

HOME FOR FRIENDLESS

ANNUAL MEETING HELD ON TUESDAY AFTERNOON.

Mayor Shaw Said the Home Should Be Enlarged, and Felt Sure the Citizens Would Raise the Money.

The annual meeting of the Home for Friendless Women and Infants was held at the local institution, Union street, on Tuesday afternoon. The chair was occupied by Mayor Shaw. Rev. J. W. McIntosh opened the meeting with prayer. W. Wylie, inspector of the Children's Aid was called upon to address the meeting, and enlightened the various workers present upon many points of interest. Mr. Wylie has already shown himself to be well posted in the work connected with the Children's Aid, and no doubt he will prove a valuable man for the betterment and welfare of those neglected children and mothers who have uphill paths to climb. Mr. Wylie asserted that he was always ready to assist in any work that had for its object this end. He also said that he was glad there were such institutions as the infants and orphans homes, to which might be sent those children for whom he will be at times compelled to find suitable quarters. Above all let there be union in the working of all branches, was Mr. Wylie's advice. It was pointed out that this was the only institution of its sort in the city that cared for infants between the ages of birth and three years. Both Roman Catholics and Protestants were received and it was the contention of all that support should be given in assisting the good work which is being accomplished by the matron, Mrs. Thompson and her assistant, Miss Ferguson.

Mayor Shaw stated that a very nice home has already been furnished but it was his opinion that it should be enlarged. He assured the executive that very little hesitancy would be experienced in such an undertaking, when the citizens knew that it aimed towards uplifting humanity. The election of officers resulted: President, Mrs. W. H. Macnee; first vice-president, Mrs. J. B. Walkem; second vice-president, Mrs. E. T. Stacey; treasurer, Mrs. G. A. McGowan; recording secretary, Mrs. E. H. Pense; corresponding secretary, Mrs. D. Phelan.

The following board of officers was elected: Mrs. Robert Carson, Mrs. John Carson, Mrs. J. A. Macdonald, Mrs. T. Minnes, Mrs. Elmer Davis, Mrs. Herbert Robinson, Mrs. D. G. Laidlaw, Mrs. M. E. Wade, Mrs. Hugh Macpherson, Mrs. James Gandy, Mrs. George Mitchell, and Mrs. Vere Hooper.

The president, Mrs. Macnee read her following report: "The year just ended has been a very active and satisfactory one in the home. Seventy-seven have been cared for, fifty-nine children, and eighteen adults. Ten children have been placed in excellent homes. Three have been transferred to the Orphan Home, having reached the age limit of three years, and at the end of our year, there were twenty-five in the home. A sale was held in October, and the substantial sum of $197, was raised. In June, Mrs. Hugh Macpherson very kindly gave her house and grounds for a garden party. It was much appreciated by the committee, and $127 was realized.

For some time the government reports have called our attention to the overcrowding of the building and lack of air space. It was thought advisable to enlarge and improve the home, so in August a wing was built, with bath and toilet rooms. The partition was taken down between the night nursery and the old bath rooms, this making a large room for sleeping accommodation, and by this improvement the proper ventilation was secured. It was done at a considerable cost, and the committee hopes all kind friends will remember this.

The institution has been quite free of sickness and all the children are healthy and strong. Our faithful friend, Dr. A. E. Ross, has gone to the front, and in his absence Dr. S. Keyes is kindly doing his work, for which we wish to express our warmest appreciation. Mrs. Thompson, and Miss Ferguson, as matron and assistant matron still continue to give the same excellent care and attention to the home and babies, to the entire satisfaction of the committee.

We wish to thank all those who so liberally contributed at Christmas and during the year, and trust their generosity will be extended to us through the coming year. We again thank the City and County Councils for their liberal grants."

LADS SMOKE CIGARETTES. Reported That the Number in Kingston Is Surprising.

That the amount of cigarette smoking among the boys in Kingston is surprising, was a statement made to the Children's Aid society at their regular meeting held in the city council chamber on Tuesday afternoon by the inspector, W. H. Wylie. Mr. Wylie has given the matter much attention since taking up his duties a month ago, and much good is expected as a result of his work. Just a few days ago he rounded up some little boys who were smoking on the street, and he found who the dealer was who had sold the "smokes" with the result that the inspector, the dealer and the parents of the boy had a little heart-to-heart talk over the matter and it is not likely that there will be any further trouble. It is the intention of the society to prosecute any person who sells cigarettes to boys.

WILL PUT UP MONEY

TO SUBMIT A BY-LAW TO THE RATEPAYERS

For Building Railway Siding on Ontario Street—Industries Interested To Present a Petition to City Council.

At the Board of Works meeting on Tuesday afternoon, it was announced that the Kingston Shipbuilding company would put up the money for submitting the ratepayers at the January elections a by-law for the grading of Ontario street and building of a retaining wall at the foot of William street so that a railway siding from the G.T.R. suburban line may be constructed along Ontario street to West street, for the benefit of the industries in that section, viz: The shipbuilding company, Hooper & Slater, Cereals Limited, Kingston Foundry company, Booth & Co., and also the city waterworks. A petition will be presented to the City Council next Monday night by the industries named asking that a by-law be submitted. The cost of the work which it is suggested the city should do, would be between $3,000 and $5,000. The city engineer will make an estimate.

