GERMAN FORCE

Was Blown To Atoms By 600 Cannon.
Paris, Dec. 26.—Gen. Joffre, the French commander-in-chief, said to Col. Ignatieff and Col. Yarde-Buller, the Russian and British military attaches at the field headquarters of the French army, three or four days ago.
"Come with me and you will see something never seen before in war."
The military attaches accompanied the general to a place near the lines not far from Arras. There 600 pieces of heavy artillery were placed in a position so as to bear upon a comparatively short plexus of German entrenchments. The ranges already had been found.

Upon a word from Gen. Joffre, repeated by his aides telephonically, the 600 pieces opened up a sustained fire upon the German works and the spaces just behind them.
After a quarter of an hour, the French infantry charged. Not a bayonet shot met them. Not a bayonet shot met them. Not a bayonet shot met them. Not a bayonet shot met them. Not a bayonet shot met them.

Dead and wounded men, half buried, littered the line where formerly had been the trenches. The few who were struggling to free themselves from heaps of debris, who had tried to run were caught by the horrible spray of bursting shells in the rear of the German trenches. Probably not a man defending that part of the line escaped.

War Tidings.
King Albert, of Belgium, spent Christmas in the trenches.
German aeroplanes sighted of Harwich, Eng. were driven off by aeroplane guns in the coast defences.
At San Francisco wireless office claim to have intercepted messages from the German fleet, apparently making for New York.

At Havana, Cuba, steamers report seeing a British cruiser in chase of the German cruiser Karlsruhe east of there on Tuesday.
An Austrian submarine torpedoed a French cruiser in the Gulf of Otranto, but little damage was done.

Japanese minister of foreign affairs, Takaaki Kato, declared that no country had asked Japan to send an army to Europe.
Austria has made independent peace overtures to the allies through Vienna bankers upon the basis of the concession of Galicia to Russia and Bosnia to Serbia.

Imitating the woman of Carthage who cut their hair to make rigging for their war galleys, Yvonne Puzel, a poor country girl from a small village in the Vosges, has sacrificed her magnificent tresses to contribute to the national fund for soldiers at the front.

There were 100 deaths from cholera in the Turkish camp at Boulvi during the first week in December.
The Russian generals staff announces that the strong German force which crossed the Buzza River north-west of Warsaw was utterly routed on Wednesday night, with severe loss in killed and prisoners.

The Russians have also won another great victory in Galicia over the Austrians and are already taking a large number of prisoners in the course of a vigorous pursuit.
Armenians were severely bombarded on Tuesday and that the famous organ in the church of St. Vaast was irretrievably damaged.

THE SPORT REVIEW.
Opening of the N. H. A. Schedule Tonight.
Dick Rudolph, pitcher of the Boston Braves, has agreed upon terms for a two-year contract with the champions.
The Toronto are still trying out a couple of men to take "Scotty" Davidson's place, but the chances are that "Jack" Marshall will be the regular defence man.

Hamilton spectator: Rumor has it that Andrew Carnegie's peace commission intends to locate in Hamilton for a spell. Andy thinks good work could be done among local athletic clubs.
The western sector of the Upper Ottawa Valley Hockey League is having its troubles. Smith's Fall, Perth and Brockville were the original teams in the series, and Perth are making trouble by refusing to enter again this year.

The American baseball league is not in sympathy with the National league's proposal that no club report for spring training earlier than March 1st. The White Sox plan to start on Lincoln's birthday, on which date a number of National league outfits will also head south.
The opening N. H. A. games to-night are as follows:—Ottawa at Quebec; Toronto at Carleton Place; Wanderers at Ontario. Every one looks a tight fit, though Ottawa has a precedent to overcome at Quebec. Both Wanderers and Toronto should give their opponents a battle, despite the fact they play on foreign ice.

GAVE PLANS TO BRITISH.
Nephew of ex-Sultan Executed in Constantinople.
Petrograd, Dec. 26.—Letters received in Odessa from Constantinople report daily searches for wireless apparatus which is supposed to be signalling to the allies' fleet. It is said that Prince Negur, a nephew of ex-Sultan Abdul Hamid, has been executed on the charge of communicating to the British admiral the plan of the Dardanelles mines, enabling the British submarines to sink the battleship Mesoudieh.

Is Alderson to Leave Command.
Montreal, Dec. 26.—The Montreal Star's special correspondent at Salisbury Plain, cables as follows:—
"A definite rumor is current that General Alderson is leaving the command of the Canadian division, and that General Sir Archibald Hunter is to succeed him. The cause is said to be difficulties with Major-General Hughes."

