OLD-TIMERS SKATED

On the Harbor-Two Veteraus Per-Formed Splendidly.

The beautiful sheet of ice on the harbor during the past few days proved a wonderful temptation - to skaters. Not only the young and middle aged fell in love with the sport but some of the old residents were to be seen. Andrew McKee, an elderly man living on William street, and who at one time was whirlwind skater, put on skates for ston Lodge, No. 357, will be held on the first time in twenty-three years Tuesday evening, Jun. 12th, at 8 on Monday afternoon. Many of o'clock. R. W. Longmore, D.D.G.M., those who saw him manoeuvre will install. Entertainment. would have been afraid to attempt the stunts which he pulled off. Fancy skating of to-day was not in it with what Mr. McKee perform-tricks. Capt. Coleman Hinckley, another veteran was to be seen on the harbor upon skates which he had used forty years ago. Gloom was cast over many of Tuesday morning when they say
