"IRRESISTIBLE"

-it's FRY'S

CHRONOLOGY OF THE WAR FROM JUNE TO DECEMBE

August 2-German forces enter Luxmburg Germany addresses ulti-latum to Belgium demanding free invade southern Alsace. agust 8 Italy reaffirms neutrality 15 Austrians enter Servia-Japan sends ultimatum to Ger-completes its landing in France— Belgian capital removed from avy loss Beginning of five pattle between Servians and estrians on the Jadar, ending in Germans enter Brusselsan army retreats ust 21-Germans begin attack on egio attack on Mons-Austria unces victory over Russians Mons Zeppelin drops bombs into

Mulhausen evacuated 26-Non-partizan French

27-Louvain burned by Ger-Japanese blockade Tsing

Germans occupy Amiens er 2 German advance pe

s to Creil, about 30 om Paris, and swings eastward French centre between Verdun d Rheims driven back-Seat rench government removed mber 8-Russians occupy ber 5-Battle begins south Marne and east of Paris hich the German right wing back, followed by a geneptember 7-Maubeuge taken by the tember 12 German retreat halts on the Aisne.

September 16-Belgian commission to President Wilson ainst German atrocities. 20 Germans bombard and injured the famous ca-

22 German submarine British cruisers Aboukir and Hogue in the North ssians capture Jaroslav invest Przemysl er 26-British troops in land at Marsailles. 28 Germans begin Antwerp-Russian patrols penerate Carpathian passes into Hunmber 30 German warships bom-Japanese position before October 1-Heavy fighting near Aras begins. October 2-End of week's battle at Augustowo in which the Germans are forced out of Rusan territory

October 5-Belgian government moved from Antwerp to October 7-Bombardment of rp begins-Japanese Caroline Islands. October 9-Antwerp occupied the Germans.

October 10 .- French win cavalry engagement around Hazlebrouck October 12-A Boer commando in the Cape province mutinies and throughout the South African October 14-Allies occupy Ypres-Battle begins on the Vistula.

June 28-Archduke Francis Ferdinand October 15-Ostend occupied by the tempt made to bring down a scout October 16-British cruiser Hawke powered gums. Both methods are sunk by German submarine.

October 17-Japanese cruiser Ta-Kiau-Chau Bay.

Ypres slacken.

Beyers in revolt—Russians pur- feat that a fighting air scott is eat-sue retreating Germans and led upon to perform. reoccupy Lodz and Radom.

French destroyer.

dosia in the Crimea. October 30-Col. Maritz, rebel lead- campaign carefully avoided one aner in Cape Province, beaten and other. driven out of the colony.

Coronel, on the coast of Chili-Turks bombard Sebastopol.

November 4-German cruiser Yorck to descend into the danger zone in strikes mine in Jade Bay and sinks-Heavy fighting around November 5-England and France declare war on Turkey-Dardanelles forts bombarded-Russians reoccupy Jaroslav. November 6-Tsing-Tau surrenders to the Japanese-Russians occupy Koprvkeui on road to Erzer-

Geier interns in Honolulu—Aus-trians report advance in Servia can be directed almost vertically up--Russians reach Pleschen in ward; a second is to be used on Silesia and enter East Prussia shinboard, and a third is a three--Germans capture strategic po- inch piece firing a twelve-pound in the Argonne.

gal, by Australian cruiser Syd-| plane.

November 11-Germans capture Dixmude-German submarine sinks British gunboat Niger off Deal. November 12-Russians occupy Johannisburg in East Prussia. November 13-Fighting renewed at a war loan of £225,000,000.

Nieuport. November 14-Heavy fighting bein East Prussia.

at Valjevo. November 18-French capture Tracysians both claim victory.

November 194 French detachment with Bob Hawthorne after trapped at Chauvoncourt near in the sound. St. Mibiel-House of Commons men already under arms, exclusive of territorials.

lovember 23-German advance Poland halted. ovember 26-British battleship Bulwark destroyed by explosion in Medway river. November 28-Russian official despatches indicate the encirclement of a large German force around Lodz. lovember 30-Allies take the offensive-German attacks weaker. December 1-British and Japanese warships in Pacific closing in on German squadron.

Sort Of Sanitarium

It is nice to know in these days of lost reputations that Oriental hospitality, at any rate, shows no signs of October 13-Belgian government degadence. A correspondent nas comacross the following announcement in a tailor's shop in Tokto:-"Respectable ladies and gentlemen may come here to have fits."

Was Troubled for Years With Kidney Disease

And This Treatment Cured Me-This Statement Endorsed By a Baptist Minister.

tive powers of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. But for he benefit of those he are not we continue to publish from day to day reports from perns who have been an extreme and the writer

ed that Mr. Mosher's pastor did not headaches, Chronic Indigestion, Kid-kins' hens were more in the nature Cures a Cold in One Day, Grip in 2 Days "I am not the Miss Polly Perkins softly." the liver, kidneys, and bowels, Dr. box, all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills cure in C Limited, Toronto.

