IN FIGHTING FAMILY

PRIVATE RAINEY HAS FOUR BROTHERS AT FRONT.

And Another is Band Sergeant in American Army — While Visiting Sackets Harbor Band Played "Tipperary" in His Honor.

Private George Rainey, of "A" company of the 21st overseas battalion, comes of a fighting family. He has at the present time four brothers at the front while another brother is a band sergeant in the United States army.

Private Rainey has just returned from four days leave of absence spent at Sackett's Harbor, and while there the band attached to the local regiment played "Tipperary" in his honor. He also had the honor of being the only Canadian soldier in Sackett's Harbor.

Private Rainey was in Watertown and the newspapers endeavored to get him to talk about the movements of the troops but the reports published show that he was reticent. The Times of Watertown has the following:

The censor certainly has put in effective work on the speech of the Canadian soldier. George Rainey, a regular "Tommy Atkins," though he did not hail from Sackets Harbor, now of the Twenty-first Canadian Infantry, stopped in this city a short while en route for the Harbor where he will spend part of his four days' leave. A few words were passed between Mr. Rainey and a representative of the Times, but Mr. Rainey with courtesy and dignity evaded all questions in any way bearing on the condition and plans of the Canadian army.

With his khaki overcoat resembling the coat worn by our own soldiers, buttoned tight about his chin and toying a slight bamboo cane, Mr. Rainey was about the city. "When do you expect to sail for England?" he was asked. "I am sorry, sir, but we are not allowed to talk of such matters," was his polite reply, and so it was with all the inquiries of like nature which were made of him. But he did say that he had enlisted six months ago, and that his parents were living at Sackets Harbor. He said also that though he had been living in "the states" for seven years, he was English by birth. His English nationality was undeniable from his speech. Mr. Rainey said that he was given a pass allowing him four days away from his regiment.

THE RUSH IS OVER.

Post Office Staff Breathing Somewhat Easier Now.

The big rush at the post office is now over and the office staff and the "posties" are breathing easier. There will be a heavy mail at New Year's but it is nothing compared to the gnat of mail which is handled at Christmas.

Asked about the amount of mail matter looked after at the Kingston post office the men in charge stated that they believed it was even greater than other years. This year the parcel post department made a great deal of extra work.

MOTOR PATROL FOR POLICE

New Council Will Be Asked to Provide the Funds.

One of the first items to come before the newly-elected council will be the purchase of a motor patrol for the police.

The board of police commissioners, at a meeting held several weeks ago, decided to ask the board to purchase the patrol, but the request has been left over for the new council.

ELECTIONS IN WARDS.

Candidates Must File Qualification Papers Tonight.

It is not known what ward elections there will be next Monday for alderman, as candidates have until nine o'clock to-night to file their qualification papers. Only those who file these papers will be candidates.

In Sydenham ward, W. H. Wormwith will be elected by acclamation for a two-year term, his opponent, H. C. Nickle, stated that he will stand for the three-year term. Ex-Ald. Nickle intimated that if he was opposed he would not make any canvass.

The Frontenacs Got There.

In their recent trip to Cleveland, Ohio, the Frontenac hockey team made its date, but thereby hangs a story. It seems that when its train reached Belleville, being very heavy, it was broken into sections. The first section ran on schedule, but the remainder had to wait for a time to make all connections, but James T. Sutherland found his little charges were on the last section, and would not make connections. When he realized this he got busy and woke up some of the chief officials, stating that the vice-president of the O.H.A. would not stand for that. A special schedule was arranged at Hamilton. A special train was held ten minutes for it. At Belleville another fast train waited twenty-five minutes for the Kingston hockeyists. They arrived at Cleveland in time to play the game.

Frontenac Hockey Practice

The Frontenac hockey players are having a practice on the covered rink from seven to eight o'clock on Tuesday evening. It is desired by the management that every fellow in the city who can play hockey turn out for this practice, as no one has been assured of a place on the team and every person has a chance.

POLICE ARE RECEIVING.
Many Complaints About the Garbage Collection.

In his address at the City Hall on Monday, Ald. R. D. Sutherland, the newly-elected mayor, referred to the garbage system, stating that there was great need of a new system and that he would give it consideration.

The number of complaints being received by the police from day to day about the system go to show just how much a new system for the collection of the garbage is needed. Tuesday morning there was a regular rush of orders for garbage collectors.

Citizens will be greatly pleased when a system is put into effect which will give a good prompt service.
