A Woman should Know
 That neglected coughs and colds—especially in children—lead to consumption. Prevention is better than cure; and Peps spell prevention!
 Peps are small pastilles containing pine fumes and certain highly beneficial medicinal preparations condensed into solid form. As soon as you put a Peps on your tongue, these healing essences turn into vapor, and are breathed down direct to the lungs, air vessels, and breathing-tubes.
 You—or your child—may have a troublesome cough. Perhaps it is especially bad at night! Take a Peps before going to bed—your cough will not trouble you! Your lungs are perhaps a little weak, and going from the warm house into the cold air outside makes you cough! Just before going out, put a Peps into your mouth—there will be no coughing! Your throat feels "stuffed up." Your chest feels tight, and your breathing troubles you! Peps will put matters right for you very quickly.
 Peps, while quickly turning to vapor as soon as put into the mouth, will retain their goodness indefinitely, if kept dry. Each little Peps pastille is packed in an air-tight wrapping, which is easily removed, and they are packed in neat tin-packet boxes. They are not sticky, and may be carried loose in the pocket, or glove, or muff.
 Peps are a sure cure for coughs, colds, bronchitis, asthma, sore throat, "smoker's throat," laryngitis, catarrh, "clergyman's throat," and all disorders, and ailments of the throat, breathing-tubes, and lungs. Peps contain no opiate, no poison.
 All druggists and stores 50c. box, and direct from Peps Co., Toronto, for 75c. per box. Mail this article and 1c. stamp, and a sample packet of Peps will be sent you. Address Peps Co., Toronto, or 52 Princess St., Winnipeg.

SAGE AND SULPHUR DARKENS GRAY HAIR
 It's Grandmother's Recipe to Restore Color, Gloss and Thickness.
 Hair that loses its color and lustre or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmothers made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.
 Nowadays we get this famous mixture by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyle's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. Besides, it takes off dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyle's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

The monthly meeting of the W.M.S. was held at the home of Mrs. Charles Adams on Wednesday afternoon. Andrew Spencer and son, Halton, went to Stockdale, this week, to see Mrs. C. Walt, who is very ill. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lant were recent visitors at E. Wycott's. A quiet wedding took place on Wednesday, when Owen Cork and Miss Elsie Adams were united in marriage. They will take up residence on Arden Blakely's farm. Mrs. Bruce Irvine and little daughter, Marguerite, Hillier, spent a couple of days at E. Parliament's last week.

Fernleigh Tidings.
 Fernleigh, Nov. 11.—Farmers are ploughing. The forests are being cleared by the lumbermen who have thronged the backwoods to enjoy the season's sport. Deer, however, do not seem to be very plentiful this year. Harvey Leeman is spending a few weeks under the parental roof at Fort Godwin, Kingston, is visiting at his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Hicks. Mrs. Hicks still seems to be very poorly. Burton Bauder and Bruce Storms, Verona, also George Morie, are visiting at Fort Godwin. Alan Fretter has moved to Fernleigh and will spend the winter at Alpheus Lyons'. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wood, Mountain Grove, spent a few days with her parents; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bauder, and Mrs. Lema Derne and Cora Godkin, also the Messrs. Fork Godkin, Charles Feller, Hubert Bauder and William Derue, all spent Sunday last at Richard Bauder's, M. R. Reid, I.P.S., visited the village school last week.

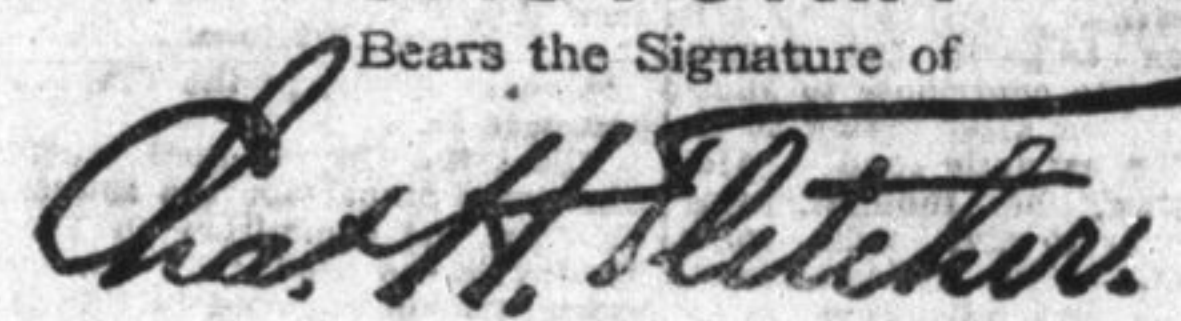

Yankee Socks Are Thin.
 London, Nov. 17.—A well-informed army contractor said today:
 "The thinness of the American socks is the most annoying thing about your country's valued aid. The socks which come up to the British army specifications are not thicker than can be found anywhere in England, but Americans do not seem to manufacture socks fit enough to keep their ankles warm."