With regard to Ald. Nickle's resolution, passed by the City Council some weeks ago, as to increasing the efficiency of the city engineer's department, the engineer recommended as follows: Relieving Thomas Timms, streets foreman, of the duties of plumbing inspection; appointing a man to be plumbing, inspecting and setting out; the addition of H. S. Dick to the permanent staff of the department; the addition of a typewriter and a stenographer. The engineer reported that his present office facilities were satisfactory.

The engineer stated that if the full control of the streets was placed in his hands, some further re-organizing might be necessary. He would suggest, for instance, that the city be divided into four areas, and a foreman appointed for each. The foreman would be responsible for carrying out all street work, such as grading, walk repairs, excavations, scraping, weed cleaning, etc.

The board decided to report to council that it has the matter of re-organization under consideration, but is not in a position to make a report upon Ald. Nickle's resolution until it is definitely decided between the Board of Works and the Utilities Commission that the city engineer is to have full charge of all street excavations.

On the advice of the city solicitor, no action was taken on the application of the Reliance Molding company for a roadway to its plant, as the property is private and outside the city limits.

The city engineer reported that the claim of R. J. McKendry for $50 damage to his motor truck, he paid. The engineer recommended that an itemized account of the repairs done. The solicitor also recommended payment of $12 for damage to the ceiling of Sgt. Fowler's house by blasting on Rideau street. The city engineer reported that the city was not liable, and on his recommendation the board took no action on the claim.

A third report from the solicitor was that the Kingston Realities Limited had not dedicated any land for the extension of Patrick street, and that the city should pay for the land it took.

The city engineer reported that the Catarqui street sewer was unsanitary. At present it was emptying on shore, owing to the low water. He recommended that the sewer be extended fifty feet. The cost would be about $200. The matter was referred to the Board of Health, and the council would be required to vote the necessary money on sanitary grounds.

In attendance were Ald. Litton (chairman), Hughes, O'Connor, Sullivan and Peters.

THE VETERANS' MEETING

On Tuesday Evening Addressed by Prof. W. L. Grant.

The Kingston Veterans' Association, on Tuesday night, held probably the best meeting this season as far as attendance was concerned. Commander Chisholm presided.

Lieut.-Col. H. R. Duff, medical officer of the 21st battalion, told of his pleasure in being permitted to be able to go overseas with the second Canadian contingent. He complimented the veterans on their fine organization and appearance.

Prof. W. L. Grant then read a letter received on Thursday from Major F. R. Sedgwick, formerly a professor in the Royal Military College. Prof. Grant explained in a clear and concise manner the history of the little republic of Belgium.

Chaplain Forrester, seconded by Col. Duff, moved that a vote of thanks be tendered to Prof. Grant for the splendid address he had given. The business of the association was then conducted. The name of a sick member of the association was put on the list for the sick committee to visit and look after.

Treasurer W. Godwin then spoke of Lieut.-Col. W. S. Hughes' unavoidable absence from the meeting. Commandant Chisholm spoke of the arrangements that had been made for complete veterans' band that would be at the next meeting.

H. Carruthers asked that newspapers be sent to Salisbury Plain. Arrangements were made for this. The secretary, Dr. J. G. Evans, explained the best manner in which to send papers across. He also spoke of the need of magazines and papers in the 21st battalion recreation halls, and the militia Y.M.C.A. H. Carruthers was appointed to look after the work of sending the papers overseas.

A collection was taken for the relief of one of the members who was out of work. Dr. W. McCarthy offered his waiting-room for members to leave papers and magazines to be distributed to the battalion here.

Sergeant-Major T. McKenzie read an encouraging report with regard to the work of the veterans.

GET READY FOR WAR This is the Call of a Northern Man.—What Is Needed. Kaladar, Dec. 1.—(To the Editor of the Whig.)—Canada's position at the present time? Nothing serious is some people's answer. Do they know that Canada is open to attack? Let Canada raise a standing army not less than 50,000 men for our own defence. Build a navy consisting of two fleet units, one on the Atlantic the other on the Pacific, start now as if the crisis should catch Canada, then she would have something for her protection.

As concerning the army, let it be in constant training at divisional level, ready at all times to form the firing line where it is needed. Keep the arsenals working day and night for the attack may come when we are not expecting it.

The navy should consist of at least fifteen submarines, five destroyers, five scout cruisers and also battle-ship cruisers in each unit, have Halifax and Quebec City, the chief concentration points with Annapolis as a supplementary point for the Atlantic fleet. Let Esquimaux and Prince Rupert be the centre for the Pacific fleet and each of these bases be garrisoned by at least 3,000 men.

Do not let us be too kind-hearted to give our help to save other nations and let our country be open to foreign attack. Suppose Canada defends herself and feeds of the men in the allied army as she can. I am sure we would be more respected in the end.—STANLEY P. WOOD.