The great majority of people are complicated cases which defy the acfamiliar with the extraordinary cura- tion of ordinary kidney medicines. Mr. W. H. Mosher, Brockville, Ont. writes :- "I used Dr. Chase's Kidney Liver Pills, and firmly believe there is no medicine to equal them. could only walk from my bed to a chair. Now I can go to the field and work like any other man. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are an excellent

By awakening the action of liver take the straying bird home. kidneys and bowels Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills cure Constipation, ing the chicken. Evidently Miss Per-

PERIL OF THE AVIATOR Whose Shells Can Beach 20,

American Review of Reviews. It is evident that some attempt be made to prevent an air complish that end, aeroplane must be pitted against aeroplane or an atto the ground by means of highin use in the present war.

Most military aeroplanes carry kachiho sunk by torpedo in two passengers seated in tandem. One man guides and controls the October 18 Belgian army effects machine, the other observes the terjunction with allied left, battle rain below and manipulates either a on from channel coast to Lille. rifle or a machine gun. Single-sext-October 20-English gunboats par- ed machines are also used, but maticipate in battle of Nieuport on chine guns cannot be successfully fired by an aviator whose hands and October 24—Ten days' battle before feet may not leave the controls. To Warsaw ends in German defeat, engage in a machine-gun or rifle October 26-After a week of furious duet 5,0000 feet above the ground fighting German assaults on requires courage of a kind that surallied line from Nieuport to passes the heroism recorded in the epics of old. Indeed, there is noth-October 27 South African sedition ing in all Homer which for sheer spreads, Gen. Dewet and Gen. daring can be compared with the

He risks his life doubly-doubly October 28-Berlin admits retreat because he is exposed both to fire from Warsaw and Ivangorod- and to the danger of a vertiginous German cruiser Emden enters drop to the ground. If the supportharbor of Penang and tor- ing stays of his wings are clipped pedoes Russian cruiser and if a control wire is severed, he must experience all the agony of plung-October 29-Turkey begins war on ing down to a frightful and inevi-Russia by naval attacks on table death. No wonder that the Odessa, Novorossysk, and Theo two dozen aeroplanes which were used on al sides during the Balkan

If an aeroplane flies to a height French across frontier November 1-A squadron of five greater than 4,500 feet itis reason-German cruisers, including the ably safe from the fire of rifles and Gneisenau and Scharnhorst, de- artillery on the ground. But at that feated a British squadron off height it is extremely difficult to recommitter successfully. Whole batteries seem more like minute crawl-November 3- German squadron ing insects, than guns and men, and makes a raid to British coast it is difficult to distinguish cavalry from horse artillery. The temptation order to see more clearly is strong. In the Balkans at least two aviators were shot by rifles from the ground because they ventured below the safe height of 4,000 feet, and in the present war, if the newspapers are to be credited, half a dozen scouts have been killed by fire from the ground No less than three types of artil lery have been designed by Krupp to be used against airships and aeroplanes. One of these is a nine lovember 7-German light cruiser pounder piece, much like an ordin> sition near Vienne-le-Chateau shrannel and is mounted on a motor truck. These guns can reach a November 10-The Emden defeated, height of about 29,000 feet, which and forced ashore at North therefore marks the lower limit of Keeling Island in Bay of Bene- safety for an airship or an aero-

No one would have stigmatized tween Soldau and Stalluponen Polly Perkins as being insane. Ec centric, mentally unbalanced, she Vovember 15-Battle between Rus- certainly was and another couple of sians and German centre be- years might possibly see her comtween Vistula and Warthe riv- fortably ensconsed in a home for iners, ending in Russian retire- curables. For the present she was happily if whimsically domiciled in November 16-The Sheikh-ul-Islam a tiny cottage on Long Island. Miss at Constantinople proclaims a Polly's mental state was the cause holy war against the allies - of rude jests from village children British House of Commons votes and one of amused interest to older minds. Week-end guests were sure November 17-Belgium announces to be taken past the abode of Polly Austrian victory over Servian Perkins just as they were invariably regaled by the story of the haunted house on the old farm road.

le-Val-Naval battle in Black 'She's dippy on the subject Sea, in which Turks and Rus- pink." said Jimmy Rogers as he strolled past Miss Perkin's cottage

"I wouldn't have believed it." laughed Hawthorne as he eyed with men - More than 1.100,000 amused glance the pink-painted cottage, the pink flower gardens, pink gate posts and outbuildings. "I suppose she has pink bows on all the livestock." he commented.

"She surely has," chuckled Jimmy "every living chicken in the barnyard has a pink bow on his neck."

"You're joking!" exclaimed Haw thorne, but at that moment the cluck cluck of the discussed birds announ ced their presence and both mer laughed aloud. A most tidy little flock of chickens, each bird wearing a pink bow on its neck, came pecking away over Miss Polly's front lawn. "I don't call that eccentric. I call it plain 'cracked,' " said Hawthorne

"What kind of a freak is this Polly Perkins?" he said. "Not so much of a freak as you" along the street. "Of course, dresses entirely in pink and looks not half bad under the pink sun bonnet she wears about the garden. You know she writes stories and things for the magazines."

