"This is from Jerry, isn't it?"
Looks like his writing." Amy's mother took up a square parcel wrapped in a pale blue paper and tied with a silver cord.

"Yes, I think so." And Amy lifted it with eager hands. "It's heavy," she declared, her eyes sparkling. ' wonder what it can be, mamma. While her pretty face glowed with anticipation she slipped the cord and hastily undid the wrapping, revealing a small box. "It's from Car- such an anxious tone if I was mad roll & Baker's," she announced with and if I didn't like his present. His ticle of white china. "A dog! A china dog! Well, o! all the queer things to send a girl

A hurt look crept into Amy's brown eyes. She cast a glance at the card, on which was scrawled: "Best wishes to my girl," and tore it into Then she took up the inno cent little china dog, his head cock ed on one side in a knowing attit dogs while she regarded it with eyes slowly filled with tears. She swal- it, please. Her feelings are very much Philadelphia. lowed a sob and looked up. at her hurt."

a think like this?" she asked, "It some kind. You know those carved lucky elephants you buy at Japan-spite of herself, "It shows how much Jerry cares about me." Her mother lifted the dog and examining it with careful scrutiny, as if some ulterior meanstruction. She put it down on the "Perhaps it's only some of Jerry's fun, and he will bring you

"It's a poor joke." Amy spoke angrily, twisting her engagement ring with nervous fingers. "I've a good mind to send him back his ring and tell him if that old china dog is all he can find to give a girl he's promised to marry -- Did the 'phone bell ring just now, mamma?"

"Yes; I'll answer it." "It's Jerry," said her mother, with have you put the dog?" one hand over the receiver. "Now, Amy stiffened herself slightly "The New Shylock," a new play Be careful what you say."

Jerry !" she called. "Yes, I got it. Only a few minutes ago. Thank you her face between his hands. "That is laid in the ghetto of New York, in ever so much for re-remembering me. dog means a great deal to me. It which the author lived for over two My voice sounds queer? I don't know is exactly like a dog I used to own years as a resident worker at the uniwhy it should, Jerry. I thought it when I was a kid. I had a pretty versity settlement.

ou will find relief in Zam-Buk! eases the burning, stinging in, stops bleeding and brings Buk, means cure. Why not prove this ? All Druggists and Stores - satisfaction. "I believe it's a sitvoice sounded so worried. I had to say it was lovely to comfort him. I'm such a goose." With which Amy took enveloping cotton produced an article of white china.

I believe it's a sitvoice sounded so worried. I had to say it was lovely to comfort him. I'm such a goose." With which Amy took the dog and went to her room for a

Fred C. Whitney for a leading role alone later in the day, her father ask. stage soon, after a retirement of two for a birthday present!" her mother ed. "By the way, what did Jerry give years owing to a nervous break-

"A china dog." "A what?"

"What I just told you. A hins dog a perece of bric-a-brac." "Well, well! That beats me. A china dog ! Let me see this wonder-Amy's father pursed his lips. should have said that chap hadn't a nean streak in him. Some mistake about it. I guess." "I'm atraid not," came slowly from his wife's lips. "Poor Amy's birthday is quite spoiled. The child tries "Well, you never heard of a lucky to be cheerful, but I notice her lips tremble the way they do when something has hurt her.' "Jerry's invited to dinner here,

It will be very embarrassing. A few minutes before the dinner hour Amy was in the dining Following the success of "The Batroom, putting the last touches to where Jerry, eyes bright and face Buck, author of the novel from ruddy with cold, was removing his duced a festive looking box of Rocky Mountains.

sweets to the sweet."

word of thanks. "Let's see your of the twenty-five principals touch presents," Jerry went on, putting the stage. The first performance of his arm around her waist. "Where the play took place at the Park thea-

Amy, don't be undignified about this. within his encircling arm. "It's up- by Herman Scheffauer of New York, stairs in my room," she said in a has been produced with success at took the receiver. "Hello, firm tone, determined not to cry." Miss Horniman's Repertory theatre