MAUBEUGE IS FAVORED

NURSE SECURED SPECIAL HONORS FOR GERMAN PRINCE.
Enemy Much Pleased—Showed Unwonted Humanity When He Took Town Later On.
Boulogne, Dec. 26.—Because a young French Red Cross nurse took a particular interest in an eighteen-year-old German lieutenant who was brought unconscious into the hospital at Maubeuge and died three days later, the little manufacturing city of Maubeuge has been highly favored by its German conquerors, and is enjoying a greater degree of freedom than any of the other French border towns in German hands.

The wounded German proved to be the prince of Saxe-Meiningen; nephew of the emperor. He had suffered a fractured skull in an encounter with a French chasseur, and died without regaining consciousness.
At the suggestion of the little nurse, the local authorities rendered the prince the funeral honors due his rank, photographed the body and coffin, and sent the photograph, together with the personal belongings of the prince and a detailed account of his illness, to his family at Meiningen. This occurred while the town was still under French control.

The young man's father, the Duke of Saxe-Meiningen, acknowledged the courtesies in a letter expressing the deepest appreciation, and later when the Germans entered Maubeuge—he provided his gratitude by directing the troops occupying the fortress town to treat the inhabitants with the utmost consideration. The nurse was given a safe conduct through the German lines and has just arrived at Boulogne.

The chasseur who was responsible for the death of the prince was known as the smallest soldier in the Maubeuge garrison, but in the battle against the prince's crack cavalry regiment he acquitted himself with honors. Besides placing the prince's body to rest, he wounded and captured the prince's orderly, two troopers, and a non-commissioned officer, thereby earning special mention in the official report of the engagement. A few days later he was himself taken prisoner by the German reinforcements which occupied Maubeuge.

ACTIVE AGAIN.
A Christmas Forger Is Again In Chicago Busy.
Chicago, Dec. 26.—A swindler, known to the police as the "Christmas forger" who during the shopping season last Christmas is said to have obtained $21,000 in Boston, New York and Philadelphia, has swindled Chicago merchants out of thousands of dollars within the last week, it was learned to-day.

"A Travers," contractor and builder, of Montreal, Canada, as the forger introduces himself, carried letters of credit for sums varying from $1,000 to $10,000. He sought the leading jewellery establishments in the city for his operations, and is known to have victimized four concerns out of $4,000. Others reported they had cashed worthless drafts and checks for sums ranging from $100 to $500.

"Travers," according to private detective carried out his swindling operations only during the Christmas shopping season and selects a new field every year.

CAROLS OF HATE.
"Ill-will to the English" Is Key-note of Christmas in Germany.
London, Dec. 26.—Neutrals recently arrived from Germany declare that the Germans are spending Christmas of hate, a popular motto in Berlin being, "Ill-will to the English everywhere."
Well known German poet's "Hymn of Hate," directed at England, is being sung nightly by foreign artists at all the theatres, where it is aptly applauded. It is sung in family circles, around the Christmas tree, and at festive boards. The British accept this as a sign that the Germans know that Great Britain's intervention in the war means all the difference between victory and defeat for the fatherland.

Pte. F. Smith Killed At Meuse.
Omenee, Dec. 26.—Major Ferguson, officer of the 45th regiment, Lindsay, has received word that private Frank Smith, Omenee, was killed in one of the battles on the Meuse River. He is the first member of the 45th to die in action.
Smith was a reservist of the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery, and when war broke out was working for William McGee at Omenee. He was a member of D. company, 45th regiment.

Hoag's display of Christmas chocolates comprise the following well known lines:—Style, Alderson's, Lowrey's. Why not choose them now? We'll gladly set them aside for you.
The Toronto and Winnipeg Grenadiers have been officially affiliated with the Leinster regiment in Britain.
The slayers of Barnett Daffe, the New York poultry man, are now known, and are in the hands of the police.

SEVERE RHEUMATIC PAINS DISAPPEAR
Rheumatism depends on an acid which flows in the blood, affecting the muscles and joints, producing inflammation, stiffness and pain. This acid gets into the blood through some defect in the digestive processes, and remains there because the liver, kidneys and skin are too torpid to carry it off.
Hoag's Sarsaparilla, the old-time blood tonic, is very successful in the treatment of rheumatism. It acts directly, with purifying effect, on the blood, and through the blood on the liver, kidneys and skin, which it stimulates, and at the same time it improves the digestion.
Get Hoag's Sarsaparilla today. Sold by all druggists.
