

VOICE OF THE PULPIT

EVANGELISTIC SERVICE IN PRINCESS STREET CHURCH.

The Spirit of Happiness is One Greatly To Be Desired—The Brightness Shown by a Bible Character.

In the absence of Evangelist Gordon, in Princess Street Church, on Sunday morning, Rev. H. E. Curry, pastor, conducted the services and the after meetings. Rev. B. Pierce preached in the morning a very forceful evangelistic sermon choosing as his text, "Why stand ye idly all the day." His subject was the urging of men to greater work in the vineyard of the Lord. The underlying principle of the Bible as a whole is much stronger than any passage of scripture. The Bible is a great inspiration to greater work and he urged his hearers to a closer reading of the Bible so as to give them strength.

Rev. Mr. Short conducted the service in the Sunday school and Rev. Mr. Doggett conducted the evening service.

The Spirit of Happiness

Rev. E. Lefty Rice conducted the services in Brock Street Methodist Church on Sunday morning choosing as his subject "The Woman of Humankind." She was known as the woman with a happy heart, or a sunlit soul. He spoke of her ability to rise above her own personal sorrows and distress and transcend the ordinary trials and difficulties of life. In looking for the secret of her happy disposition one discovered in three things. First, she was ever mindful of the needs of others, secondly she had what someone has called the "spirit of perceptive helpfulness." There is one other instance in the Bible of the same spirit in Mary of Bethany, who read the heart of Christ and discovered its deepest meaning. In the third place she was a woman of great contentment, satisfied with the sphere in which God has placed her which though lowly, provided opportunity for advancement. It is a spirit that becomes contagious. If Christians really believe what they say they should have the spirit of happiness.

At Cooke's Church.

Rev. G. I. Campbell preached at Cooke's church on Sunday morning, and delivered an impressive sermon on the subject, "Prayer." Miss J. McArthur took the solo part of the anthem in a most acceptable manner. The pastor, Rev. J. W. Mcintosh, preached in the evening. The male quartette, composed of Messrs. McKenzie, McArthur, Gale and Filson, rendered a fine selection.

The War and Missions.

At St. James' Church on Sunday night, Rev. T. W. Savary spoke on "The War and Missions." It had been stated by people, he said, that this was not a good time to talk about mission work, but that it was a good time to give the subject a rest. The speaker declared that there was never a time when there was more need for missions than the present. The king had called his men to arms. Shall we refuse to hear the call? Because the nations were at war should we recall our missionaries? The present time does not face the mission problem. The mission work of the church was carried on by the few. If the church failed in its mission, who is to blame? The war gave the people an opportunity to give to the cause. Some could not give to the work, but there were some who could, who were not giving.

During the offertory the male quartette rendered a beautiful selection.

At Cooke's Sunday School.

The delegates to the Boys' Work conference from Cooke's Church Sunday school, held in Belleville, presented reports to their school on Sunday. John McLaughlin spoke on "The Big Boy and the Little Boy," William Shaw on "The Pocket Testament League," and Henry Fair gave a brief outline of the whole conference. Charles R. Powers and Frank L. Newman also gave short talks. The Pocket Testament League was formed with W. Shaw as secretary. They aim at 500 members during 1915.

AT THE GRAND.

The Marks Company Has Begun Its Second Week.

The "Tom" Marks company drew another capacity audience at the Grand Opera House on Saturday night. "Jerry the Tramp," was the bill. Much interest was evinced in the drawing competition and the prize of the silk was won by Mrs. Phillips, Rideau street. On Monday evening the company will open its second week by the presentation of one of their finest plays, "A Wife's Devotion," or "The Hidden Secret." There will also be a new vaudeville. On Thursday night the company will present a romantic southern play, "The Girl of the Sunny South."

"Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch."

Optimism, undaunted by the rude jolting of the world's rough elbows and simple, unshaken faith in human nature are the predominant tones in "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," which appears at the Grand Opera House on Tuesday, Jan. 12th. The play itself is a homely story of humanity and real goodness, honesty and right purpose, with a pardon in sight for every sinner who looks for it. There are twenty in the cast and even the goat and "Coby," the "fit horse" bid for popular approval. The scenery is not elaborate in the sense of being showy but it is descriptive of humble surroundings and serves the atmosphere of the play. The play will be presented here under the management of the United Play Co.

Fiske O'Hara.