READY FOR DUTY.
 Following in the Footsteps of Their Ancestor.
 Picton Gazette.
 Judson Young, son of G. R. Young, Picton, has joined the second Canadian contingent at Edmonton. His brother, Sherman, is at Salisbury Plain with the first contingent, having enlisted with the 16th Regiment. Two letters from Sherman, one written on board the steamer Cassandra, and the other from Salisbury Plain, are printed in this issue of the Times. The young boys are direct descendants of Col. Henry Young, who was the first white man to settle in Prince Edward county. Col. Henry Young was born in 1737 and joined the British army at the age of eighteen. He was with General Abercrombie when he attacked the French fort now called Tyondogaga, and with General Amherst when he captured the same fort the following year. With General Amherst he marched from Albany, by way of Lake Champlain and Montreal, to unite with the forces from Quebec under General Murray, and he was with General Bradstreet in 1759 at the taking of Fort Frontenac and the town of Cataragui, the site of Kingston. He remained in the army until peace was declared in 1763. At the outbreak of the revolutionary war he again joined the British forces under General Burgoyne, whom he accompanied on his famous march against Tyondogaga, captured in 1777. During the French and revolutionary wars he fought in seventeen battles and was wounded, but once, and then in his right hand. In 1780 Henry Young was sent to Kingston with a detachment of troops under Major Ross. They landed in a small inlet just north of Cedar Island and known as Dead Man's Bay. He was the first Loyalist to step ashore. He spent three years assisting Major Ross and his party to build the fort on Carlton Island at Oswego. It is said that Fort Henry at Kingston was named after Henry Young. It was in 1783 that Col. Young made the journey from Kingston up the bay to the site of Picton and in company with another explorer travelled through the woods to East lake and across the West lake beach and back to their old home at Tyondogaga. The following year he brought his family to Prince Edward county. The military spirit of the pioneer has evidently descended to the family of G. R. Young, his great-grandson, for his two sons are following in the footsteps of their illustrious predecessor in fighting Great Britain's battles.

Thomas Arthur's and J. W. Hollings.
 At Washburn's Corners.
 Washburn's Corners, Nov. 13.—James Hannah, Athens, is painting L. Washburn's new residence. The thermometer marked just fifteen degrees above zero on Tuesday morning. Among the members of the second contingent who left on Monday for Kingston to go into training for foreign service were L. O. Moulton, of Washburn's Corners; Lenius Bates, of Athens, and John Stewart, of Andover. Mrs. P. Washburn, of Soperston, has leased her farm to Mr. Goodbody. M. B. Holmes, of Athens, is in Toronto this week, attending the annual convention of the Ontario Beekeepers, and the annual exhibition of the Floral Society. Sixty-two members of the Andover branch of the Washington friends at Warburton recently. The patrons of many cheese factories throughout these united counties are contributing the receipts of one day's supply of milk to the patriotic fund. Mr. and Mrs. William Keys, of Saskatchewan, are visiting friends in Athens and vicinity. Six large bales of clothing were packed on Friday evening, at Athens, for the relief of the Belgians. Within the last week fourteen carloads of cattle have been shipped east on the B. & W. The party held in the town hall, Athens, on Wednesday evening, was a pleasant affair. High class music was furnished by an orchestra from Prescott. The proceeds will go to the patriotic fund. W. Flood and family, of Junetown, visited relatives here recently. A number from here attended the funeral of the late A. Bonsteel, on Tuesday. Services were conducted by Rev. George Edwards in the Methodist church, Athens. T. E. Kelly, of London, Ont., visited relatives in Ottawa on Monday. Mrs. Earl, of Ottawa, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. C. Aiguire, Athens. Lantern views of beautiful Scottish scenes were exhibited at the Epworth League meeting, Monday evening, at Athens, and were greatly enjoyed by the young people. Miss E. Percival, a former student of Athens high school, has been appointed nurse and supervisor of Watertown, N.Y., city hospital. Several including Brockville, was represented by sixty delegates at the Sunday school convention held at Kingston last week.
