

THE NAZER IS AN ANTICHRIST

The History of a Remarkable Prediction--The Full Text of the Prophecy by Johannes.

London Standard.

The prophecy of Brother Johannes which was first printed in part in the "Evening Standard" on October 9th, and reprinted on October 17th, has caused a profound impression, and in reply to the many inquiries as to the history and identity of the author, the "Evening Standard" is now able to offer the following explanation, without, however, assuming any responsibility for its authenticity.

The Latin original of the prophecy was found among the papers of the late Adrian Peladan, author of a work in three volumes on "Prophecies," and editor of a review named "The Annals of the Supernatural," by his son, who had translated it into French and published in the columns of the "Figaro."

As to the man himself, little can be gleaned of his biography save the facts given by M. Peladan. According to him, his father came into the possession of the manuscript through a monk of Saint-Michel de Frigolet, near Tarascon, who, in turn, received it from an Abbe Donat, a learned priest, who died at a very great age.

M. Peladan, the son, a deep student of all matters appertaining to theology, found the manuscript in 1890, on the death of his father, among a mass of other papers dealing with the gift of prophetic vision. Although, even at that time, he was startled by the extraordinary vividness of the picture drawn by Brother Johannes, he never thought of it again until the entrance of England into the present struggle recalled to his mind "the leopard and his claws." He rediscovered the prophecy, and the wonderful accuracy of the description of the battling nations led him to translate it.

M. Peladan believes Brother Johannes to have been a French monk who lived and wrote in the sixteenth century.

The work of Brother Johannes has become a matter of profound interest both in France and in England, and at the request of numerous readers the "Evening Standard" prints in full the text of the prophecy as it appeared in the "Figaro."

"The Black Eagle" represents Germany; "The Leopard," Great Britain; "The Cock," France, and "The White Eagle," Russia.

Following is the full text of the prophecy, the first seventeen paragraphs now being included for the first time:

1. Several times has one seemed to recognize him, because all the slayers of the Lamb resemble each other, and all the wicked are the precursors of the Great Wicked One.

2. The veritable Antichrist will be one of the monarchs of his time, a son of Luther; he will invoke God and call himself His messenger.

3. The prince of lies will swear by the Bible; He will call himself the Arm of the Most High, chastising corrupted people.

4. He will only have one arm, but his innumerable armies, who will take as their motto "God is with us," will seem like internal legions.

5. For a long while he will act by ruse and treason; his spies will spread all over the earth, and he will be the master of the secrets of those in power.

6. He will have theologians in his pay to certify and prove his celestial mission.

7. A war will furnish him with the reason for lifting the mask. It will not be one which he will make against the French monarch, but another which will be easily recognized by the fact that in two week's time it will have become universal.

8. It will call to arms all Christians, all Mahometans, and even other very distant peoples. Armies will be formed in the four parts of the world.

Christian Words--Flendish Acts.

9. For men's minds will be opened by angels, and in the third week they will understand that this is the Antichrist, and that they will all become slaves if they do not trample down this conquering one.

10. The Antichrist will be recognizable by several marks, he will chiefly massacre priests, monks, women, children, and old people. He will show no mercy; he will pass along holding a torch like the barbarians, but invoking the name of Christ.

11. His false words will resemble those of Christians, but his act will be of those of Nero and the Roman persecutors; there will be an eagle in his coat of arms, and there will also be one in that of his confederate, the other wicked monarch.

12. But this one is a Christian, and he will die cursed by the Pope Benedictus, who will be elected at the beginning of the reign of the Antichrist.

13. Priests and monks will no longer be seen confessing and absolving the combatants, because for the first time priests and monks will fight with the other citizens, and also because, Pope Benedictus having cursed the Antichrist, it will be proclaimed that all those who wage war against him will be in a state of grace, and should they die, will, like martyrs, go straight to heaven.

14. The Pope's "Bull" proclaiming these things will make a great sensation, and will cause the death of the monarch, the Antichrist's ally.

15. In order to conquer the Antichrist, more men must be killed than Rome has even held. It will require an effort from all lands, for the cock, the leopard, and the white eagle would not suffice to overcome the black eagle if they were not helped by the prayers and devotion of all the human race.

Humanity In Grave, Peril.

16. Never before has humanity been in such peril, for the triumph of the Antichrist would be that of the Demon, in whom he is incarnated.

17. For it has been said that twenty centuries after the incarnation of the Word of the Beast in his turn would be incarnated, and would threaten the earth with as many evils as the Divine Incarnation had brought it.

18. Near the year two thousand the Antichrist will appear; his army will surpass in numbers anything heretofore imagined; there will be Christians amongst his hordes, and amongst the defenders of the Lamb there will be Mahometans and savage tribes.

19. For the first time the Lamb will be entirely red, in the whole of the Christian world there will not be a space that will not be red; and the heavens, the earth, the water, and even the air, will be red, for blood will flow in the spheres of the four elements at the same time.

20. The black eagle will throw itself upon the cock, which will lose many of its feathers, but will strike heroically with its spur. It would be soon annihilated were it not for the help of the leopard and its claws.

21. The black eagle, which will come from the land of Luther, will surprise the cock by another side, and will invade one-half of the land of the cock.

22. The white eagle, which will come from the north, will surprise the black eagle, and the other eagle, and will completely invade the land of the Antichrist from one end to the other.

Rivers Crossed Over Corpses.

23. The black eagle will be forced to leave the cock to fight the white eagle, and the cock will pursue the black eagle into the land of the Antichrist to help the white eagle.

24. The battles waged until then will be small in comparison to those that will take place in the land of Luther, because the seven angels will at the same time pour fire from their burners on the impious land (image taken from the Apocalypse), which means that the Lamb will der the extermination of the Antichrist's race.