One of the most delightful stories that has ever been placed before the public in dramatic form is that embodied in the play of "Jack's Romance," which will be presented at the Grand on Wednesday, Jan. 13th by Fiske O'Hara and his excellent company of players. The play gives Mr. O'Hara ample opportunity for the introduction of a number of very charming Irish melodies which he sings in his inimitable style. He brings a fine company and a carload of handsome scenery and costumes.

THE SPORT REVIEW

CANADIAN RUGBY FOOTBALL UNION MEETING.

To Appoint a Rules Commission, Like That of the Intercollegiate—W. A. Hewitt Elected President.

The annual meeting of the Canadian Rugby Football Union was held in Toronto on Saturday, J. M. Hazlett of Kingston, represented the intercollegiate union.

The question of revising the rules so that all rugby union members of C.R.F.U. would be playing under the same playing rules during their season, was the first item of business taken up. Much discussion took place over this item and during the conversation, H. Griffiths pointed out that the intercollegiate union had a rules commission of its own making and that also a solicitor to do with the rules. President Phillips, of the interprovincial, pointed out that his union was satisfied to abide by any decision of the C.R.F.U. decided on.

It was the general consent of the meeting that a rules commission be formed, and Edward Phillips and Ben Simpson were named to represent the interprovincial union. John De Gruchy and Dr. Fairbanks will represent the O.R.F.U. and George A. Trenholme and Mr. Felville will look after the Quebec union part. The interprovincial at its annual meeting on January 16th will decide whether it will come in on this commission. If it does, a representative from each of the clubs of the intercollegiate union will be on the commission, but only two of them will have power.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, W. A. Hewitt, Toronto; 1st vice-president, George A. Trenholme, Montreal; 2nd vice-president, Edward Phillips, Ottawa; secretary-treasurer, Hugh Gall, Toronto.

Letter Carriers Meeting. Branch No. 3, Federated Association of Letter Carriers held their annual election of officers on Friday evening. These were elected: President, George Little; vice-president, W. Murphy; secretary-treasurer, George J. Compton; collector, J. Inglis; Sgt. at arms, M. Donnelly; trustees, B. J. Hanton and R. J. Elliott. Three new members were added to the branch.

It was decided that the annual dinner will be held in the near future, either the latter end of January or the first week in February. Report was expressed over the departure of Frederick Phillips who has recruited for the third Canadian Contingent. It was freely voiced that he might serve his country well and return safely.

In Safe Again.

Lieut. C. E. Parker, Shropshire Light Infantry, a graduate of the Royal Military College, Kingston, who was reported missing, is now reported not missing.

RECRUITING PROCEEDS

FOR THE THIRD CANADIAN EXPEDITIONARY FORCE.

All the Cavalry Already Recruited In The Third Division and 700 Of The Infantry.

The recruiting for the third contingent for the overseas force is going on rapidly in the third divisional area. Although the orders for the two battalions of infantry and the two squadrons of cavalry have only been issued a couple of weeks, the cavalry companies all been recruited and there are large numbers of men whose applications have had to be held as there are no vacancies. Seven hundred have volunteered for the infantry.

The third call of the 14th regiment was answered by seven orders, three of which have been accepted, and twenty-five men who are being medically examined and attested. The men who are being accepted are only of the finest type and the examinations have been and are as strict as with the first call.

The order for mobilization will be issued as soon as the O. C. of the division sees fit. The men are at present being kept at regimental headquarters, but when Col. T. D. R. Hemming issues the mobilization orders, three companies (four platoons) will go to Ottawa, one to Smith's Falls and one to Brockville. This battalion is called the 38th. The 39th battalion will gather at six places, 1 company (2 platoons) to Belleville and Lindsay and a platoon each to Peterboro, Port Hope, Coburg and Corvax, as soon as the necessary arrangements can be made, the battalions will be brought together, one in Ottawa and one in Belleville.

The list of officers, as published in Saturday's issue, shows that the 43rd regiment of Ottawa supplied a large number for the 38th battalion. The O. C. of this battalion is from the 43rd regiment, and thirteen other officers. The 47th regiment supplies: Capt. A. W. Gray, of the 14th regiment; Lieut. F. A. Smythe and J. E. Muckle, of the 39th battalion which is composed of men from the eastern part of the division, has among its officers one from the 14th, Lieut. J. A. Dalton and two from the 47th regiment, Lieut. N. Fleming and R. G. H. Travers.

