D. Daniel, Miss C. Couper, Miss Eva Mack sang a beautiful solo. Other choruses and minor events went to make up the grand whole.

CAPTURED FINE PRIZES.

The Canadians Had a Chance To See Them.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Portsmouth, are in receipt of a very interesting letter from their son, "Tom," with the Canadian contingent at Salisbury Plain. Thomas Smith, who is a member of the 11th Regiment overseas contingent, is a personal friend of Allan Davidson, who played with Toronto's professional hockey team last winter. The letter states that Allan Davidson won the heavyweight boxing championship for the second battalion.

Several Deaths Reported.

Robert Lockberry, aged eighty, passed away at his home, Charleston road, on Oct. 23rd. He is survived by two sons, Mordof, of Athens, and Luke, at home. The funeral took place on Friday from his home to the Methodist church at Athens. Rev. George Athens officiating at the service.

At Cherry Valley, on Oct. 22nd, the death occurred of Gideon Anderson, aged seventy-one years.

He is survived by four sons and two daughters. The funeral took place on Saturday from the family residence to Cherry Valley church. Rev. Dr. Shovey conducted the service, assisted by Rev. C. Adams. Among the relatives present were deceased's eldest son, Percin, of Beamsville, and Curtis, of Gananoque. Percin was a member of the Methodist church.

Thirty Persons Want Belgians.

Immigration officer George Hunter has been able to secure places for about thirty Belgians who will come to Canada in the course of a few months. Nineteen persons from Kingston and the surrounding district have signalled their desire to engage girls as servants. Eleven or twelve persons want to adopt a young boy or girl whose parents have been taken away from them.

STILL HUNTING HER HUSBAND.

Got a Clue On Tuesday That He Was in Catarqui.

On Tuesday morning Mrs. Herbert Henderson was still looking for her husband. Mrs. Henderson came from Saskatchewan with her husband and three small children and complained to the police about her husband being missing, reference to the case being made in Monday's Whig. According to her story her husband left here on Monday morning, stating that he would take a walk around the city. He did not return and she was so much worried that she decided to inform the police. She says they were on their way to inventory. By night her husband was still missing, and she was given short by the night by a woman who kindly took charge of the family. Tuesday morning Mrs. Henderson and her three children were at the police station and she stated that she had found that her husband was at Catarqui, that she had telephoned to him and that he had promised to come back to the city. The case was drawn to the attention of Mayor Shaw and the woman and her children will be properly cared for until the runaway husband is located. He will probably reach the city some time during the day. Mrs. Henderson said that he had always been good to her and she was puzzled to know why he had gone to Catarqui and left her and children in the city. She is without money and this made the situation rather for her.

Husband Was Found.

At noon Henderson walked into the police station and a family reunion took place as a result. He was in Catarqui Monday night, visiting some relatives, and says that he had no intention of running away. The family left in the afternoon for Catarqui, where they will locate.

SALVATIONIST EVENT.

Concert by The Young Women's Guild of Bible Class.

The young women's Bible class of the Salvation Army, under the able leadership of Mrs. (Eugenie) Smith, gave a splendid concert Monday night. The band opened the programme with "O Canada." Eugene Smith introduced Ald. C. J. Graham as chairman. A chorus was then given by the young women, singing in splendid style. A vocal duet was rendered in a capable manner by Mrs. (Eugenie) Smith and her daughter, Ivy. A trio by Bert Saunders, Mrs. (Eugenie) Smith and Miss Haynes, with triangle, tambourine and cordian accompaniment, called for an encore. "The Weary School Teacher" was rendered by Mrs. (Eugenie) Smith and a class of children. Mrs. Lloyd and Miss Jennie Weaver gave recitations.

EPWORTH LEAGUE EVENT.

Held By The Young People of Queen Street Church. The Epworth league concert and sale held in the Sunday school hall of Queen street Methodist church on Monday evening was a decided success. The hall was prettily decorated with flags and streamers, the latter bearing the colors, red, white and blue, being twisted about the uprights. The decoration was undertaken by William Coburn, assisted by other young men. The sale tables were in the capable hands of several young ladies of the league. The chairman was the pastor, Rev. G. I. Campbell.

The programme was given by local talent and members of the league. The chairman asserted that owing to the present European conflict matters had been altered considerably, so much so that a week ago Monday evening a new executive had to be instituted to fill the vacancies, which had been brought about by some of the male members leaving for the front.

Solos were rendered by A. Stroud, Allan Haffner and Mrs. G. E. Reason; recitations by Miss Viola Poeschlwhite; duets by L. Drury and E. Ross. A laughable dialogue was enacted by five young people of the league. The following took part in it: Miss L. Drury, Miss E. Ross, Miss M. Blake, Thomas MacKenzie and Richard Paynter.

A fair sum was realized as a result of the event, which will go towards the funds of this thriving young people's league.

SOLDIER THROWN FROM HORSE.

An accident befell one of the local soldiers riding on horseback on Monday morning, near the corner of Bagot and William streets. The horse, when making the turn at this point, reared up and threw the driver backwards to the ground. Severe gashes were inflicted on his head, which required the attention of Dr. R. J. Gardiner.
