TAKEN THOUSAND ZUTOO TABLETS Cured 500 Headaches.

Mrs. (Dr.) Shurtleff, of Coaticook, says: "Zutoo Tablets must have cured 500 of my headaches, for I have taken 1000 tablets. After trying every remedy within reach, I discarded them all four years ago for Zutoo, which I have taken ever since. I find the tablets a harmless and efficient cure for all kinds of headache."

KAISER IS HELD HIGH BUT CROWN PRINCE "A BIT OF A FOOL!"

German Students at Front — No Quilms of Conscience — In Germany Over Violation of Belgium's Neutrality.

Toronto Weekly Star.

In contrast to the well-filled university classrooms of Canada and Great Britain, the great German seats of learning are luxuriantly boarded up until the close of the war. At one of these the university of Marburg, studied Rev. A. P. Menzies, graduate of Queen's university, Kingston, Canada. He arrived in Toronto this week, bringing with him many unusual observations of Germany in the grip of the war fever.

A WOMAN'S RIGHT TO HEALTH

No Reason Why They Should Suffer From Backaches and Headaches.

To every woman belongs the right to enjoy a healthy, active, happy life, yet nine out of ten women, often in silence, from spitting headaches, torturing backaches, violent heart palpitation or some other of the many evils that follow anaemia, of bloodlessness.

Don't Be Without It—10c

The difference in feeling between the English or American student residing in Germany, and the Canadian citizen forming his opinions at long range," remarked Mr. Menzies in an interview, "is that the former places the blame on the military caste particularly excusing the Kaiser, while the latter concentrates his fury upon the Kaiser first, and all other factors are a sorry second. Although a great deal of evidence may be cited to the contrary, the impression of most English-speaking persons whom I met in Germany was that the Kaiser's personal preferences were strongly for continued peace. To one who has seen anything of German militarist pride and the arrogant impatience that arises from a conviction of mastery, there is nothing surprising that a war should have come when it did come. How the vast German military establishment, whetted on the expectation and desire of war, kept up its fighting pitch by what amounted to a promise of real conflict, could have been held back so long is beyond my explaining. Most decidedly, the preparations of the German nation were for war, not for the everlasting preservation of peace.

"A Bit of A Fool"

It is an interesting fact that while practically all Germans have the highest regard for the Kaiser, or at least have little or no resentment for his autocracy, they view the succession of the crown prince with misgivings. Underneath the surface of good-will toward him as a young, high-spirited fellow, is the rock-bottom opinion that the prince is "a bit of a fool." I remember, for instance, hearing many German students and others remark when they saw the Kaiser in the honor of the crown prince's birthday. "Well, we hope he'll have more sense before the flag goes up again." While the emperor, his father, has never outwardly encouraged the caste of free-thinking middle-class propaganda with dignity and reserve in his relations with them, the crown prince years ago identified himself with the most rabid of his aristocratic soldiers and became their leader in what was a truly vicious propaganda.

QUEER SIGNS IN JAPAN.

Some of the very queer English signs in Tokyo and vicinity read as follows: "Shirts, Ties and Socks." (Seen over barber shop); "Barbarous Shop-Customers promptly executed." (Over a dairy); "Pure milk squeezed by a veterinary." (Over a place where clothes are renovated); "Returning and at an amendment to woolen cloth." A similar sign which we pass every day on our way to school is: "Wash and all amendments." (Over a guide's establishments); "Easily, to mostly to sense." (Over a jewelry store); "The watch reparative special." (Over a place where eggs are sold); "Extract of low sold here." (Over another dairy); "There is no diagnosis of our cow to be blamed. There is ample recreation for the cows. In some dairy's there is not so much as to swing the tail." (Over a special delivery place); "If you leave your parcels with us we will send them in every direction." (Over an office of a foreign and domestic agent); "Domestic and Exotic Agent." (Over a shoe store); "The ninety and nine shoe stores, and the name of the proprietor is given as 'Lazarus'."

All Serving At Front.

The students of the German universities are nearly all serving at the front. They are not regarded as ordinary privates, but as reservists that students are made officers of the reserve after their period of service in the army. Their efficiency is maintained by periodical drill, studies, and examinations to keep them up to date and in close touch with their men. Scores of professors, men of magnificent ability, are serving in the trenches in this war, and without a doubt, chair after chair in the great universities will have to be filled with material when the time comes to resume studies.

Correct Army Shirt.

Samples of the million shirts recently ordered by the English government from the States for army use were shown in New York recently. The shirt is about 60 per cent wool and 40 per cent cotton, and is patterned quite closely after the athletic jersey. In other words, there are no button-holes in them to tear out, the wearer simply slipping his head through an opening at the neck. The shirt sets well up around the neck of the wearer and for length comes about half way between the knee and the hip.

Street Organ Suffers in Collision With An Auto.

An automobile collided with a street organ the other day and the auto went into the curb. The organ didn't escape, however. It lost six notes from the upper set of a tango waltz and broke two ribs from its collection of popular Scotch airs. Its ragtime love songs were badly jolted, too, and large sections were gouged from its "Silver Threads Among the Gold."

Much Pain From Kidney Disease

Doctored in Vain Until Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills Were Used.

Kidney derangements are often associated with disorders of the liver and bowels, and under these conditions ordinary kidney medicines usually fail to effect cure. It is because of their unique, combined action on the liver, kidneys and bowels that Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are so generally successful, even in the most complicated cases.

Mr. Emanuel Bernard, farmer, St. Paul, Kent county, N.B., writes: "About eighteen years ago my wife was laid with kidney disease, and suffered greatly from headaches, pains in bowels and stomach, and her heart was affected. For a year she was treated by her doctor, with no apparent benefit. She then used five boxes of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills with most satisfactory results. This gave us such a good opinion of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills that we always keep them in the house to be used for all derangements of the kidneys, liver and bowels." Belgian Atrocities.

"Of the atrocities to Belgian peasants, I do not doubt the truth, but I would attribute part of the blame for zhoelistic tactics in warfare to the principle of conscription. Every male creature able to bear arms is gathered in and forced to fight his country's battles. Side by side one finds the best and the lowest types, musicians and merchants along with persons lacking the decency of dogs. Small wonder, therefore, that in a state of anarchy such as exists at first in a conquered country, these frightful occurrences should be reported."

"We had in the university of Marburg one, Prof. Shucking, whose utterances prior to the war, would have tickled the palates of Canadians. The professor, who possessed an international reputation, reiterated in our classrooms that Germany's policy was badly designed, and would eventually bring the country to grief. He called at Birmingham as signalling not a constructive epoch, but a retrogression in the history of Germany, for which comment he drew upon his head a storm of criticism and abuse. On
