The annual Queen's Conversation was held last night and was one of the most successful dances of the season. The patronesses Mrs. H. P. J. Coleman, Mrs. J. C. Connell, Mrs. H. T. Wallace, Mrs. O. D. Skelton, Mrs. Jesse Hyde and Miss Gordon received the large number of guests in Grant Hall where dancing was held—the delightful music being supplied by Arbuckle's orchestra. During the evening a concert was given in the English room which was much enjoyed by many who did not care to dance. The supper was served as usual in the reading room, the quartette tables being centred with pink carnations and narcissi.

Miss Kathleen Ryan, Rockwood House, was hostess at an enjoyable luncheon on Thursday afternoon, in honor of Miss Lois Sculley, of Montreal and Miss Lillian Mundell. Covers were laid for ten and the polished table was brightly centred with a large bowl of red poinsettias.

A PRESENTATION MADE
To J. L. Whiting, K. C., By Frontenac Law Association.

After the meeting of the Frontenac Law Association on Friday evening a presentation of a beautiful solid silver jardiniere was made to J. L. Whiting, K. C., who was married last month. The jardiniere was filled with dozens of roses and looked very pretty. J. P. Walkem, K. C., made the presentation. Reference was made to John McIntyre's share in the presentation, and Mr. Walkem read a letter from him regretting his inability to be present, and wishing Mr. Whiting success and happiness.
In reply, Mr. Whiting said it had always been a pleasure to work with the Kingston barristers as he found them reliable and honorable in their dealings. He sincerely thanked the association members for their gift and hoped that he would live long to enjoy it.

FRONTENAC LAW ASSOCIATION
Held Its Annual Meeting On Friday Afternoon.

The annual meeting of the Frontenac Law Association was held on Friday afternoon, J. L. Whiting, K. C., the president, occupied the chair. The financial reports were presented by the secretary-treasurer, T. M. Asselstine, and they showed that the association had made splendid progress in the last few years. At present, the association has one of the most complete libraries outside of Toronto. While the number of lawyers at present was fewer than before, the association was in better financial condition.

It was unanimously decided that all law offices in the city would close at one o'clock every Saturday afternoon in the year.

It was also decided that the annual meeting and the election of officers would in future take place at a dinner. The election of officers resulted: President, J. L. Whiting, K. C.; vice-president, J. B. Walkem, K. C.; secretary-treasurer, T. M. Asselstine. The trustees elected were J. L. Whiting, J. M. Farrell and F. King. The committee elected to look after the association library and purchase books consists of J. L. Whiting, F. King, T. J. Rigney, J. M. Farrell and T. M. Asselstine.