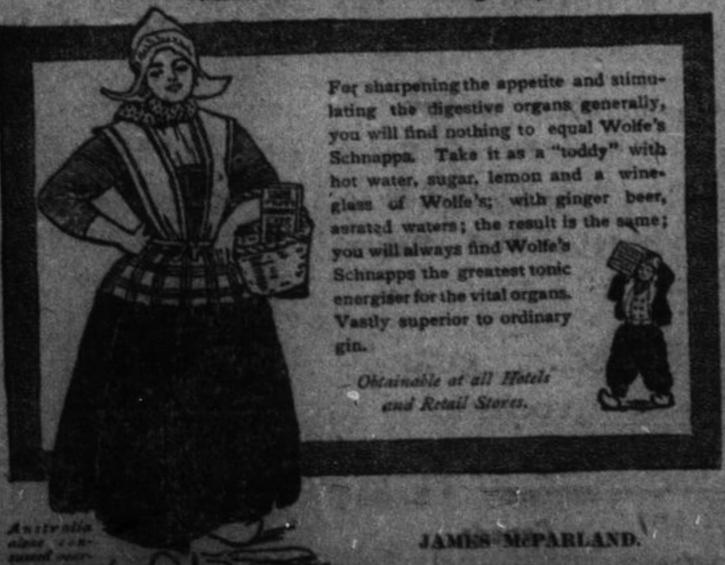

REGULATE YOUR BOWELS AND STOP HEADACHES, COLDS, SOUR STOMACH

Cascarets make you feel bully; bowels. A Cascaret to-night straightthey immediately cleanse and sweet- ens you out by morning a 10-cent en the stomach, remove the sour, un- box from any druggist keeps your digested and fermenting food and Stomach regulated, Head clear and foul gases; take the excess bile from Liver and Bowels in fine condition the fiver and carry off the constipat- for months. Don't forget the chil- plays the part of Christ in the Obered waste matter and poison from the dren.

K. F. Sam Hand Laundry

Special attention to students. No acids used; no torn clothes. All work guaranteed.

you bought it and gave it to me.'

Amy said tenderly. With a low laugh of satisfaction Jerry bent his head and kissed her. "I don't mind telling you I was scared green after I'd ordered it sent to you," he said. "I almost held my breath when you told me over the 'phone you thought it was lovely. That's why I care so much for you I know you will understand. I wouldn't have dared to send a dog to another girl in the world!" Amy was silent. In her heart was a petition that she might always have faith to understand.

DOINGS IN STAGELAND

in "Lady Luxury." When her father and mother were | Melvin Hunt will return to the

> "The Beautiful Adventure" will go to the Blackstone Theatre in Chicago, Ill., for an indefinite engagement beginning on November 30.

Charles Frohman's next production is to be "Driven," a comedy by E. Temple Thurston, originally given at her. Don't say anything to her about The American opening will be in

Selwyn and Co., have accepted a " new play by James Forbes, author

Marie Doro, who is associated with William Gillette and Blanche Bates in "Diplomacy," is to do "The Morals of Marcus" for the films under the direction of the Famous Players Company.

"Pilate's Daughter," a miracle play by Francis L. Kenzel, in which only women appear, will be presented at the Garden theatre, New York, on Nov. 23rd. There are one hundred and fifty players in the cast. tle Cry," which is now at the Lyric the table. She hurried into the hall theatre, New York, Charles Neville overcoat. From the pocked he pro- decided to write a play of life in the

The theatregoers of New York "For the sweetest girl in the who are looking for novelty should world," he said, gayly "as they say, and it in abundance in "The Garden Amy took the box with a quiet beneath the ocean and during it none tre, Nov 16th.

"See here, Amy," and Jerrk took in Manchester, England. The scene was perfectly levely, of course !" hard time of it at home with my Harold Chapin, the author, of Amy turned to her mother with a stepfather and that dog was my "The Marriage of Columbine," has puzzled expression. "I can't under comfort. I don't suppose a girl been located. A letter received restand it at all, mamma. Jerry seemed knows how much a dog can be to a cently from Mr. Chapin in London, excited and nervous and wanted to hoy. When he was run over by the says he has been "wielding a stretknow if the present he ordered sent cars my heart was about broken." cher" in the hospital corps in Belme from Carroll & Baker's had come. Poor Jerry! I'm glad, yes glad, glum, but at the time of writing was

> "The Crimson Rambler." is the name of May Irwin's new show. Elsie Janis has been engaged to play in photo-drama in Los Angeles. Anna Pavlova has opened her New York season with her troupe of 54

"The Salamander" will be shelved as the result of the lukewarm approval of New York. In arranging a new vaudeville act Valeska Suratt allows for eight different costumes in 20 minutes. ammergan Passion Play, has written a friend in this country that he has been excused from army service, but he asked to be assigned hospital The Shubert theatrical company has been compelled by the courts to pay a handsome sum in back royalties to the Viennese authors of "The Blue Mouse". The latter, Julius Horst and Alexander Engel, sued for Rumors to the effect that Na will leave the stage for good are contradicted by Mr. Goodwin's man-He is playing "Never Say Die," so the contradiction must be

In keeping with the general campaign for "made in Canada" goods a movement has been started to organize a Canadian repertory theatre in Toronto to encourage Canadian players and to produce dramas of the better class.