25. When the Beast sees he is lost he will become furious; during months the beak of the white eagle, the claws of the leopard, and the spurs of the cock must harass him.

26. Rivers will be crossed over masses of dead bodies, which in some places will change the course of the waters. Only great noblemen, superior officers, and princes will receive burial, for to the carnage caused by dreams will be added those who perished by famine and plague.

27. The Antichrist will several times ask for peace, but the seven angels who precede the three animals, defenders of the Lamb, have declared that victory shall only be accorded on the condition that the Antichrist be crushed, like straw on the threshing-floor.

28. Executors of the Lamb's justice, these three animals cannot stop fighting as long as any soldiers remain to the Antichrist.

29. The reason for the sentence of the Lamb is so plain as to be that the Antichrist has pretended to be a Christian and to be acting in His Name, so that he did not perish, the fruit of the Redemption would be lost, and the gates of Hell would prevail against the Saviour.

Predicts Era of Peace.

30. It will be seen that it is not a human combat which will be waged where the Antichrist forces his arms. The three animals, defenders of the Lamb, will exterminate the Antichrist's last army; but the battle-field will become an altar of sacrifice, larger than the greatest of cities, and the corpse will have changed its shape by raising in it chains of mounds.

31. The Antichrist will lose his crown, and will die demented--and alone. His empire will be divided into twenty-two states, but none will have either a royal house, an army, or vessels.

32. The white eagle, by Michael's order, will drive the Crescent from Europe, where only Christians will remain; it will occupy Constantinople.

33. Then an era of peace and prosperity will commence for all the universe, and there will be no more war, each nation being governed according to its wish and living in justice.

34. There will be no more Lutherans or Schismatics. The Lamb will reign, and the joys of humanity will commence. Happy they who, escaping from the perils of this prodigious time, can taste of its fruit, which will be the reign of the Eternal Spirit, and the sanctification of humanity, only to be achieved by the defeat of the Antichrist.

But when I saw a British ship, 'Twas really, truly, "fleet."

I thought I was a Diplomat, A strategist as well, But I reckoned things up wrongly, And I couldn't even tell, That when the British Lion fights His enemies get--hel(l) pless!

I thought I was a clergyman, The man to point the way, To paths of light and righteousness; But all that I could say, Whenever I got up to preach, was, "Brethren, let us 'prey'."

I thought I was a guiding light, A pioneer of "Culture," My method of crusading was, To put it mildly, "Ultra," And the eagle on my helmet, Really should have been a Vulture.

I thought I was a War Lord, A sort of "Lord of Hosts," But they cut off my supplies, And set a watch upon my coasts, Till my people said, "We've got no food."

To fill our empty--boasts! I thought I had a "Mailed Fist," And brandished it above, A smaller, weaker Nation, While I talked of Peace and Love, But they stood up to me and proved 'Twas but an empty glove!

I thought I was a Sculptor Who could carve in wood and stone, "Hack" were perhaps a better word, A word that is my own, For a Butcher's mode of carving Was the one I knew alone!

An Incentive.

"Tommy," said a young lady visitor at his home, "why not come to our Sunday school?" Tommy hesitated a moment, then suddenly he said: "Does Jimmy Brown go to your school?" "Yes, indeed," replied the new teacher. "Well, then," said Tommy, with an air of interest, "I'll be there next Sunday, you bet, I've been waiting for that kid for three weeks, and never knew where to find him."

A Remarkable Tribute to Gin Pills FOR THE KIDNEYS

In February last, Mrs. J. P. J. Wedge of East Street, Summerside, P.E.I., wrote to a friend in Toronto and among other things said, "Gin Pills are the greatest of all Kidney remedies and a medicine which is at present doing me a world of good. They are worth their weight in gold to any sufferer." We asked permission, through a mutual friend, to publish the above extract and received the following testimonial to the great efficacy of Gin Pills.

Summerside, April 24th, 1914.

"Your letter of the 21st, to hand this evening, asking my permission to hand my letter to the National Drug & Chemical Co. You have my full permission to do so, and to them I give the liberty to publish and use my name if they wish, because Gin Pills have done for my husband and myself what no other remedy could do.

"I have advised two other parties to use them; one being my Mother, who has been a great sufferer for upwards of 20 years and one box of Gin Pills cured her so as to enable her to sleep on her left side, something she could not do for many years. The doctors told her they could not cure her but could relieve her by an operation for a Floating Kidney, but on account of her age they did not think it was advisable for her to undergo. Upon my advice, she tried Gin Pills which cured her and for which she is ever ready to speak in terms of praise."

MRS. J. P. J. WEDGE.

Remember, you can TRY Gin Pills BEFORE you buy them.

Danger Signals Warn You of Approaching Paralysis

Slowly and Surely Exhaustion Goes on Until Collapse of the Nerves is the Natural Result.

You may be restless, nervous, irritable and sleepless, but you think there is nothing to be alarmed at. You have no appetite, digestion is impaired, and there is weakness and irregularity of action in all your bodily organs. You feel tired in body and mind, and find that you lack the energy to attend to the daily task.

You may not realize that these are the symptoms of nervous prostration and the danger signals which MRS. ALLEN warns you that some form of paralysis is the next step of development.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is the most successful restorative for the nerves that has ever been offered to the public.

Mrs. Allan, R.F.D. 2, Sombra, Ont., writes: "Five years ago I suffered a complete breakdown, and frequently had palpitation of the heart. Since that illness I have had dizzy spells, had no power over my limbs, walked straight, and could not walk straight. At night I would have severe nervous spells, with heart palpitation, and would shake as though I had the ague. I felt improvement after using the first box of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and after continuing the treatment can now walk, eat and sleep well, have no nervous spells and do not require heart medicine. I have told several of my neighbors of the splendid results obtained from the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food."