"That accounts for it," said Haw thorne; "they are nearly all dipp on some line, these writer people. After that the two men fell into discussion of the yacht races being held at the club and promptly forgot all about-Polly Perkins and her

It was not until a few days later that Hawthorne, lolling in Jimmy Rogers' hammock, looked up to se a lone chicken clucking away and pecking contentedly for vermin Roger's well-kept lown. The chicken had a more or less bedraggled pink bow on its neck that sadly interfered at times with the capturing of dainties from the soft sod. "Hello!" exclaimed Hawthorne, drawing himself up from his most comfortable position the better look at the hen. "If you haven't strayed from Miss Perkins' pink do main I'll eat my hat." And because Bob Hawthorne was a ed to make a martyr of himself, and ONLY ONE "Bromo Quini

He had little difficulty in catchwondered if each and every bird had a name such as Florabelle or Sylvia or even Peter Perkins. He suppossurprise that a wing of Miss Perkins' "I don't know why-all men think interesting than he had expected. Jimmy Rogers. He climbed the lat- verse is continually wet anyway, two nights later when they left the er's fence and found himself facing Men creatures invariably think of clubhouse after a most delightful would have continued his progress out of the grass."

imong the tall grasses, and Hawhorne swore softly under his breath. The chicken flew madly out of his slackened clutch and the pink-clad one opened startled eyes that were shining with recent dreams

Hawthorne's conversational abiliy was lost somewhere in the blue depths of her eyes. He only stood and stared down at her. If all mentally unbalanced people were so lovey to look upon as Polly Perkins, Hawthorne hoped he would meet many of that variety on his life's

"You've no right to be snoring in hat wet grass," he said-that happening to be the only thought he seemed able to give voice to.

on box. 25c.

After a few moments of recon- siting posture and was endeavoring my Rogers' garden and realized that property practically adjoined that of that every blade of grass in the uni- "You know," she confided to him and purity. Always ask for FRY'S.

having tripped over a pink-clad fig- charmingly white hands, . Hawthorne bird over the fence so that you might by the unpunctuality of the gen are. She was lying flat on her back found himself wishing himself the see it." pet chicken of an eccentric writer "And?" questioned Hawthorne, befondness for pink.

"Are you Miss Polly Perkins?" he Polly was concerned. asked, when her wide-open eyes again to make sure of her identity. "Yes, I am," she said. "Is there anything else you would like to know, Rude Person?" she inquired with a peculiarly disconcerting frank then, remembering Miss Perkins' mental condition, smiled in what he supposed to be a most compassionate To Polly Perkins the smile was an odd mixture of damaged pride and a ly desire to hide the same by forced zical look into Hawthorne's glowero Quinine," that is ing eyes and burster into a peal of jealously caressing the you think I am. I am her niece." With that she turned swiftly on her heels and left Bob Hawthorne stand- portunities lest ing beside the pink chicken coop. He tunity for othe noitering he discovered much to his to coax back the frightened chicken, his holidays were going to be more Dinner Spoiled While He Was Win-

RY'S COCOA maintains the vigor and the bloom of youth because is brimful of buoyant health in concentrated form. Withal, of delicate and enticing flavor, it bespeaks the care and skill that have been taken since 1728 to make FRY'S a cocoa of exceeding fineness

Trade Supplied by

J. S. FRY & SONS, Limited

Truro, Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg, Calgary, Edmonton, Vancouver, Victoria

it is the most nourishing "food-drink" in the world. Every cup he back of a pink chicken coop. sneezing and rheumatism instead of tango evening, "I have a dreadful Hawthorne laughed shortly and electricity and renewed life coming confession to make." Since Bob's eyes were anything but fear inspirtoward the restoration of Miss Per- She had got the chicken back by ing, Polly continued: "I saw you kins' poultry to its owners, save that continued coaxing the while she was that day in Mr., Roger's garden and a sharp turn around the fence brough addressing her remarks to Haw- sneaked down to Aunt Polly's chicknim into the awkward position of thorne and was petting it with two en coop and deliberately put that > person whose mania was an over- ginning to see things as they really were and always would be where "Well-I felt that you were a triffe > roamed toward his face. He wanted bored lying in that hammock, a that anything in the way of diversi would appeal to you." "But what about yourself?" av glasses from Aunt Polly's Hawthorne stiffened perceptibly: dow," confessed Polly unl "Are you engaged?"

"No-Rude Person!

GEN. FRENCH WAS LATE.

Dec. 4 .- Lamorlette, head Marne, he had prepared a magnifi who when he finally came, explain distracted cook that his delay to helping win a victory thy, says the Figure, was La-

.s artistic soul appeased e Skissia Takes Control baland, Dec. 4.-An imperial uk tempe to-day authorizes the finance to take contro panies and enterprise rated in Russia dealer in rmany, Austria-Hun "Automo- W Had Six Thousan 4.-News reacher -to be had rican hospital a ents, although i ention this is had more than

od judgment the worst of selecting hus-TING GOODS CO.,