INT. COLLEGIATE HARRIER RACE HERE SATURDAY.

Collegiate and Guelph Play Junior Inter-Collegiate Rugby Game at Athletic Grounds Saturday Afternoon.

The Varsity harrier team of Toronto arrived in the city on Friday afternoon, and the Guelph football team which plays K.C.I. on Saturday also arrived the same afternoon.

The harrier race which Queen's, McGill and Varsity teams compete in will start from Queen's gymnasium at ten o'clock Saturday morning and cover a distance of five miles.

Last Saturday a successful harrier race was pulled off at the local Y.M.C.A., in which some of Queen's harrier team competed. If the latter make as good a showing in the race to-morrow as they did then, the laurels are already in sight.

Collegiate vs. Guelph

The Kingston Collegiate Institute line-up, which will meet Guelph Agricultural College in the junior inter-collegiate game on Saturday in Kingston, will be: Flying wing, W. Carroll; right half, Wheeler; centre, J. Stewart; left half, S. Toland; quarter, J. Evans; scrum, Young, Minnes, Ferguson; outside wings, K. Toland, C. Stewart; middle wings, Walsh, McConville; inside wings, Drury, Freeman.

Donnelly With McGill

"Joe" Donnelly, whose amateur standing was last year questioned, is to play with McGill against Queen's in Montreal on Saturday, and McGill is wondering if Queen's will offer any objection. Apparently McGill is not sure of winning when it brings into play a man regarding whom there is any question. It seems a pity that McGill cannot get along without players whose record is at all tainted with professionalism.

Queen's For Montreal

The Queen's rugby team left for Montreal on the 1.08 p.m. Grand Trunk train Friday. It took a number of extra players and evidently expect a rough game. The players are in excellent condition and feeling in high spirits. They seem confident that they will win. The line-up will be chosen from the following players: Flying wing McQuay; quarter, Quigley; halves, Hallett and Rowlands; Hill, Gilbody or Hara; scrum, Kennedy, White, Cook, Robbins, and Dunsmore; inside wings, Ellis and Pilgrim; middle wings, Berwill and Priest; outside wings, Shim, Box and Minnes. E. O. Sitter and W. J. Morrison will officiate.

AUSTRIANS WITH GUNS HURRY FROM BELGIUM.

To Take Part in Defense of Cracow — Three "Jack Johnsons" Were Smashed by British Shells.

Amsterdam, Nov. 13.—Nearly 1,000 Austrian artillerymen with eight twelve-inch guns passed through Liege yesterday for Cracow, having been withdrawn from the Belgian battlefield to strengthen the endeavor to stem the Russian avalanche. Four thousand Germans arrived yesterday, having been severely wounded in the fighting in Flanders, while their 16 1-2 inch guns which had been smashed by British artillery fire are in town.

Preparations for the swift transport of troops from the west are being proceeded with. The road from Alost to Brussels is marked with red poles, and on the road from Brussels to Liege all the trees are whitewashed, the quickest route to Germany being thus plainly indicated.

Only half a pound of bread is allowed to the residents of Liege. Food is also scarce at Antwerp, where stores were accidentally burned on Sunday.

English prisoners are (words struck out by censor) conveyed in closed goods trucks, inscribed, "This cattle may not be fed."

GENERAL HUGHES SPEAKS

About Shell Contracts and Recruiting in Canada.

Major-General Sam Hughes, when asked at Ottawa as to the making of shells for the allied armies, said that when in England and since he had endeavored to impress upon the British war office representatives the fact that the Canadian foundries would be able to carry out any contract they made for the delivery of shells up to the number of five million. The minister of militia stated that he was surprised to learn that contracts for shells had been given to American firms at higher prices than they could be obtained for in Canada.

As to the report that there was a corner on army supplies in New York the minister of militia stated that he had no knowledge of anything of the kind and he could not believe that such a combine existed. A new system of dealing with army contracts would shortly be inaugurated, as a result of which his personal attention would not be necessary for this work, which in the past has considerably added to the onerous duties of the war minister.

As regards recruiting, General Hughes observed that from the speed with which enlistment was going on it was evident that not 30,000 but 150,000 men could still be raised in Canada without much difficulty.

ALL ACCEPT THE STANDARD.

The Ontario Colleges Are All in the Union.

G. Y. Chown, Registrar of Queen's University, has just returned from attending a meeting of the matriculation board at Toronto, and was pleased to announce that the Ottawa University has joined the organization, and hereafter throughout Ontario, there will be one standard matriculation for admittance to the colleges.

Death At Odessa.

The death occurred at Odessa on Thursday of George Ferguson, a much-respected resident of that place for many years. Deceased was seventy-eight years of age, and was born in the township of Kingston. He is survived by his wife but no family. He acted as janitor at the Anglican church, of which he was a member, and he also acted as janitor of the village hall. The funeral will take place on Saturday morning. Interment will be made at Mervale. Rev. A. L. McTear, of Bath, will officiate at the services.

WAR TRAPPINGS ONLY.

Says Major-General Hughes to His Officers.

Ottawa, Free Press. Major-General, the Hon. Sam Hughes has returned from England with a lot of new ideas. He has been busy promulgating these ideas through the Canadian militia department. He is said to spring new one every five minutes in the day, and his subordinates have at last come to the conclusion that he is "fed up" with them.

General Hughes has been within sound, if not within range, of the guns, and he has breathed war, bloody war, into the officers of his department who have been so busy on the details of organization that they have almost forgotten the smell of powder.

One of the new orders of general Hughes, which went into effect to-day, is that, at all times and on all occasions, the officers and men of the headquarters staff shall wear their khaki uniforms. No longer are they to appear in mufti, not even on the most private social or home occasions.

General Hughes thinks even that they should wear khaki nightwear, preferably the regulation uniform of the working day. Indeed, General Hughes doesn't know why the officers of his headquarters staff should want to sleep at all — he doesn't himself.

A scene from "Annie Laurie" to be presented by the Scotch Players at the Grand on Wednesday, Nov. 18th.

Appreciates the Honor.

Dr. J. G. Evans, secretary of the Kingston Veterans' Association, had an interview with Major-General Sam Hughes, minister of militia, on Friday morning, and made it known to the latter that he had been elected the first honorary president of the association. The minister responded by telling how he appreciated the honor and said that he was pleased to be affiliated with such an organization. Major-General Hughes asserted that he would do all in his power to further the veterans' cause and consented to give an address to the veterans upon his next visit to the city.

HELD JAPANESE TEA.

Pleasant Event at Home of Mrs. R. M. Douglas, Thursday.

The Japanese tea held at the home of Mrs. R. M. Douglas, Nelson street, on Thursday afternoon, from three till six o'clock, under the auspices of the Olive Branch Mission Band of Cooke's church, was a pleasant event. A fine programme was rendered by members of the band, who were attired in Japanese costumes. The programme consisted of Japanese choruses, recitations and songs. There was a home-made and candy table, and a goodly sum was realized as a result of the effort put forth by the members of the band. Mrs. R. M. Douglas was in charge of the training of the children, who went through their programme in an able manner.

Mrs. James Dunlop and Master Mack Douglas had charge of the home-made table, while Miss Florence Douglas looked after the candy table.

Mrs. Fair and Mrs. Hugh Douglas had charge of the tea room and were assisted by Misses Grace Paul, Lillian Mack, Lily Sharp and May Thornton.

The rooms were prettily decorated with Japanese lanterns and parlors.
