News From Pittserry

Pittserry, Dec. 1.—Nearly all the farmers have finished ploughing. The recent rain was made welcome by the people as all the wells are going dry. W. McFadden had a ploughing here on Monday last. The Ladies' Aid of St. John's church met at the home of Mrs. D. McClement on Wednesday last with a large attendance. After the business a dainty lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Lillie. J. L. McMaster is in the Kingston general hospital where he underwent an operation. Miss Fanny Galway was the guest of Miss Lillian McClement at the home of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Steers last Thursday evening. The subject being, "Resolved that the British Navy is more Valuable Than The Army." Mrs. A. Henderson, Wolfe Island, and daughter, Eva, are visiting the formers' mother, Mrs. J. Greenigan.

Doing Splendidly.

Miss Irene Belanger, Lower Bagot street, who entered the Hotel Dieu on Monday to go under an operation for internal trouble, is doing splendidly, and her many friends are glad to hear of this.

It isn't necessary to acquire an automobile when you run into debt. Many a so-called political boom turns out to be a boomerang.