One result of the European war will be the closing of the principal on of war. Most of the employe as a matter of fact, are serving in

Worth Every Cent Of It.

After many years of service in the arduous fields of Western Canada a divine retired to his native On tario town for a holiday.

For several week he visited amon his relatives, finally settling for victuals in silence, but finally decide was laying butter very thick upon his bread. "John, do you know that that butter costs me 32 cents pound?" He stopped a moment in flence, and then resumed the buttering operation, enthusiastically exclaiming. "Worth every cent of it; worth every cent of it!"

Urge Italy To Fight. Rome, Nov. 20 .- Over 110 men ers of parliament, comprising radiconstitutional democrats an clatists, have formed a federation o combat the neutrality attitude and trive for Italy's participation in the war on the side of England and France. Robert Sayer of Sault Ste. Marie,

Ont., is under arrest, charged with ligh treason in ferrying Austrians cross the border.

同何何何何何何何何何何何何何

Your Best Defence

Against Climate, Weather and Ill Health is

CONTRACTOR UNSURINKALISE

Why do Governments always supply their soldiers with woolen underclothes?

Why do experienced travelers always wear woolen underclothes?

Why do sportsmen-hunters-sailors, etc., always wear woolen underclothes?

Because: - Clean, pure Wool is recognized as the only safe and healthful miterial to wear next the skin.

"CEETEE" is manufactured from pensive and exclusive machinery, very only the very finest Australian Merino different from the ordinary style of underwear machinery - fashioning each Wool, secured and combed over and garment to 6t the human form. It is all over again until every particle of forselvage edges, therefore cannot come eign matter is taken out and every unravelled; every join is knitted tostrand is as clean as it is possible to be gether, not sews, as with ordinary cu-

It is then carefully manufactured on ex-CANADIAN - MADE FROM START TO FINISH, AND ALL BRITISH MATERIAL People wear "CEETEE" Underclothing because they know it to be the best.

In All Sizes For Men, Women and Children.

The C. Turnbull Co. of Galt, Limited, GALT, ONTARIO For sale by the following well-known Dealers in Kingston E. P. Jenkins Clothing Co. John Laidlaw & Son

Worn by the Best People

Sold

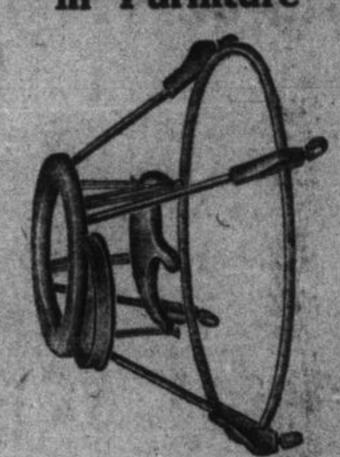

Best Dealers Look for the

SHEEP

on Every Garment

R. Waldron

Specials for Xmas in Furniture

This Baby Walker, $1.50; others $2.50 and $3.00. White Enamel Medicine Cabinets glass shelves, mirror in door, $1.50, $2,50 and $8.50. White Enamel Mirrors, oval frames, for bathrooms, $2.50, $3.50. White Enamel Triplicate Shaving Mirror for bathrooms.

White Enamel Stool, cork seat rubber tips, for bathrooms. White Enamel Kindergarten Sett, two chairs and table. Gentlemen's Shaving Cabinets in mahogany, all finished, from $12

Robt J. Reid.

The Leading Undertaker and Furniture Dealer.

OUR FRESH GROUND COF-FEE AT 40c. CAN'T BE BEAT. Try a sample order and be NOLAN'S GROOMRY

Princess St.

"Made in Canada"

We are heartily in sympathy with the "Made in Canada" movement. We know how dependent is Canada's prosperity on the consumption of home products.

But---we know just as well that we cannot expect Canadians to buy our product simply because it is "Made in Canada" if it does not offer equal value, in quality and price, with those imported.

We know that we cannot expect you to stick to Cowan's Perfection Cocoa if there is better cocoa obtainable.

It is because of this realization that we strive to keep it as good as all our years of experience can make it.

How well we succeed is easily proven by just one taste of

