In Daily Fear Of Death—Until "Fruit-a-tives" Brought Relief.

CHATHAM, ONT., April 3rd, 1913.

"Some two years ago, I was a great sufferer from indigestion. One day my eye caught a billboard of "Fruit-a-tives" and I said to myself "if Fruit-a-tives will build me up like that, it is good enough for me". I bought some. After taking these wonderful tablets for only three weeks, I found myself wonderfully improved. In a short time longer, I cured myself entirely. My case was no light one, either. Gas would often form in my stomach and I was in daily fear that it would get around my heart and kill me. "Fruit-a-tives" is the only remedy for indigestion".

What's the use of suffering from heartburn and the other disagreeable things caused by Dyspepsia and Indigestion, when we offer you the privilege of using Rexall's Dyspepsia Tablets entirely at our risk, with the distinct understanding that, if they don't relieve your stomach trouble and make your stomach comfortable and your digestion easy, they will cost you nothing. If they don't do all you expect them to, we want you to tell us and let us give back your money. We know what they have done for others and what they have made of. That is why we have confidence in them.

They soothe and comfort the stomach, relieve heartburn and distress, promote the secretion of gastric juice and will make the bowels regular. We believe them to be by all odds the best remedy for indigestion or dyspepsia ever made. We believe you will say so, too, once you have used them. If you don't, they will cost you nothing. WAR SUMMARY.

The campaign on both sides appears to be in a state of transition. This is particularly true in the eastern arena, where the Russians are concentrating tremendous forces on either wing, while the Germans are still pounding away in the centre towards Warsaw.

For the present, the greatest Russian effort is westward and northward in Northern Poland. Hungary is being seriously menaced by Russia, and the removal of Von Berchtold indicates serious internal discussion in Austria, so that Germany will be forced to take steps now, before it is too late, to stiffen the opposition to the invading forces in Hungary, and overawe the disaffected elements.

The invasion of Germany proper, when it comes, is likely to be by forces that have crossed the great Hungarian plain and captured Budapest.

In the western arena it would appear that the German army and people are worried by the dormant state of the German campaign, that it is felt that the allied gains must be recovered, and that advanced ground should be acquired before the tremendous reinforcements that Britain and France have prepared have a chance to make their influence felt.

The allies are now in no danger on the western front, and although Russia has suffered appalling losses, there is no evidence that she is not equal to her task. For the next two months, operations on this side are likely to pivot on Warsaw or a point thirty miles west of Warsaw, the line pointing north-westward towards Thorn being like the small hand of a clock, and the line south-westward to Bukovina the large hand.

VERY REMARKABLE.

Amsterdam, Jan. 18.—A German volunteer gives to a Cologne newspaper a remarkable account of a peculiar shot.

"From one of the trenches," he says, "I aimed at my adversary. Suddenly I staggered back, and when I recovered I found my rifle damaged at the lock, and the chamber. I had a very ugly wound in the forehead. I examined the rifle and found in the barrel a French and a German bullet, both flattened. A French bullet had entered my rifle at the muzzle, had followed the course of the barrel, had caused the explosion of my cartridge and the butt of my rifle, and thus had wounded me."

CHILD'S TONGUE BECOMES COATED IF CONSTIPATED

When Cross, Feverish and Sick Give "California Syrup of Figs."

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely.

A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passed out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is good, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passed out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

WOMEN HELD IN TRENCHES.

Are Driven Insane By Frenzied German Cruelties.

Paris, Jan. 18.—The terrible suffering of the female population of the war zone is exemplified by a harrowing story told to a Matin correspondent of the abduction by the Germans of all the women in a French village near the front.

Twenty of these women, it is stated, are still kept in the German trenches, in the Aprmont wood. The correspondent writes:

"I entered a French base line trench, three hundred yards from the German lines, where I heard piercing screams from their direction. 'It is a mad woman,' explained the lieutenant who was conducting me. 'She has been there for many weeks, and has been driven mad by the horrors of the trenches.'"

"One day a German cavalryman trotted along the trench, carrying the woman on his shoulders, so that her head alone appeared above the breast-works exposed to our fire. Needless to say, we did not shoot, but this ordeal drove her mad."

"Tomorrow we dynamite those trenches. The unhappy woman must die too, but it is the cruel necessity of war."

"By a coincidence, the men from the village from which the Germans took the women happen to be fighting in a mad rage, they left the trenches in small groups, to manage the womenfolk, but lost their own lives, so we have been compelled to transfer the remainder to Alsace."

Two of the bullets threw up snow near the feet of the guards.