The Trenton Board of Trade, noting that Capt. A. E. Bywater has been seconded from the command of "F" company, 49th Hastings Rifles, to serve on the staff, at Kingston, as D.A.C. and Q.M.G., expressed appreciation of his energetic service, as one of its members and president, his general usefulness as a citizen and his untiring energies in military matters. He is wished every success in his new vocation.

The Cobourg Women's Patriotic Corps has just sent a consignment of apples to the boys at Kingston, which were very gratefully received.

The day's orders had it that a soldier was given "211" days for overstaying his leave. This should have been forty-one days.

In the militia Y.M.C.A. quarters, on Saturday evening, Denn Starr gave an interesting talk to the soldiers on the subject of "The Great War." He spoke with the great havoc that has been made in Belgium. He showed several views of the damage done by shells to cathedrals and buildings, and also several pictures of armies going to the front or at the front.

Rev. J. W. McIntosh conducted the Sunday evening service in the militia Y.M.C.A. quarters and chose as his subject the story of the three young men who went through the ranks of the Philistines to get water for David from the spring of Bethel. David did not think of the water as a thing of value, but he also a soldier from the choir of Cooke's Church, gave music after the sermon.

On Monday and Thursday evenings the committee from Queen's University will give the programme in the

"BUNCOMBE"

It Don't Always Pay to Be Skeptical.

When a newspaper writer and proof reader that works nights can feed himself out of dyspepsia, it is most all that class suffer with it. It is worth while to know the kind of food used.

This man says: "Being a newspaper writer and proofreader, also a graduate, in medicine at McGill, though practicing, makes a combination that would produce a skeptic on the subject if anything would."

"Day after day I read the proof on the Grape-Nuts advertisement with the feeling that they were all 'buncombe.' At this time I was suffering from dyspepsia from the improper food I was eating at the restaurant."

"One day I saw a package of Grape-Nuts at the restaurant and tried some with cream. The food took me fancy at once. After a few lunches on it at midnight I noted an improvement in my feelings, and was able to work with less fatigue. I have used Grape-Nuts as a regular diet since then, and have improved greatly. The old dyspepsia and bad feelings that I thought were necessary adjuncts to my night work disappeared, and I am able to do much more and better work with less effort than ever before."

"I was nearly ready to give up and seek health in some other walk in life but thanks to my change in diet I am now all right. There's a Name given by Canadian Postur Co., Windsor, Ont."

Look in pigs' for the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville." Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

There was no divine service in the armories on Sunday afternoon as the men of the battalion attended the services in the different churches in the morning. Major McLean, O.C. of the left half of the 21st battalion, has returned from St. Louis and was in command of the battalion route march on Sunday afternoon. Lieut. Col. W. S. Hughes was in Ottawa over Sunday.

A splendid song service was held at night in the Y.M.C.A. parlors. Frederick Haffner was soloist, Harold Singleton presided at the piano, Frank L. Newman occupied the chair. The feature of the evening was an instructive address by W. F. Booth, B.A., of Montreal, on Tennyson's poems regarding war and religion. His rendition of "The Revenge" was masterly. Mr. Booth is giving a course of four lectures in public, speaking commencing on Tuesday night. W. J. Mellors, Queensboro, a county road overseer for a number of years, died suddenly on Tuesday.

A Great Blessing to be Freed of Indigestion. For Years He Suffered After Almost Every Meal—Attributes Complete Cure to Use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. The experience of many people who suffer from indigestion is like that of the writer of this letter. Stomach medicines may bring some relief, but chronic indigestion is almost invariably the result of derangements of the liver, kidneys and bowels, and cannot be actually cured until these organs are set right. With the liver sluggish there is constipation, and the food ferments in the bowels instead of being digested. This is the source of pain and suffering, and the cause of such dreaded diseases as appendicitis, peritonitis and kidney disease. It is much better to be on the safe side and prevent such ailments by the timely use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Mr. J. D. S. Barrett, Nelson, B.C., and formerly of Twillingate, Nfld., writes: "For several years I was a great sufferer from indigestion. The least bit of food caused me considerable trouble, and often I could scarcely eat a meal a day. The many remedies I tried proved futile until I began the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and after using about eight boxes I was completely cured. Since that time I have not been troubled with indigestion, which I consider a great blessing. I feel grateful for this cure, and shall gladly answer any inquiries from persons suffering as I did."
