Mighty Satisfied

Is the man who places himself within our hands for the writing of a Fire Insurance Policy, because every policy that we write is backed by reliable companies at rates as low as safety allows. We've known men to hold policies that looked all right and worked all wrong before and after a fire. Ask us to place your insurance and you'll find yourself in the safest of hands. To-day? May be too late to-morrow.

Furniture Carpets Draperies

GOOD FURNITURE increases in value with age—it doesn't go to pieces, it retains its finish, and if it's a good antique design—which is really the up-to-date style—it is worth more fifty years hence than it is now. Young couples should consider this when buying. It will pay you to see our lines of NEW FURNITURE copied from OLD DESIGNS and which will get more valuable further on.

Our Rugs and Carpets to match are more than mere floor coverings. They are art in their designs and harmony in their color effects, so that YOUR NEW HOME loses all its stiffness and becomes a joy forever. Our new line of Parlor Suits in mahogany, oak and also in solid mahogany, are covered to your order and in keeping with rug, etc. $20.00 up to $150. See our Mahogany Bedroom Suits, some special.

THE HALLS OF QUEEN'S CAUGHT IN THE ACT

THE ATHLETIC COMMITTEE IN NEED OF FUNDS.

Queen's and Ottawa Debate on December 12th—Sermon in Convocation Hall by Prof. Welch, of Montreal.

The Sunday morning service at convocation hall was well attended. The preacher was Rev. Prof. Welch, D.D., of Montreal, who took his text from II Timothy 1, vi: "Wherefore I stir thee in remembrance that thou stur up the gift of God which is in thee." The subject of his sermon was, "The Relation of Inheritance and Personal Power." The task of this university and all others is to transmit the knowledge of the strong minds of one generation to the feeble minds of the next generation. The aim of colleges is to personalize the life of students. A false Christian is one who learns the word of God, and keeps it to himself, but a real Christian is one who spreads his knowledge amongst the less fortunate. The aristocracy of Christians prevented men from relying on their own value of strength. The inheritance of humanity will accompany every great movement whether political, financial, spiritual or other kind. In concluding his sermon Prof. Welch said that the memory of Christian piety is a sort of adoration, something for us to look up to. It will elevate us if we stir up the gift of God which is in us and in our people. We should not ignore it, but should achieve it and rise above the natural timidity of the world.

The meeting of the Alma Mater Society in convocation hall on Saturday night was fairly well attended. Mr. Mathewson gave the report of the boxing, fencing and wrestling club. He said that Queen's ought to do well this year in the intercollegiate assault-at-arms, because they had some good material this year. He pointed out that at last year's assault-at-arms Queen's had broken even with Varsity and had been only two points behind McGill. He said that he thought Queen's would win out this year. He submitted the names of the officers elected on Wednesday night for the club, for approval of A.M.S. This report was received and adopted.

J. Dawson gave the report of the athletic committee. He said that the football season had not been a good one, because of R.M.C. dropping out of the league, and that the financial balance was not very large. The committee had tried to economize in every way. In spite of this the committee is short of funds and he had sent a letter to the yearling men to appoint two men to collect one dollar from each man of the year for the athletic committee. This would help matters till the rink started. He also said that great expense had been gone to last summer in draining two tennis courts.

Mr. Stathers gave the report of the debate committee. The first intercollegiate debate would be held on December 12th, between Ottawa and Queen's. The second parliament continued till 9.50 o'clock.

KINGSTON BOYS READY TO LEAVE FOR THE FRONT WHEN ORDER IS GIVEN.

The Whig has received a letter from Private W. H. MacLeod, of 163 York street, who is now at Salisbury Plains, Eng., attached to No. 1 Field Ambulance corps, in which he says:

"Just a few lines to let you know that we are all well, and hope the people of Kingston are the same. We landed at the camp here all right, and are having a good time. There are seven men in our tent. George W. Gibson, C. Smith, H. Haggarty, W. Gibson, E. H. Oakes, all Kingston boys, and we have a great time. During the forepart of November we will be inspected by King George and we expect a large review to be held on the day of his arrival. We expect to be in Salisbury Plains for some months before going to the front. "It is not because we are not trained well enough that we are being held here. We are all in readiness to leave if the order is given, but I do not think, judging by the way the war is going, that we will be needed at all."

Five Taken Away.

Rev. G. L. Campbell, in Queen Street Methodist church, on Sunday evening spoke sympathetically regarding the death of five of his congregation, who had passed away during the last eighteen days. These were, Messrs Bruce, Cliff, Smylie, Mrs. Francis and Howard Smith, a lad of fourteen years who was secretary of the Junior Epworth League. He made reference to each one of the deceased, dwelling upon their character and christian life. The choir rendered suitable music.

An Impressive Meetings

An earnest and impressive gospel meeting was held at the Brock street hall Sunday evening. D. Campbell spoke from the parable of the lost sheep. He was followed by H. G. Lockett from the text, "The world by wisdom knew not God." The subject was well handled, and Christ was shown to be Wisdom personified and the only way of salvation. Richard Irving, evangelist, was announced for Tuesday evening.

James Clark and James Smith Were Given a Month in Jail — Member Of "Prohibited List" Fined.

James Clark and James Smith, strangers in our midst, did not take very long to get into trouble when they started in to see the sights on Saturday. Both have a very "taking" way about them, so when they mingled with the crowd in the store of F. W. Woolworth & Co. they just helped themselves to a few articles on one of the counters. But an alert clerk caught them in the act, with the result that a police constable was called, the goods recovered, and the two men placed in the police cells. In police court, Monday morning, the magistrate gave each a month in jail.

William J. Grant was fined $10 and costs for an infraction of the liquor license act. It was said of him that he tried to get a drink at the Colliery hotel, when he was on the "forbidden list."

Thomas W. Foster is alleged to be in the same boat as Grant, but his case was not disposed of. The particulars will be heard on Wednesday. It appears that Grant and Foster went into the hotel together, but the bartender, who was well posted on the "prohibited list," refused to come across with the liquor when he spotted them as members of the list. And he went still further than that, as he called up the inspector and as a result the two charges were laid. A drunk was called upon to pay a fine of $1 and costs.

HE LIKES KINGSTON

Thomas Davis Did Not Obey Orders Or the Magistrate

Thomas Davis, arrested as a vagrant and who appeared in the police court on Saturday morning, was ordered by the magistrate to return to his home in Picton. Davis evidently likes Kingston, however, as he did not leave. On Monday a police constable accompanied him to the wharf and made sure that Thomas started out for Picton. He was arrested by Constable Jenkins, and it is charged that he was "holding up" people for money. The register at the police station shows that he paid a visit to Kingston just about a year ago.

Hit By Train; Leg Broken

John Dunster, who hails from Montreal, met with an accident at the foot of Brock street on Saturday afternoon as he was crossing the G. T. R. tracks, resulting in him having his left leg broken. The shunting engine was placing cars in this vicinity, and Dunster attempted to cross the tracks. The train struck him and flung him heavily to one side where he lay until James Reid's ambulance removed him to the Hotel Diet. The injured man had come to the city last Tuesday on a boat.
