POULTRY SHOW OVER

SOME EXCELLENT BIRDS WERE ON EXHIBITION.

Poultrymen Were Present from Gananoque, Napanee and Hamilton—Proceeds Did Not Cover Association's Deficit.

The Central Ontario Poultry and Pigeon Show is over for another year. This exhibition came to a close on Wednesday evening, the interest being kept up throughout the entire three days, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The attendance from day to day was fairly good, but on account of the deficit occurred last year, the over-plus in prizes granted to pigeons, it will take this year's resources, coupled with the government grant, to place the association in shape for next year's poultry exhibition; which, it is thought, will be held on a larger scale than ever before attempted.

—Owing to the European war the Central Ontario Poultry and Pigeon Association could not secure the armatures, with the result that its members had to restrict its interests locally. They are living in hopes now that with the hope of another year matters will take a turn for the better.

On Wednesday Secretary E. B. Curran and President W. Gibbard, of the Napanee Poultry Association, were in attendance at the local show. Their mission here was to persuade the local exhibitors to send their poultry to Napanee and exhibit the same at the poultry show which will be held at the latter place from January 13th to 15th inclusive.

Many of the Kingston poultrymen intend transporting their fowl to this show. Two poultrymen from Hamilton, who displayed their stock in Kingston last year, were present in the city on Wednesday and were pleased with the splendid fowl placed on exhibition. E. H. Hurd, of Gananoque, was also in attendance on Wednesday.

One exhibitor who deserves special mention is Alfred B. Wilson, Kingston Junction, who had on display a choice showing of barred racks. His birds have won fifth place in the International Egg Laying competition, which was held last year.

W. J. Gilbert, another exhibitor, made several valuable sales of some of his Rhode Island Reds at the show on Wednesday.

THE LATE MISS SUTHERLAND.

Well-Known Kingston Lady Died Wednesday Evening.

Wednesday evening, at 6.30 o'clock, Miss Lizzie Sutherland, fourth daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Sutherland, and who resided at 389 Brock street, passed away after an illness extending over a year. For several years the deceased had conducted a fancy work store in the city and those who knew her always spoke highly of her estimable qualities.

The late Miss Sutherland was born in this city and was a life-long resident. In religion she was a Presbyterian and a member of Chalmers church. Ill-health compelled her to retire from active labors.

Six sisters and two brothers survive: Mrs. Theodora Dodge, Millford, Prince Edward county; Mrs. Thomas Tweed, Medicine Hat; Mrs. Sophia Leyland, Boston; Mrs. Belle Tracey, Winnipeg; Mrs. Eli Tree, Detroit; Miss Addie Sutherland, residing at home; Samuel Sutherland, of this city, and John Sutherland, of Toronto.

The funeral will be conducted, privately, on Friday afternoon. Services will be held at the house, at which Rev. Dr. Malcolm Macgillivray will officiate. The remains will be placed in Ontario vault.

The Late Miss M. A. Curtis.

Mary Ann Curtis, a native and lifelong resident of Kingston, passed away at her late residence, 207 Montreal street, on Thursday morning, after an illness of about two weeks. In religion the deceased was a Roman Catholic, a member of St. Mary's cathedral and also of the League of the Sacred Heart. The survivors are two nieces: Mrs. J. D. Donoherty, of Winnipeg, and Mrs. John Doherty, of this city. The funeral will be held on Saturday morning at nine o'clock to St. Mary's cathedral, where a solemn requiem mass will be sung by Rev. Father A. J. Hanley. The remains will be placed in St. Mary's vault.

An Attractive Number.

January Rod and Gun in Canada, published by W. J. Taylor Limited, publisher, Woodstock, Ont., is out and is a particularly attractive number. The cover art, which represents a beaver family, was designed to illustrate a story by H. Morrison Batten, entitled "Abnisk, the City Males," descriptive of the every day life of a colony of beavers. Frank Houghton contributes another dramatic account of the killing of a musk be in the far North. E. J. France describes a winter trip by dog team from Cochrane to Rupert House. Other stories and articles there are and the regular departments to interest the sportsman.

Flour Has Advanced.

With the increases in the price of wheat, the price of one brand of flour has increased from $4.50 to $7.10 a barrel. The cost of the raw materials have increased two and a half cents for a three pound loaf of bread since last year.

One Night Only.

A. C. Peterkin will speak to-night on "Life in the West Indies," in Brock Street Hall. He is on his way to the Argentine republic. All welcome; no collection.

LAD RECEIVED GIFT

For Bravery In Saving Life Of a Young Lady.

Master George Anson, the twelve-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Anson, Royal Military College, was presented with a silver watch and chain, as a gift for bravery, by Major Perreault, acting commandant of the Royal Military College, for saving the life of Miss L. Huggins on December 15th, 1914.

The young lady, while skating on Navy Bay, broke through the ice. Her cries for help were heard by some of the men of the 14th Regiment on guard at the military stores. They tried to get to her assistance, but as the ice was broken in cakes, near the shore, they could not get across. The young lad rushed to her assistance from the college shore, and held her up for about twenty minutes with the aid of a hockey stick, until help came. The lad's name and the date of the affair are neatly engraved on the watch case.

REAL JANUARY THAW

Carried Off Great Deal Of Snow On Wednesday Night.

Kingston had a real January thaw on Wednesday night and as a result a great deal of snow was carried off. The rain which set in early in the afternoon continued during the night and developed into quite a heavy shower. The sleighing is now very poor in many places, and many of the sidewalks have been cleared of snow. The firemen at the lower station had the trouble on Thursday morning of changing from runners to wheels again.

The New County Council.

The new County Council, when it meets on January 20th, will be composed of the following members: Barris, John Gray, Harlowe Bedford, J. A. Kennedy, Fitchborne, Clarendon and Miller, P. J. Wensley, Gardien Island, H. A. Calkin, Kingston; Howe Island, John Foley; Hinchinbrook, C. G. McKnight; Godfrey, Kingston township; T. J. Hawkey, Glenvale, and J. S. Redden, Peopleroad (deputy); Kennebec, L. D. Parks, Loughboro; J. Stoness, Perth Road; Olden, Abbot Thompson, Mountain Grove; Oso, T. J. Munroe, Sharbot Lake; Pittsburg, W. J. Franklin, Joyceville; Portland, W. Deji, Murvale; Portmouth, James H. Halliday, Palmerston and Ganoto; W. J. Donaldson, Donaldson; Strarrington, J. Balls, Sunbury; Wolfe Island, Dr. William Spankie.

Promoted At The Front.

Mrs. A. J. Reid, 946 St. Clarens avenue, wife of the pastor of St. Mark's Anglican church West Toronto, has received information that her first cousin, Col. Herbert Colborne Nanton, engineer corps, second in command of British Indian expeditionary force, has been promoted at the front to the rank of brigadier general, the appointment dating from Nov. 28th, 1914. Brigadier-general Nanton is a graduate of the Royal Military College, Kingston, and has seen service in the Northwest Rebellion and South Africa. He is a grandson of William Botsford Jarvis, first sheriff of York, and is married to Miss Joly de Lotbiniere, of Quebec.
