PLOT TO OVERTHROW LOOKING FOR HUBBY

GOVERNMENT OF CZAR NIPPED BY THE POLICE.

Five Members of Duma Found at Conference of Revolutionists in House at Petrograd—Scheme to Ruin Russia Alleged.

Petrograd, Nov. 23 (Via London).—The police have discovered a revolutionary plot in which several members of the Duma are implicated, according to a semi-official announcement. A number of arrests have been made. The semi-official statement says: "At the beginning of the war most of the Russian people, conscious of the necessity of defending the dignity and integrity of the fatherland, were unanimous in assisting the authorities in the accomplishment of the tasks incurred by the operations of the war."

"Altogether different attitude was observed by some members of the social democratic associations who continued an activity aiming at the downfall of Russia's military power by means of an anti-war agitation. The distributing of secret proclamations and the spreading of propaganda by word of mouth."

"The government in October last learned of a plan to convoke a secret conference of delegates of the social democratic organizations to discuss measures aiming at the ruin of the Russian state and the speedy realization of revolutionary plans."

"On November 17th the police discovered that a meeting of the said conference was to be held in a house in Viborg road, eight miles from Petrograd. A detachment of police arrived on the scene and found there eleven persons, including the following members of the Duma: M. M. Petrovsky, Badayoff, Mouranoff, Samoiloff and Chagoff."

"There being no doubt as to the anti-government object of the conference, the members of the meeting were arrested after a search, with the exception of the members of the Duma, who were released. An examining magistrate was entrusted with the inquiry and immediately started an investigation."

"Having examined the documents seized in the raid, the magistrate drafted an indictment against all the members of the conference, under article 102 of the penal code, and issued warrants for their arrest."

NOT PLACING GUNS

AT FORT HENRY IN PREPARATION FOR TROUBLE.

Denied That Part of The 21st Battalion Will Be Quartered in the Gananoque Armouries.

A rumor was in circulation on Monday that four machine-guns were being taken to Fort Henry to prepare for expected trouble with the German suspect a company. The militia authorities, when asked said that the Germans were behaving quietly and causing no trouble whatever. A pom-pom gun, that has been at the Tele de Pont barracks, was taken over to be stored on Monday, but this was because it was not needed and was in the way.

A rumour from Gananoque on Monday was to the effect that part of the 21st battalion was to be stationed in the new armouries there. There is no chance of anything like this happening.

Lieut. Newcombe is acting assistant adjutant to Major McLean of the left half, 21st battalion.

The medical orderlies of the 21st battalion are being chosen. A private of "G" company, 21st battalion, was fined $2 for being drunk on Saturday.

Prince Rupert Sends Fine Body

Prince Rupert, B.C., the western terminal of the Grand Trunk Pacific railway, was incorporated as a municipality in March 1910. It is one of the youngest of the empire's bustling cities, yet a remarkable indication of the progress it has made is seen in its splendid response to the call for men for Canada's second contingent. News received at G. T. P. headquarters in Montreal, state that the company's steamship Prince George has left Prince Rupert for Victoria with 129 brawny sons of northern British Columbia, en route for the front. Some were fresh from office and shop, but the majority had lived their lives in the out-of-doors, toughened by the saddle and the canoe. They were given a grand send-off by their friends in Prince Rupert.

The Late S. Stenzler.

Early on Sunday morning a well-known citizen of Kingston passed away in the person of S. Stenzler, who for many years ran a tailoring shop on Wellington street. The deceased had only been ailing for about a week. The late Mr. Stenzler was born in Austria forty-five years ago and before coming to Kingston he spent some time in New York city.

To mourn his loss there are a wife, four sons and three daughters, Joseph, Eisdour, Mayer, Julius, Sadie, Fannie and Bertha. The late Mr. Stenzler was an active member of the Jewish synagogue, and the rabbi of the same officiated at the funeral of the deceased on Monday afternoon at two o'clock. The remains will be placed in the vault at Catarqui.

