

PREACHING THE GOSPEL

GREATEST CONTRIBUTION OF MINISTER TO SUNDAY SCHOOL

Such was Declaration of Rev. Hugh Cameron Addressing Meeting of Ministers at Sunday School Convention - Another Large Crowd Attended the Night Rally.

The greatest contribution a minister can make to the Sunday school is that of preaching the gospel. This was the message of Rev. Hugh Cameron...

"And I challenge any minister of this question," added the speaker who dealt with the subject, "The Minister's Best Contribution to the Sunday School."

He said that the preacher must preach the gospel facts so that the workers might be freely persuaded of the message. God's word is a revelation and it would be the height of folly for a preacher to speak on his doubts as it would tend to unsettle the minds of his hearers.

He must preach the truths and the facts for the extension of God's kingdom. He must not be dreaming of devising a new gospel. He must preach on certainties. He must also preach the gospel of service love and brotherhood which inspire him.

He must emphasize the great need of home training of the children for on this more than anything else determines the character of the children.

TO ADD MORE LIGHTS

IN MARINE CIRCLES

Chief Armstrong to Make Inspection of Streets. Chief Reports Upon the Fire Conventions He Attended at Stratford and New Orleans.

The Civic Fire and Light committee met on Thursday afternoon and discussed a few matters, principally about the placing of lights in certain areas. The fire chief complained about the lights being turned off on Ontario street from the city buildings extending to the limits of the street southward, after a certain hour at night.

This will be remedied. Lights will also be placed at the foot of Gore street so that the soldiers going to and from their station at the Cereal building will have a better chance of escaping being injured while going down that dark thoroughfare.

Chief Armstrong has been left the responsibility of making a trip about the city at nights and seeing if all the lights which have been installed are all connected up. It is to make a report at the next meeting of the committee.

The report embodied the following: For the first time in the history of the association there was no exhibition any horse drawn apparatus or supplies for horses, and it was the general opinion of the chiefs that it would be only a short time when the horse would be dispensed with for fire department work.

The most important committee of the convention is that of the committee on exhibits and appointments to it are highly valued. For the second time in three years, I was appointed to this committee as the representative of the Canadian chiefs.

The committee arranged for a six hour test of the motor pumping machines, and five machines were delivered to the committee, and in conjunction with the engineers of the National Board of Fire Underwriters of the United States, the tests were held and the machines thoroughly examined afterwards and found to be in first class condition.

While on the way to New Orleans I also attended the annual meeting of the provincial association of fire chiefs at Stratford, and here also there was nothing on exhibit for the horse or horse drawn apparatus. The 1913 convention held in Kingston is still remembered with pleasure by a large number of the chiefs who attended as the best meeting in the history of the association.

Connections at Detroit requiring a stop over at that point in company with a number of other chiefs, I visited the Walkerville fire department and found that it had been completely motorized, their equipment consisting of two combination chemical and hose cars, each having a capacity of twenty three hundred feet of fire hose in addition to the chemical equipment and small tools, an aerial truck 75 feet ladder, but has now a "Seagrave" tractor instead.

The city of Windsor has also decided to dispense with horses and has several pieces of motor apparatus already. Mr. Thomas, chief of Stratford, has also motorized his fire hose and chemical cars while the cities of London, Hamilton, and Toronto have also installed these machines and all their chiefs speak favorably of the reduction in cost of upkeep and the efficiency of the motors as compared with horses.

Ontario has set contracts for about $50,000, worth of motor apparatus this year, and the intention is to motorize the entire department. The most valuable parts of these meetings are the personal talks with the chiefs where experiences are exchanged, and mistakes noted and information gained. In the many problems that face a fire chief at times and which have to be decided instantly, without the opportunity for consultation as to the line of action to be taken. Mistakes in handling fire are costly and the chief who is compelled to get his experience in actual work, will soon prove to be a costly official.

A SUCCESSFUL CONCERT

Held at Zion Church Under Auspices of Girls' Circle.

A delightful entertainment took place in Zion Presbyterian church, under the auspices of the Girls' Circle. The following talented friends contributed towards the programme: Misses Vail, and Ely, Spooner, L. Saunders, W. Hubble, M. Clark and C. Gibson, who contributed some excellent pianoforte selections and solos; Messrs. Haflner and Muckle, who sang solos which were much enjoyed; and Mr. Arnold, whose violin selections were well received.

A very clever sketch, entitled "Dr. Cure-All," was presented and warmly appreciated by a large and enthusiastic audience. Great credit is reflected on the ladies and gentlemen who so ably took part in the play. The part of Cure-All was well played by J. J. Black, who was well supported by G. Murray, and Misses N. and L. Spooner, L. and D. Buse, N. Gibson, F. Cook, M. Stafford, M. Boyd and H. Harris. The sketch was composed of two acts, between which vocal and instrumental music, chiefly of a patriotic nature, was rendered.

Refreshments were served towards the close by the members of the Girls' Circle. The chairman, C. H. Ballard, in a few well-chosen words, voiced the unanimous appreciation of the audience, and the gathering was brought to a close by the singing of the national anthem.

The members of the Girls' Circle deserve the heartiest congratulations of the church members and friends for providing such an enjoyable evening's entertainment. Rev. J. D. and Mrs. Boyd much appreciated the successful effort on behalf of the church.

No show was held this year but in all probability there will be one this season, and it was decided that the exhibition for 1915 will be held the Wednesday or Thursday following the Toronto fair.

Mr. Longden in a humorous manner expressed the hope to after which the keener back in Germany, which may not be long, we will then be able to think more of horticultural shows than militarism which now has grasped everyone.

It was announced that instructional addresses will be given throughout the winter months and already some speakers have been picked to deliver them.