BOY STOLE A RING.

It Was Recovered by Constable Craig on Monday.

Some few days ago a resident of Collingwood street reported the theft of a gold ring. The case was given over to Constable James Craig and on Monday morning he recovered the ring. A twelve-year-old lad, who had been employed by the woman, was the guilty party. Constable Craig traced the theft to him, and the youngster admitted the theft. He had the ring hidden, but produced it and handed it over to the constable. The boy was given a severe reprimand, but there will be no prosecution.

SHE CLAIMS HE DESERTED HER IN THIS CITY.

Syracuse Woman Married Three Months Ago, Made Complaint to United States Consul Johnston.

Claiming that her husband had deserted her, a woman giving the name of Mrs. Charles McDonald, and her home as Syracuse, N.Y., called at the office of Felix S. Johnston, United States consul, on Monday morning and told her story.

The woman stated that she was married to McDonald in Syracuse, three months ago. They came to Kingston a week ago last Friday, and have been stopping at the Prince George hotel. On Saturday her husband disappeared without telling her where he was going, and she has come to the conclusion that he has deserted her. She says that McDonald is a native of Belleville, and that he told her that his father was the proprietor of a big hotel there. She further stated that since coming to Kingston her husband had made a trip to Belleville.

The woman was left without funds and on this account had to apply to the United States Consul for assistance. Mrs. McDonald was assisted by the United States consul and left this afternoon on the boat for Cape Vincent and will go from there to Syracuse to look for her husband. McDonald also told her trouble to Mayor Shaw at the City hall. She says that she can give no reason whatever for her husband's sudden flight, other than that he wanted to desert her.

From the description given of McDonald, officers on the Cape boat identified him as a man who crossed over the border on Saturday.

NEWS FROM THE Y.M.C.A.

The Delegates To a Conference To Be Held in Belleville.

To-night at 6.30 o'clock the Young Men's Bible class will be addressed by Prof. J. F. MacDonald, of Queen's.

This is National Boys' week in connection with the different Y.M.C.A.'s. The week has opened yesterday morning at the boy's Bible class by an address on the work of the National Commission by Rev. A. P. Marshall. The different boys' groups will use this week, particularly in rallying all their members, who will be asked to contribute something to the support of the National Council's work.

On Wednesday evening at 7.15 o'clock there will be another rehearsal of the "Y" Glee club. This club is making good progress under the leadership of Mrs. H. T. J. Coleman.

The "Four Square" club will hold a meeting on Thursday night after the gymnasium class, when another of the "Life Problem" talks will be taken up by Dr. C. C. Nash.

There was a splendid attendance at the song service held in the "Y" parlors Sunday night, at the close of which a cup of tea was served to the young men present.

Sunday At Brock Street Hall.

Evangelist Charles J. Stephens gave one of his best addresses Sunday evening, his subject being "The Cross." It was the person of Christ, the loving kindness. He displayed in suffering "the just for the unjust," that attracted us to the cross, and it was not cowardice, but wisdom and discernment which led people to flee from the wrath to come and take shelter beneath the cross of Jesus. To-night the subject will be "Peace."

Tea And Sale.

The Woman's Association of Sydenham Street Methodist church, will hold a tea and sale in the Bible School Hall, on Thursday afternoon, Nov. 26th, from 3 to 6 o'clock. Home-made work and candy table.

Postponement Of Meeting.

Owing to the City Hall being needed for other purposes the Red Cross Society will not meet from Tuesday noon till Thursday morning of this week.

Sunday Sales At Ontario Hall.

Chocolates and soft drinks were sold by the militia Y.M.C.A. in Ontario hall on Sunday. Some of the local dealers are protesting.

Brock street church annual bazaar will be held in the Sunday school hall, on Friday, Nov. 27th. Afternoon, admission free. Concert at night 10c.
